Wells and the Twenty-First Century Bill Cooke,2023-09-15 H G Wells has been branded as a novelist who betrayed his vocation But Wells saw himself as what we would today call a public intellectual How credible is this claim And what happens when we look at him in this way So typecast has Wells s reputation become that neither of these questions has been previously asked but when we look at Wells as a thinker we find a whole new quality to his later works which have invariably been dismissed by literary scholars as of low quality or even not worth reading In particular Wells s prescience as a prophet of our current environmental problems stands out for example he foresaw anthropogenic climate change as early as 1931 Popular conceptions of Wells as racist imperialist and eugenicist are also challenged What emerges is a new perspective on a significant public intellectual and pioneering prophet of the twenty first century The Journal of Political Economy ,1913 Deals with research and scholarship in economic theory Presents analytical interpretive and empirical studies in the areas of monetary theory fiscal policy labor economics planning and development micro and macroeconomic theory international trade and finance and industrial organization Also covers interdisciplinary fields such as history of economic thought and social economics Classified Catalogue Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1920 The Nation ,1900 Elizabeth von Arnim Isobel Maddison,2016-04-29 In the first book length treatment of Elizabeth von Arnim s fiction Isobel Maddison examines her work in its historical and intellectual contexts demonstrating that von Arnim s fine comic writing and complex and compelling narrative style reward close analysis Organised chronologically and thematically Maddison s book is informed by unpublished material from the British and Huntington Libraries including correspondence between von Arnim her publishers and prominent contemporaries such as H G Wells Bertrand Russell and her cousin Katherine Mansfield whose early modernist prose is seen as indebted to von Arnim s earlier literary influence Maddison s exploration of the novelist s critical reception is situated within recent discussions of the middlebrow and establishes von Arnim as a serious author among her intellectual milieu countering the misinformed belief that the author of such novels as Elizabeth and Her German Garden The Caravaners The Pastor s Wife and Vera wrote light hearted fiction removed from gritty reality On the contrary various strands of socialist thought and von Arnim s wider political beliefs establish her as a significant author of British anti invasion literature while weighty social issues underpin much of her later writing "Marketing Art in the British Isles, 1700 to the Present " Charlotte Gould,2017-07-05 A cultural history of the first truly modern art market Marketing Art in the British Isles 1700 to the Present furthers the burgeoning exploration of Britain s struggle to carve a niche for itself on the international art scene Bringing together scholars from the UK US Europe and Asia this collection sheds new light on such crucial notions as the internationalization of the art market the emergence of an increasingly complex exhibition culture issues of national rivalry and emulation artists individual and collective strategies for their own promotion and survival the persistent anti commercialism of an elite group of art lovers and critics and accusations of philistinism levelled at the middle classes as well as an unquestionable native British genius at reconciling jarring discourses Essays explore the unresolved tension between artistic aspirations and commercial interest a tension that has come to shape Britain s national artistic tradition from the perspectives of artists dealers and super collectors and the upwardly mobile middle classes whose consumerism gave rise to the British art market as it is known today Specific case studies include Whistler Roger Fry Damien Hirst and Charles Saatchi essays consider art markets from London and Manchester to Paris and Flanders
