Thought Dallas Kenmare, The Browning Critics Boyd Litzinger, K. L. Knickerbocker, 2021-10-21 The poetry of Robert Browning has been the subject of extensive literary criticism since his death in 1889 Two well known Browning scholars here present the best of Browning criticism bringing together from many sources representative evaluations of the poet and his poetry The twenty one essays here have been arranged chronologically so that the reader can follow the development of Browning studies and the fluctuations of his poetic reputation They express varied points of view and are typical of the critical methods used by the Browning scholars Included are essays by George Santayana John J Chapman G K Chesterton Paul Elmer More William C DeVane Hoxie N Fairchild and Richard D Altick In the introduction Mr Litzinger and Mr Knickerbocker review the broad spectrum of Browning criticism The editors also provide a bibliographic guide to the rapidly growing body of Browning criticism which supplements and brings up to date previous Browning bibliographies

Romanticism and Women Poets Harriet Kramer Linkin, Stephen C. Behrendt, 2014-10-17 One of the most exciting developments in Romantic studies in the past decade has been the rediscovery and repositioning of women poets as vital and influential members of the Romantic literary community This is the first volume to focus on women poets of this era and to consider how their historical reception challenges current conceptions of Romanticism With a broad revisionist view the essays examine the poetry these women produced what the poets thought about themselves and their place in the contemporary literary scene and what the recovery of their works says about current and past theoretical frameworks The contributors focus their attention on such poets as Felicia Hemans Letitia Elizabeth Landon Charlotte Smith Anna Barbauld Mary Lamb and Fanny Kemble and argue for a significant rethinking of Romanticism as an intellectual and cultural phenomenon Grounding their consideration of the poets in cultural social intellectual and aesthetic concerns the authors contest the received wisdom about Romantic poetry its authors its themes and its audiences Some of the essays examine the ways in which many of the poets sought to establish stable positions and identities for themselves while others address the changing nature over time of the reputations of these women poets

Talkin' Union: Texas Women Workers Richard Croxdale, Melissa Hield, 2019 Talkin Union tells the groundbreaking history of Texas women pecan shellers and garment workers who organized for economic and social equality in the 30s Researchers with People's History in Texas relied on first hand oral histories and extensive archival research to bring this story to life in 1979 Their material had limited distribution and is published with a 2019 introduction making this history available to a new generation The Pecan Shellers Strike is now acknowledged as an historic mass movement and the foundation for Hispanic organizing for a generation The Texas garment workers who organized in the 30s with the International Ladies Garment Workers Union have never received the attention they deserve Essays from 1979 about African American women and Chicanas in the Texas workforce capture the beginning of a sea change in women's workforce participation that would soon transform women's lives family dynamics and the U S economy
