The Armenian Evangelical Church Yesterday Today And Tomorrow:

The Armenian Evangelical Church Vahan H. Tootikian,1996 Prior of Kazachi Post E. M. Clifford,2024-01-24

Penelope Prior the daughter of Presbyterian missionaries grew up in an Armenian community in northern Persia During the Great War she and her family returned to the US But as soon as the war ended a call was issued for volunteers with the languages and experience required to bring life saving food and medical aid to the vast numbers of war victims and refugees who had fled to the Armenian Caucasus Hungry sick homeless and desperate the children needed every kind of help A new type of humanitarian enterprise was formed to rescue them on a scale never attempted before This innovative collaboration of churches government agriculture and industry charities voluntary organizations and the media was created by the Near East Relief Penny and her father respond to the call and soon find themselves in a city of orphans children left alone or stranded by war and deportation All of her ability and strength must be summoned to help establish a haven for these young survivors As they face the struggles together trauma and loss begin to make way for a bit of recovery and hope
