Burke,Catherine Manathunga,2023-06-20 The chapters in this book grapple in varying ways with Barbara Adam s concept of timescapes which provides a powerful metaphor that extends the imagery of landscapes to enable an understanding of time as entwined with space conceptually drawn and constituted experientially Space time is deeply relational contextual and experiential forming overarching narratives of higher education its purpose and its future As timescapes become in visibilised and subsumed in various ways and in different contexts into hegemonic discourses of individual responsibility and choice new temporal framings must then be carefully re negotiated and self managed by students and teachers The chapters thus draw on theoretical and empirical contributions to examine intersecting pressures and im possibilities across different timescapes in higher education This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Teaching in Higher Education Labor Bulletin of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts ,1903 Papers and Proceedings of the ...
