Talking With Ingmar Bergman:

Talking with Ingmar Bergman Ingmar Bergman, 1983      Ingmar Bergman Ingmar Bergman, 2007 Interviews with the famed director of Wild Strawberries Scenes from a Marriage The Seventh Seal Saraband and other films      Bergman on Bergman Ingmar Bergman, Stig Björkman, Torsten Manns, Jonas Sima, 1973 Each interview lasted on an average four hours Altogether we spoke with Bergman about his films for rather more than fifty hours About half our conversations were tape recorded This book is based exclusively on this interview material Foreword      In silent conversation with Ingmar Bergman Kunstmuseum Thun, 2008      Ingmar Bergman, Cinematic Philosopher Irving Singer, 2009-09-18 The development of themes motifs and techniques in Bergman's films from the first intimations in the early work to the consummate resolutions in the final movies Known for their repeating motifs and signature tropes the films of Ingmar Bergman also contain extensive variation and development In these reflections on Bergman's artistry and thought Irving Singer discerns distinctive themes in Bergman's filmmaking from first intimations in the early work to consummate resolutions in the later movies Singer demonstrates that while Bergman's output is not philosophy on celluloid it attains an expressive and purely aesthetic truthfulness that can be considered philosophical in a broader sense Through analysis of both narrative and filmic effects Singer probes Bergman's mythmaking and his reliance upon the magic inherent in his cinematic techniques Singer traces throughout the evolution of Bergman's ideas about life and death and about the possibility of happiness and interpersonal love In the overtly self referential films that he wrote or directed The Best Intentions Fanny and Alexander Sunday's Children as well as the less obviously autobiographical ones including Wild Strawberries The Seventh Seal and the triad that begins with Through a Glass Darkly Bergman investigates problems in his existence and frequently reverts to childhood memories In such movies as Smiles of a Summer Night Scenes from a Marriage and Saraband Bergman draws upon his mature experience and depicts the troubled relationships between men who are often weak and women who are made to suffer by the damaged men with whom they live In Persona Cries and Whispers and other works his experiments with the camera are uniquely masterful Inspecting the panorama of Bergman's art Singer shows how the endless search for human contact motivates the content of his films and reflects Bergman's profound perspective on the world      Ingmar Bergman, Pictures and Conversations Ingmar Bergman, 1973      Ingmar Bergman Birgitta Steene, 1987 The films of Swedish director Ingmar Bergman are renowned for their largely spare and stark aesthetic an existential framework and plots driven by a fascination with death and the moral torments of the human soul Birgitta Steene offers here in Ingmar Bergman A Reference Guide an essential and unparalleled resource on the life and work of Bergman Plumbing the depths of these trademark Bergman themes Steene traces as well the indelible mark he left on world cinema through his other cinematographic work and writings Over the decades Bergman's stature and image have evolved in fascinating ways an iconoclast of the 1950s a bourgeois traditionalist of the 1960s and an icon in the 1980s This exhaustive compendium considers each phase of his career exploring his deep and vast oeuvre in all its controversy and complexity and analyzes his intriguing and unique motifs such as his efforts to expose dead conventions and his portrayals of Woman as the archetype of humanity As well as providing a detailed account of Bergman's life and chronicling his career as a filmmaker and theater director including his work for television Steene offers transcripts of some of the numerous interviews and conversations she conducted with Bergman Writings by and about Bergman and a detailed chronological survey of his film and theatrical work completes this eminently readable and thoroughly researched volume A wide ranging and groundbreaking work of film history Ingmar Bergman is the definitive reference for scholars of the Scandinavian master Ingmar Bergman Birgitta Steene, 2005 Exhaustive compendium by one of the world's foremost experts on the Swedish master covers Bergman's life his cultural background his entire artistic career and extensive annotated bibliographies of interviews and critical writings on Bergman

