Art Institute of Chicago Museum Studies, Number 1 Rachel A. Dressler,1990-06 The Art Institute of Chicago Museum Studies, Volume 17 ,1991 An Open Secret Nicholas L. Syrett,2021-04-05 In 1922 Robert Allerton described by the Chicago Tribune as the richest bachelor in Chicago met a twenty two year old University of Illinois architecture student named John Gregg who was twenty six years his junior Virtually inseparable from then on they began publicly referring to one another as father and son within a couple years of meeting In 1960 after nearly four decades together and with Robert

Allerton nearing ninety they embarked on a daringly nonconformist move Allerton legally adopted the sixty year old Gregg as his son the first such adoption of an adult in Illinois history An Open Secret tells the striking story of these two iconoclasts locating them among their queer contemporaries and exploring why becoming father and son made a surprising kind of sense for a twentieth century couple who had every monetary advantage but one glaring problem they wanted to be together publicly in a society that did not tolerate their love Deftly exploring the nature of their design domestic and philanthropic projects Nicholas L Syrett illuminates how viewing the Allertons as both a same sex couple and an adopted family is crucial to understanding their relationship s profound queerness By digging deep into the lives of two men who operated largely as ciphers in their own time he opens up provocative new lanes to consider the diversity of kinship ties in modern US history
