Talking Pictures The Popular Experience Of The Cinema:

The Sounds of Early Cinema Richard Abel, Rick R. Altman, 2001-10-03 The Sounds of Early Cinema is devoted exclusively to a little known yet absolutely crucial phenomenon the ubiquitous presence of sound in early cinema Silent cinema may rarely have been silent but the sheer diversity of sound s and sound image relations characterizing the first 20 years of moving picture exhibition can still astonish us Whether instrumental vocal or mechanical sound ranged from the improvised to the pre arranged as in scripts scores and cue sheets The practice of mixing sounds with images differed widely depending on the venue the nickelodeon in Chicago versus the summer Chautauqua in rural Iowa the music hall in London or Paris versus the newest palace cinema in New York City as well as on the historical moment a single venue might change radically and many times from 1906 to 1910 Contributors include Richard Abel Rick Altman Edouard Arnoldy Mats Bj rkin Stephen Bottomore Marta Braun Jean Ch teauvert Ian Christie Richard Crangle Helen Day Mayer John Fullerton Jane Gaines Andr Gaudreault Tom Gunning Fran ois Jost Charlie Keil Jeff Klenotic Germain Lacasse Neil Lerner Patrick Loughney David Mayer Domi nique Nasta Bernard Perron Jacques Polet Lauren Rabinovitz Isabelle Raynauld Herbert Reynolds Gregory A Waller and Rashit M Yangirov BRITISH WAR FILMS, 1939 - 45 S. British War Films, 1939-1945 S. P. MacKenzie, 2001-02-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people s perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939 1945 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis Talking Pictures Colin Harding, Brian Lewis, 1993 Film Kultur Geschichte The People Selina Todd, 2014-04-10 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER There was nothing extraordinary about my childhood or background And yet I looked in vain for any aspect of my family s story when I went to university to read history and continued to search fruitlessly for it throughout the next decade Eventually I realised I would have to write this history myself What was it really like to live through the twentieth century In 1910 three quarters of the population were working class but their story has been ignored until now Based on the first person accounts of servants factory workers miners and housewives award winning historian Selina Todd reveals an unexpected Britain where cinema audiences shook their fists at footage of Winston Churchill communities supported strikers and where pools winners like Viv Nicholson refused to become respectable Charting the rise of the working class through two world wars to their fall in Thatcher's Britain and today Todd tells their story for the first time in their own words

