Transatlantic Modernism and the US Lecture Tour Robert Volpicelli, 2021-06-24 Many Americans first encounter with international modernism came not on the page but in person through the widespread phenomenon of the US lecture tour Attending to these encounters Transatlantic Modernism and the US Lecture Tour reroutes our understanding of modernism away from the magazines and other mass media that have so far characterized its circulation and toward the unique form of cultural distribution that coalesced around the tour Offering many new and compelling archival insights this volume works across an admirably broad cultural landscape to reveal the US lecture tour as a primary mover of modernism The study highlights the role this circuit played in the formation of transatlantic modernism by following a diverse group of authors Oscar Wilde W B Yeats Rabindranath Tagore Gertrude Stein and W H Auden on their whistle stop tours across America illuminating in the process how this extremely physical form of circulation transformed authors into object like commodities to be sold in a variety of performance venues Moreover it shows how these writers responded to such wide ranging distribution by stretching their own ideas about modernist authorship In doing so Transatlantic Modernism and the US Lecture Tour adds to a critical tradition of exposing those popular dimensions of modernism that far exceeded its standard coterie definition while also uncovering something else how the circuit s particular diversity of social contexts forced modernists to take on a new authorial flexibility that would allow them to make in roads with practically any audience elite popular and everything in between The Routledge Handbook to the Culture and Media of the Americas Wilfried Raussert, Giselle Liza Anatol, Sebastian Thies, Sarah Corona

Berkin, 2020-03-02 Exploring the culture and media of the Americas this handbook places particular emphasis on collective and intertwined experiences and focuses on the transnational or hemispheric dimensions of cultural flows and geocultural imaginaries that shape the literature arts media and other cultural expressions in the Americas The Routledge Handbook to the Culture and Media of the Americas charts the pervasive asymmetrical flows of cultural products and capital and their importance in the development of the Americas The volume offers a comprehensive understanding of how inter American communication is constituted framed and structured and covers the artistic and political dimensions that have shaped literature art and popular culture in the region Forty six chapters cover a range of inter American key concepts and dynamics divided into two parts Literature and Music deals with inter American entanglements of artistic expressions in the Western Hemisphere including music dance literary genres and developments Media and Visual Cultures explores the inter American dimension of media production in the hemisphere including cinema and television photography and art journalism radio digital culture and issues such as freedom of expression and intellectual property This multidisciplinary approach will be of interest to a broad array of academic scholars and students in history sociology political science and cultural postcolonial gender literary globalization and media studies Wittgenstein and Modernism Michael LeMahieu, Karen

Zumhagen-Yekplé, 2017 Wittgenstein and Modernism is the first collection to address the rich vexed and often contradictory relationship between modernism the 20th century s predominant cultural and artistic movement and Wittgenstein the most preeminent and enduring philosopher of the period Although Wittgenstein famously declared that philosophy ought really to be written only as a form of poetry we have yet to fully consider how Wittgenstein s philosophy relates to the poetic literary and artistic production that exemplifies the modernist era in which he lived and worked Featuring contributions from scholars of philosophy and literature the contributors put Wittgenstein s writing in dialogue with work by poets and novelists James Woolf Kafka Musil Rilke Hofmannsthal Beckett Bellow and Robinson as well as philosophers and theorists Karl Kraus
