far in pursuit of the almighty dollar to the detriment of our families communities and natural environment Even politicians ordinarily impermeable to questions about consumerism are voicing doubts and polls suggest majorities of Americans feel the country has become too materialistic too focused on getting and spending and increasingly removed from long standing non materialist values From the introduction by Douglas B Holt and Juliet B Schor Readers and Society in Nineteenth-Century France M. Lyons,2001-07-24 In the nineteenth century the reading public expanded to embrace new categories of consumers especially of cheap fiction These new lower class and female readers frightened liberals Catholics and republicans alike The study focuses on workers women and peasants and the ways in which their reading was constructed as a social and political problem to analyse the fear of reading in nineteenth century France The author presents a series of case studies of actual readers to examine their choices and their practices and to evaluate how far they responded to or subverted attempts at cultural domination
