The Cinema of Wim Wenders Roger F. Cook, Gerd Gemünden, 1997 The Cinema of Wim Wenders the first anthology of scholarly work on Wenders is a unique anthropology of source materials and selected critical essays on the films of Wim Wenders a major filmmaker in the so called New German Cinema movement His work probably more than that of any other European director reflects the tension between the European auteur tradition and the increasing dominance of the American media industry In both his filmmaking and his critical writing he explores how the relationship between image and narrative manifests the basic opposition between these two film traditions This book serves as an introduction to the central concerns of his cinema while situating his work within German film history and the contemporary debates about postmodern film and media theory that were Motadel writes some of the most vigorous attempts to politicize and instrumentalize Islam in modern history Dominic Green Wall Street Journal Motadel s treatment of an unsavory segment of modern Muslim history is as revealing as it is nuanced Its strength lies not just in its erudite account of the Nazi perception of Islam but also in illustrating how the Allies used exactly the same tactics to rally Muslims against Hitler With the specter of Isis haunting the world it contains lessons from history we all need to learn Ziauddin Sardar The Independent Alzheimer Talk, Text and Context B.
