Sociology Kurt Finsterbusch, 1999-02

Southern California and the World Eric J. Heikkila, Rafael

Pizarro, 2002-10-30 As underscored by the emergence of the Los Angeles school of contemporary urban studies the Southern California experience its popular culture politics economics spatial structure ethnic diversity technologies and lifestyles has an impact and relevance well beyond its own immediate geographic setting This book explores the parallel and interlinked constructions of identities imaginations and activities in and between Southern California and the world beyond In particular the volume shows how the local and global are interfused with one another making it evident that the connections involve more than a process of globalization Approaching the subject from three perspectives the volume considers how the Southern Californian way of life as reflected through entertainment politics legal institutions technology cultural trends influences the lifestyles of other parts of the world how Southern California as a primary repository of peoples and cultures from throughout the world absorbs and transforms this living diaspora of foreign cultures into something that is uniquely Southern Californian and how Southern California functions as a major nexus within a global network of linked activities and the special roles of Southern California within the context of these global networks The book provides a panoramic and stimulating perspective on the multiplexed connectivities between global phenomena and the Southern California experience

Student Activism and Curricular Change in Higher Education Mikaila Mariel Lemonik Arthur, 2016-04-01 While higher education is still far from universal in the United States it plays an increasingly large role in shaping our collective understanding of what knowledge counts as legitimate and important Therefore understanding the college curriculum and how it is changed and shaped helps us to understand the overall dynamics of knowledge in contemporary society This book considers the emergence of three curricular fields that have developed and spread over the past half century in American higher education Women s studies Asian American studies and Queer LGBT studies It details the broader history of their development as knowledge fields and then explains how when and why individual colleges and universities may choose to adopt such innovations Based on in depth case studies of curricular change processes at six colleges and universities across the United States the book demonstrates that social movements targeting colleges and universities play a major role in curricular change and sets forward a new model for understanding what it takes for social movements targeting organizations to make an impact Unequal Europe Jason Beckfield,2019-02-26 Unequal Europe shows how European integration changes welfare states and income inequality in the European Union To identify who wins and who loses from European integration the book marshals original evidence from household income surveys case studies of welfare states and new measures of social policy and regional integration Faith Schools and Society Jo Cairns,2009-04-26 Do faith schools have a place in a plural society Which types of school contribute most effectively to a plural society This fascinating monograph seeks to answer these questions and more by exploring the fit between personal spiritual and academic goals in contemporary educational experience and individual school cultures Jo Cairns a well respected authority on faith schools argues that educational ideology in plural societies has to find a way of recognizing and responding to the predicament of pluralism as it is experienced by individuals and communities This provocative and challenging book will undoubtedly stimulate debate among educationists across the world Resources in Education ,2001-10 Culture and Learning Mark Olssen,2006-11-01