Ingmar Bergman Geoffrey Macnab, 2009-06-17 Ingmar Bergman was the last and arguably the greatest of the old style European auteurs and his influence across all areas of contemporary cinema has continued to be considerable since his death in July 2007 Drawing on interviews with collaborators and original research this book puts Bergman's career into the context of his life and offers a new and revealing portrait of this great filmmaker Geoffrey Macnab explores the often painfully autobiographical nature of his work while also looking in detail at Bergman as a craftsman He considers Bergman's working relationship with his actors especially the actresses he helped make into international stars his passion for theatre literature and classical music and his obsession with death and cruelty The book traces his traumatic childhood asking how his experiences growing up as the son of a strict Lutheran pastor fed into his later writing and filmmaking It also looks at his political life chronicling his teenage flirtation with Nazism his bitter spat in the mid 70s with the Swedish authorities over his tax affairs and his often vexed relationship with his fellow Swedes Geoffrey Macnab also considers how Bergman's work was financed and distributed his relationship with US agents and how close he came to working in Hollywood When I was 10 years old I received my first rattling film projector with its chimney and lamp which went round and round and round I found it both mystifying and fascinating Ingmar Bergman In silent conversation with Ingmar Bergman, 2008 Film and Television Stardom Kylo-Patrick R. Hart, 2009-01-14 Film and Television Stardom examines film and television stars as a collectively complex intriguing social phenomenon from the early twentieth century to the present day Its range of topics includes but is certainly not limited to the emergence and historical development of the star system silent film stardom stardom and media spectatorship stardom and consumption stardom and the paparazzi reality television stars stars in the news and studies of individual stars In addition to providing numerous new insights and approaches to exploring the phenomenon of film stardom past and present its various chapters significantly expand the comparatively nascent body of academic writing that has been devoted to investigating the historical and theoretical aspects of television stardom by focusing on both traditional television programming genres and the more recent phenomenon of reality television programming The numerous stars addressed in this book including Roseanne Barr Gertrude Berg Ingrid Bergman Cher Sacha Baron Cohen Bette Davis Jodie Foster Jerry Lewis Carmen Miranda Anita Page Jessica Simpson and James Stewart are analyzed in relation to noteworthy performances in a variety of well known films including The Accused The Broadway Melody Cinderella Citizen Kane Dark Victory The Man from Laramie Persona and Singin in the Rain and television programs including Da Ali G Show The Apprentice The Goldbergs Roseanne and Survivor

Interart Poetics ,2025-02-03 In this anthology are gathered 28 essays devoted to the interrelations of the arts and media They present together the current state of the emerging field of Interart Studies The contributors Stephen Greenblatt Claus Cl ver Erika Fischer Lichte John Neubauer Steven Paul Scher Walter Bernhart Ulrich Weisstein Eric T Haskell Eric Vos Thomas Elsaesser among others are leading international scholars in the fields of Art History Literary Criticism Musicology Film Theatre and Media Studies In challenging ways they promote interdisciplinary strategies in the study of the traditional arts dance literature music painting sculpture theatre etc as well as of the modern media film TV video computer generated arts etc The essays collected engage in a broad perspective of topics approached from varying theoretical methodological or ideological viewpoints No single thread runs through the diversely conceived essays yet it is evident that what all contributors appear to envision is the importance today of investigations into the problems of what might be called the interart or intermedia discourse Aimed at university teachers scholars students and even artists this book will meet the demands from those interested in modern modes of interart and intermedia analysis

Screening Modernism András Bálint Kovács,2008-09-15 Casting fresh light on the renowned productions of auteurs like Antonioni Fellini and Bresson and drawing out from the shadows a range of important but lesser known works Screening Modernism is the first comprehensive study of European art cinema s postwar heyday Spanning from the 1950s to the 1970s Andr s B lint Kov cs s encyclopedic work argues that cinematic modernism was not a unified movement with a handful of styles and themes but rather a stunning range of variations on the core principles of modern art Illustrating how the concepts of modernism and the avant garde variously manifest themselves in film Kov cs begins by tracing the emergence of art cinema as a historical category He then explains the main formal characteristics of modern styles and forms as well as their intellectual foundation Finally drawing on modernist theory and philosophy along the way he provides an innovative history of the evolution of modern European art cinema Exploring not only modernism s origins but also its stylistic thematic and cultural avatars Screening Modernism ultimately lays out creative new ways to think about the historical periods that comprise this golden age of film

