The Dead Birth Itself

Jakob Böhme

The Dead Birth Itself:

The Dead Birth, Itself Betsy Adams, 1993-01-01 The Works of Jacob Behmen ... Jakob Böhme, 1764 Legal Executions in New England Daniel Allen Hearn, 2015-08-13 Between 1623 and 1960 the date of the last execution as of 1999 Connecticut Maine Massachusetts New Hampshire Rhode Island and Vermont legally put to death more than 700 men and women for a wide variety of capital crimes ranging from army desertion to murder This is a companion volume to Legal Executions in New York State and Legal Executions in New Jersey both published by McFarland It is comprised of chronologically arranged biographical entries for the executed persons Each entry gives personal data on the executed person including age ethnicity and gender as well as a detailed account of the crime for which he or she was sentenced to death and information on the place and method of execution Fully indexed Nothing Mat(t)ers Somer Brodribb, 1993 Nothing Mat t ers is a feminist critique of the theories of Foucault Derrida and Lacan among others Somer Brodribb analyzes the texts and the arguments that post structuralism has nominated as central in the process exposing the misogyny at their core Brodribb provides a history of definitions of structuralism post structuralism deconstruction and postmodernism She considers feminist encounters with structuralism and existentialism She evaluates the originality of Foucault s contributions and discusses feminist responses to his work Turning to Derrida she considers his fixation with dissemination and demeaning versus conception and new embodiment She contrasts the work of Lacan and Irigaray on ethics before turning to the work of de Beauvoir O Brien and other feminists as an authentic alternative to postmodern critical theory Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V. Baker, 2015-12-07 The history of the execution of women in the United States has largely been ignored and scholars have given scant attention to gender issues in capital punishment This historical analysis examines the social political and economic contexts in which the justice system has put women to death revealing a pattern of patriarchal domination and female subordination The book includes a discussion of condemned women granted executive clemency and judicial commutations an inquiry into women falsely convicted in potentially capital cases and a profile of the current female death row population No Place Left to Bury the Dead Nicole Itano, 2007-11-20 EVERY DAY in Africa approximately 7 000 men women and children are erased from the face of this planet by the devastating AIDS virus that even after more than two and a half decades continues to wreak havoc around the globe especially in underdeveloped nations No Place Left to Bury the Dead dares to go where media governments and ordinary individuals in the West seldom venture face to face with fellow humans suffering in the shadow of our collective ignorance and neglect In this haunting investigation acclaimed journalist Nicole Itano goes beyond traditional journalistic methods as she eats sleeps and lives with the women who struggle daily with the raging epidemic of AIDS Working from the personal accounts of a few real women living with the disease Itano traces their moments of discovery and diagnosis their first symptoms and the ways they cope with treatment and manage the news with their families Itano s masterful blend of the personal scientific and historical turns statistics into stories and balances tragedy with hope as she outlines the scope of new treatment and prevention In a time when celebrity and political heavy hitters such as Bono and Bill Clinton are rushing to find a remedy for Africa s increasing problem No Place Left to Bury the Dead shows the world how the transformation of a few courageous women can heal entire communities and eradicate denial and how books like these increase global awareness of one of the worst epidemics in human history Like And the Band Played On and The Coming Plague this book is a wake up call that is urgently needed

The Dancing Dead Walter E. A. van Beek,2012-05-08 Walter E A van Beek draws on over four decades of extensive fieldwork to offer an in depth study of the religion of the Kapsiki Higi who live in the Mandara Mountains on the border between North Cameroon and Northeast Nigeria Concentrating on ritual as the core of traditional religion van Beek shows how Kapsiki Higi practices have endured through the long and turbulent history of the region The Aurora Jakob Böhme,1914 The Restless Dead Cristina Rivera Garza,2020-10-15 Based on comparative readings of contemporary books from Latin America Spain and the United States the essays in this book present a radical critique against strategies of literary appropriation that were once thought of as neutral and even concomitant components of the writing process Debunking the position of the author as the center of analysis Cristina Rivera Garza argues for the communality a term used by anthropologist Floriberto D az to describe modes of life of Indigenous peoples of Oaxaca based on notions of collaborative labor permeating all writing processes Disappropriating is a political operation at the core of projects acknowledging both at ethical and aesthetic levels that writers always work with materials that are not their own Writers borrow from the practitioners of a language entering in a debt relationship that can only be covered by ushering the text back to the communities from which it grew In a world rife with violence where the experiences of many are erased by pillage and extraction writing among and for the dead is a form of necrowriting that may well become a life affirming act of decolonization and resistance The Birth to Presence Jean-Luc Nancy,1993 The epoch of representation is as old as the West Indeed representation is the West understood as what at once designates and expands its own limits But what comes after the West What comes after representation s disclosure of its own limit The central problem posed in these essays collected from over a decade of work is how in the wake of Western ontologies to conceive the coming the birth that characterizes being We are now at the limit of representation where objects as we experience them have been show to be merely objects of representation or rather of presentation since there is nothing to re present The first part of this book Existence asks how today one can give sense of meaning to existence as such arguing that existence itself as it comes nude into the world must now be our sense In examining what this birth to presence might be we should not ask what presence is rather we should conceive presence as presence to someone including to presence itself This birth is not the constitution of an identity but the endless departure of an identity from and from within its other or others Its coming is not desire but jouissance the joy of averring oneself to be continually in the state of being born a rejoicing of birth a birth of rejoicing The second section Poetry asks What art exposes this In writing in the voice in painting And what if art is exposed to it How does it inscribe or rather exscribe in a term the book develops the coming existence as such The author s trajectory in this book crosses those of Hegel Schlegel Baudelaire Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger in their comments on art and politics existence and corporeality everyday life and its modes of existence and ecstasy An analysis that dares this crossing involves all the varied accounts of existence political as well as philosophical and all the realms of poverty