Uncovering a huge hidden swathe of Britain's past The People is the vivid history of a revolutionary century and the people who really made Britain great From silent screen to multi-screen Stuart Hanson, 2019-01-04 Detailed and comprehensive this book is the first survey of cinema exhibition in Britain from its inception until the present Charting the development of cinema exhibition and cinema going in Britain from the first public film screening by the Lumi re Brothers at London's Regent Street Polytechnic in February 1896 through to the development of the multiplex and giant megaplex cinemas the history of cinema exhibition is placed in its wider social cultural and economic contexts Adopting a chronological structure this book takes into account how changes in the structure of the film industry especially regarding the exhibition sector impacted upon the cinema going experience From silent screen to multi screen will be valuable for social historians as well as scholars and students in film studies media studies and cultural history Streetlife Leif Jerram, 2011-02-24 The twentieth century in Europe was an urban century it was shaped by life in and the view from the street Women were not liberated in legislatures but liberated themselves in factories homes nightclubs and shops Lenin Hitler and Mussolini made themselves powerful by making cities ungovernable with riots rampaging through streets bars occupied one by one New forms of privacy and isolation were not simply a by product of prosperity but because people planned new ways of living new forms of housing in suburbs and estates across the continent Our proudest cultural achievements lie not in our galleries or state theatres but in our suburban TV sets the dance halls pop music played in garages and hip hop sung on our estates In Streetlife Leif Jerram presents a totally new history of the twentieth century with the city at its heart showing how everything distinctive about the century from revolution and dictatorship to sexual liberation was fundamentally shaped by the great urban centres which defined it Speaking Pictures Alistair Fox, 2016-03-21 A new way to understand the human longing for stories informed by both neuroscience and psychoanalytic theory In this book Alistair Fox presents a theory of literary and cinematic representation through the lens of neurological and cognitive science in order to understand the origins of storytelling and our desire for fictional worlds Fox contends that fiction is deeply shaped by emotions and the human capacity for metaphorical thought Literary and moving images bridge emotional response with the cognitive side of the brain In a radical move to link the neurosciences with psychoanalysis Fox foregrounds the interpretive experience as a way to reach personal emotional equilibrium by working through autobiographical issues within a fictive form Daily Life in the United States, 1920-1939 David E. Kyvig, 2001-11-30 During the 1920s and 1930s changes in the American population increasing urbanization and innovations in technology exerted major influences on the daily lives of ordinary people Explore how everyday living changed during these years when use of automobiles and home electrification first became commonplace when radio emerged and when cinema with the addition of sound became broadly popular Find out how worklife domestic life and leisure time activities were affected by these factors as well as by the politics of the time Details of matters such as the creation of the pickup truck the development of radio programming and the first mass use of cosmetics provide an enjoyable read that brings the period clearly into focus Centering its attention on the broad masses of the population this animated reference resource emphasizes the wide variety of experiences of people living through The Roaring Twenties and The Great Depression Readers will be surprised to discover that some of the assumptions we have about the lives of average Americans during these eras are historically inaccurate A final chapter provides a unique look at six American communities and gives a vivid sense of the diversity of American experience over the course of these tumultuous years French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni,2004-03-31 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest images through the silent era Surrealist influence the Nazi Occupation New Wave and presently Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world's most beloved films from each era providing insight into our favourite films The Film Mercury,1929 American Film History Cynthia Lucia,Roy Grundmann,Art Simon,2015-06-25 This authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the rich and innovative history of this period in American cinema Spanning an essential range of subjects from the early 1900s Nickelodeon to the decline of the studio system in the 1960s it combines a broad historical context with careful readings of individual films Charts the rise of film in early twentieth century America from its origins to 1960 exploring mainstream trends and developments along with topics often relegated to the margins of standard film histories Covers diverse issues ranging from silent film and its iconic figures such as Charlie Chaplin to the coming of sound and the rise of film genres studio moguls and later the Production Code and Cold War Blacklist Designed with both students and scholars in mind each section opens with an historical overview and includes chapters that provide close careful readings of individual films clustered around specific topics Accessibly structured by historical period offering valuable cultural social and political contexts Contains careful close analysis of key filmmakers and films from the era including D W Griffith Charles Chaplin Buster Keaton Erich von Stroheim Cecil B DeMille Don Juan The Jazz Singer I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang Scarface Red Dust Glorifying the American Girl Meet Me in St Louis Citizen Kane Bambi Frank Capra's Why We Fight series The Strange Love of Martha Ivers Rebel Without a Cause Force of Evil and selected American avant garde and underground films among many others Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings 1960 to the Present to provide an authoritative study of American cinema through the new millennium Motion-picture Films United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce,1936 The Michigan Alumnus,1986 In volumes 1-8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Commerce Reports,1930 Hollywood's African American Films Ryan Jay Friedman,2011-07-27 In 1929 and 1930 during the Hollywood studios conversion to synchronized sound film production white controlled trade magazines and African American newspapers celebrated a vogue for Negro films Hollywood's African American Films argues that the movie business turned to black musical performance to both resolve technological and aesthetic problems introduced by the medium of talking pictures and at the same time to appeal to the white Broadway audience that patronized their most lucrative first run theaters Capitalizing on highbrow associations with white slumming in African American cabarets and on the cultural linkage between popular black musical styles and natural acoustics studios produced a series of African American cast and white cast films featuring African American sequences Ryan Jay Friedman asserts that these transitional films reflect contradictions within prevailing racial ideologies arising most clearly in the movies treatment of African American characters decisions to migrate Regardless of how the films represent these choices they all prompt elaborate visual and narrative structures of containment that tend to highlight rather than suppress historical tensions surrounding African American social mobility Jim Crow codes and white exploitation of black labor

Social History of the United States Brian Greenberg,Linda S. Watts,Richard A. Greenwald,Gordon Reavley,Alice L. George,Scott Beekman,Cecelia Bucki,Mark Ciabattari,John C. Stoner,Troy D. Paino,Laurie Mercier,Andrew Hunt,Peter C. Holloran,Nancy Cohen,2008-10-23 This ten volume encyclopedia explores the social history of 20th century America in rich authoritative detail decade by decade through the eyes of its everyday citizens Social History of the United States is a cornerstone reference that tells the story of 20th century America examining the interplay of policies events and everyday life in each decade of the 1900s with unmatched authority clarity and insight Spanning ten volumes and featuring the work of some of the foremost social historians working today Social History of the United States bridges the gap between 20th century history as it played out on the grand stage and history as it affected and was affected by citizens at the grassroots level Covering each decade in a separate volume this exhaustive work draws on the most compelling scholarship to identify important themes and institutions explore daily life and working conditions across the economic spectrum and examine all aspects of the American experience from a citizen s eye view Casting the spotlight on those whom history often leaves in the dark Social History of the United States is an essential addition to any library collection

Close Up: Cinema And Modernism James Donald,Anne Friedberg,Laura Marcus,1998-01-01 Between 1927 and 1933 the journal Close Up championed a European avant garde in film making This volume republishes articles from the journal with an introduction and a commentary on the lives of and complex relationships between its writers and editors

The Place of the Audience Mark Jancovich,Lucy Faire,Sarah Stubbings,2003-04-28 It has been a recurring complaint both within and against film studies that it has largely ignored the activities of audiences This book aims to address this absence as compared to television studies and to explain its cause The authors argue that there is a social context in which the consumption of film can be understood or studied historically demonstrating that a concentration on the place of film consumption within the changing cultural politics of the city can offer a compelling and productive focus of analysis This book examines not only the different meanings of different sites of film exhibition and distribution city centre cinemas local cinemas art house cinemas multiplexes terrestrial television transmission video rental and retail and satellite cable but also the meanings of the activities of film consumption associated with these sites Through use of archival materials and ethnographic studies of the audience the book examines the meanings of film consumption from the earliest film showings up to the 21st century To-day's Cinema News and Property Gazette ,1913
