general who exhorted his troops to annihilate the blue eyed enemy and their black slaves At the same time he clearly shows where the return of Western power aimed at new links between conqueror and conquered or lords and bondsmen Throughout the work one encounters an infectious sympathy for those afflicted by imperialism and racism from whatever source at whatever time The book is based on documentary research in Japan Indonesia and the Philippines as well as in the United States and the Netherlands and on over one hundred interviews with major actors and key observers of the era The analysis balances an eclectic use of social science perspectives with a humanistic concreteness and leads to new understanding of leaders like Sukarno and Hatta Jose P Laurel and Benigno Aquino Sr and Generals Yamashita and MacArthur As comparative tropical history it elucidates the contrasting cultural traditions and political psychologies of Indonesia and the Philippines and explains why 1945 was a year of dramatic contrast reoccupation and revolution for the first country and liberation and restoration for the latter Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