Missouri Review and Centennial Review     Ingmar Bergman at the Crossroads Maaret Koskinen, Louise Wallenberg, 2022-11-17 This collection offers new and insightful perspectives on Ingmar Bergman's work as a film and theatre director as well as writer of fiction. Ingmar Bergman's rich legacy as a film director and writer of classics such as The Seventh Seal, Scenes From a Marriage and Fanny and Alexander has attracted scholars not only in film studies but also of literature, theater, gender, philosophy, religion, sociology, musicology and more. Less known however is Bergman from the perspective of production studies including all the choices, practices and routines involved in what goes on behind the scenes. For instance, what about Bergman's collaborations and conflicts with film producers? What about his work with musicians at the opera, technicians in the television studio and actors on the film set? What about Bergman and MeToo? In order to throw light on these issues, art practitioners such as film directors Ang Lee and Margarethe von Trotta, film and opera director Atom Egoyan and film producer and screenwriter James Schamus are brought together with academics such as philosopher and film scholar Paisley Livingston, musicologist Alexis Luko and playwright and performance studies scholar Allan Havis to discuss Bergman's work from their unique perspectives. In addition, Ingmar Bergman at the Crossroads provides for the first time in-depth interviews with Bergman's longtime collaborators Katinka Farag and Måns Reuterswärd who both have first-hand experience of working intimately as producers in film and television with Bergman covering more than 5 decades. In an open exchange between individual and institutional perspectives, this book bridges the often rigid boundaries between theoreticians and practitioners in turn pointing Bergman's studies in new directions.

Three Vicars Talking Rev Richard Coles, Rev Kate Bottley, Rev Giles Fraser, 2020-09-17 Three Vicars Talking features all 5 of the conversations between Rev Kate Bottley, Rev Richard Coles and Rev Giles Fraser as aired on the award-nominated Radio 4. The perfect gift for those who enjoyed the Three Vicars Talking Radio 4 series or podcast, this elegant hardback book is also ideal for Christians that prefer to read rather than listen, ensuring no misses out on these deeply poignant exchanges. This heart-warming and humorous book features Three Vicars Talking about birth featuring discussion around Baptism which Giles Fraser's discovered is his favourite of the three rites of passage; Three Vicars Talking about marriage which Kate Bottley favoured because at Weddings you get to wear nice shoes; Three Vicars Talking about death and dying which Richard Coles identified as his favourite because funerals take you into the mystery of God; Three Vicars Talking about Christmas and Three Vicars Talking about Easter which was movingly broadcast on the Radio 4 show on Easter Sunday 2020 as the UK was in the grip of the Coronavirus. Each of these engaging Christian conversations includes moments of humour, moments of poignancy and genuine connection between these well-known figures. Engagingly introduced by Christian Morgan who first gathered the three together in a studio, plugged them and watched as they created an authentic, funny, beautiful show. Three Vicars Talking will have you laughing and at times maybe shedding a tear as you follow these dynamic conversations that show the human beings behind the dog collars. These unique Christian conversations can help those with little interaction with the church gain new insights into these pivotal life events and seasons and ensures comedy along the way      Images Ingmar Bergman, 2011-08-10 Ingmar Bergman's career spanned forty years as he produced more than fifty films many of which are considered classics When he began this book Bergman had not seen most of his movies since he made them Resorting to scripts and working notebooks and especially to memory he comments brilliantly and always cogently on his failures as well as his successes on the themes that bind his work together on the relationship between his life and art More clearly than ever before Images allows us to listen to as Woody Allen put it Bergman's voice of genius
