The Art Institute of Chicago Centennial Lectures ,1983-01-01 The Art Institute of Chicago Centennial Lectures ,1983-01-01 Famous Works of Art—And How They Got That Way John Nici,2015-09-17 In a world filled with great museums and great paintings Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa is the reigning queen Her portrait rules over a carefully designed salon one that was made especially for her in a museum that may seem intended for no other purpose than to showcase her virtues What has made this portrait so renowned commanding such adoration And what of other works of art that continue to enthrall spectators What makes the Great Sphinx so great Why do iterations of The Scream and American Gothic permeate nearly all aspects of popular culture Is it because of the mastery of the artists who created them Or can something else account for their popularity In Famous Works of Art And How They Got That Way John B Nici looks at twenty well known paintings sculptures and photographs that have left lasting impressions on the general public As Nici notes there are many reasons why works of art become famous few have anything to do with quality The author explains why the reputations of some creations have grown over the years some disproportionate to their artistic value Written in a style that is both entertaining and informative this book explains how fame is achieved and ultimately how a work either retains that fame or passes from the public consciousness From ancient artifacts to a can of soup this book raises the question Did the talent to promote and publicize a work exceed the skills employed to create that object of worship Or are some masterpieces truly worth the admiration they receive The creations covered in this book include the Tomb of Tutankhamun Botticelli's Birth of Venus Raphael's Sistine Madonna El Greco's The Burial of Count Orgaz Rodin's The Thinker Van Gogh's Starry Night and Picasso's Guernica Featuring more than sixty images including color reproductions Famous Works of Art And How They Got That Way will appeal to anyone who has ever wondered if a great painting sculpture or photograph really deserves to be called great Centennial Lectures John Naxon,1983 American Arts at The Art Institute of Chicago Judith A. Barter, Kimberly Rhodes, Art Institute of Chicago, Seth A. Architectural Invention in Renaissance Rome Yvonne Elet, 2018-01-11 Villa Madama Raphael's late masterwork of architecture landscape and decoration for the Medici popes is a paradigm of the Renaissance villa The creation of this important unfinished complex provides a remarkable case study for the nature of architectural invention Drawing on little known poetry describing the villa while it was on the drawing board as well as ground plans letters and antiquities once installed there Yvonne Elet reveals the design process to have been a dynamic collaborative effort involving humanists as well as architects She explores design as a self reflexive process and the dialectic of text and architectural form illuminating the relation of word and image in Renaissance architectural practice Her revisionist account of architectural design as a process engaging different systems of knowledge visual and verbal has important implications for the relation of architecture and language meaning in architecture and the translation of idea into form

The Study Andrew Hui, 2024-12-03 A uniquely personal account of the life and enduring legacy of the Renaissance library With the advent of print in the fifteenth century Europe's cultural elite assembled personal libraries as refuges from persecutions and pandemics Andrew Hui tells the remarkable story of the Renaissance studiolo a little studio and reveals how these spaces dedicated to self cultivation became both a remedy and a poison for the soul Blending fresh insightful readings of literary and visual works with engaging accounts of his life as an insatiable bookworm Hui traces how humanists from Petrarch to Machiavelli to Montaigne created their own intimate studies He looks at imaginary libraries in Rabelais Cervantes Shakespeare and Marlowe and discusses how Renaissance painters depicted the Virgin Mary and St Jerome as saintly bibliophiles Yet writers of the period also saw a dark side to solitary reading It drove Don Quixote to madness Prospero to exile and Faustus to perdition Hui draws parallels with our own age of information surplus and charts the studiolo's influence on bibliographic fabulists like Jorge Luis Borges and Umberto Eco Beautifully illustrated The Study is at once a celebration of bibliophilia and a critique of bibliomania Incorporating perspectives on Islamic Mughal and Chinese book cultures it offers a timely and eloquent meditation on the ways we read and misread today

Women of Substance in Homeric Epic Lilah Grace Canevaro, 2018-09-04 Women in Greek epic are treated as objects as commodities to be exchanged in marriage or as the spoils of warfare However women in Homeric epic also use objects to negotiate their own agency subverting the male viewpoint by utilizing on their own terms the very form they themselves are thought by men to embody Such female objects can transcend their physical limitations and be both symbolically significant and powerfully characterizing They can be tools of recognition and identification They can pause narrative and be used agonistically They can send messages and be vessels for memory Women of Substance in Homeric Epic offers a new and insightful approach to the Iliad and Odyssey bringing together Gender Theory and the burgeoning field of New Materialisms new to classical studies and thereby combining an approach predicated on the idea of the woman as object with one which questions the very distinction between subject and object This productive tension leads us to decentre the male subject and to put centre stage not only the woman as object but also the agency of women and objects The volume comes at a turning point in the gendering of Homeric studies with the publication of the first English translations by women of the Iliad in 2015 and the Odyssey in 2017 by Caroline Alexander and Emily Wilson respectively. It makes a significant contribution to scholarship by demonstrating that women in Homeric epic are not only objectified but are also well versed users of objects; this is something that Homer portrays clearly that Odysseus understands but that has often escaped many other men from Odysseus' alter ego Aethon in Odyssey 19 to modern experts on Homeric epic. French Furniture and Gilt Bronzes J. Paul Getty Museum, Gillian Wilson, Charissa Bremer-David, Jeffrey Weaver, 2008. Each object is described and analyzed in terms of its provenance and published history as well as its construction materials and conservation. With its painstaking attention to detail, this volume is the definitive catalogue of the Getty Museum's collection of French Baroque furniture and will be of interest to scholars, conservators, and all students of French decorative arts.
