The Jottings of David Daube David Daube, Calum M. Carmichael, 2008 One of the great legal minds of our time Daube's depth of scholarship in a range of subjects ancient literature English literature ancient law medical ethics much more was matched by a dazzling agility and originality of mind for instance though raised in an Orthodox Jewish home he produced strikingly original work on the New Testament David Daube's life spanned almost the entire 20th century and he was witness to its history Born a Jew in Germany in 1909 he spent World War II and its aftermath in Britain on the faculties of Cambridge Aberdeen and Oxford He came to the United States in the 60s to the University of California at Berkeley where he reveled in what he called the unmanicured unclubbable countercultural attitudes Through it all he never lost his love for the land of his birth though it didn't love him back for many years he was on Hitler's list of those to be put to death once Germany had conquered England Not your typical fusty professor he was a brilliant and charming commentator on matters personal political social and philosophical The reader of these jottings set down in the 1970s and 80s will understand within a page or two why those who knew him treasured him as a friend mentor and intellectual provocateur These private reflections gathered by one of his most distinguished students are charming insightful thought provoking sometimes profound and sometimes just amusing His commentaries on political and social issues of his time ranged from bravely original thought on Israel and the Palestinians to an amusing and enlightening review of the sensational porn film Deep Throat Here are some sample jottings I love women They provide the unhappiness that I need in life People are more struck by the asininity of the law when they are trapped by it than when they are let off We are all of us survivors all the time everything that is is a survivor relative to what has fallen by the wayside Naturally having escaped from Hitler's clutches myself I am a bit more alive to the whole business than the average guy The book's editor Calum Carmichael Professor of Comparative Literature and Adjunct Professor of Law at Cornell has degrees in science historical theology and law from the Universities of Glasgow Edinburgh and Oxford He teaches biblical and cognate Near Eastern and Talmudic literature as well as courses on law and literature in antiquity He is the author of nine books that focus primarily on biblical law the editor of a six volume series devoted to the work of David Daube who was his teacher at Oxford and the author of a memoir Ideas and the Man Remembering David Daube

Roman Law and Language Calum Carmichael, Laurent Mayali, 2019-09-30 Law and Wisdom in the Bible David Daube, 2011-05-01 That over forty years after they were delivered these famous but unavailable Gifford Lectures should be published is occasion for celebration Once again we hear Daube's voice patient and probing as he turns over tests pushes fresh inquiries and finds new insights No man has had such a subtle sense of scriptural texts matched by such a supple sense of the practices and peculiarities of human beings engaged in the legal process Law and Wisdom in the Bible is classic Daube — John T Noonan Jr United States Circuit Judge David Daube 1909-99 was known for his unique and sophisticated research on Roman law biblical law Jewish Law and medical ethics In Law and Wisdom in the Bible the first published collection of his 1964 Gifford Lectures Daube derives from his complex understanding of biblical texts both ancient and contemporary notions about wisdom justice and education In addressing these and other profound issues Daube crosses traditional disciplinary boundaries and bridges the gap between humanism and religion especially with regard to Christianity and Judaism With his sophisticated understanding of Talmudic law and literature his thinking which is on full display in these lectures revolutionized prevailing perceptions about the New Testament

The Deed and the Doer in the Bible David Daube, 2008 World renowned biblical law scholar David Daube researched Roman law Hebraic law and medical ethics In his first Gifford lecture presented in September and October 1962 he analyzes and questions deeds of all sorts in the Bible and examines topics such as free will subjective and objective criteria that constitute negligence attitudes to attempted criminal acts and biblical views of certain offenses special to women

The Sacrificial Laws of Leviticus and the Joseph Story Calum Carmichael, 2017-08-18 In this study Calum Carmichael offers a new assessment of the Joseph story from the perspective of the biblical laws in Leviticus 1-10 These sacrificial laws he argues respond to the many problems in the first Israelite family Understanding how ancient lawgivers thought about Joseph's and his brothers troubling behavior leads to a greater appreciation of this complicated tale The study of the laws in Leviticus 1-10 in relation to the Joseph story provides evidence that all biblical laws over 400 constitute commentary on issues in the biblical narratives They do not as commonly thought directly reflect the societal concerns in ancient Israelite times Through close reading and analysis Carmichael reveals how biblical narrators and lawgivers found distinctive and subtle ways of evaluating a single development in a narrative from multiple perspectives Thus the sacrificial laws addressing idolatry keeping silent about a known offense confessing wrongdoing and seeking forgiveness become readily understandable when reviewed as responses to the events in the Joseph story

The Law of Testimony in the Pentateuchal Codes Bruce Wells, 2002 Reader's Guide to Judaism Michael Terry, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Judaism is a survey of English language translations of the most important primary texts in the Jewish tradition. The field is assessed in some 470 essays discussing individuals, Martin Buber, Gluckel of Hameln, literature, Genesis, Ladino, literature, thought and beliefs, Holiness, Bioethics, practice, Dietary Laws, Passover, history, Venice, Baghdadi Jews of India, and arts and material culture, Synagogue Architecture, Costume. The emphasis is on Judaism rather than on Jewish studies more broadly.

Both Judge and Justifier James B. Prothro, 2018-04-13 Paul often says that God justifies people in Christ, but what does that mean? God does. The language appears legal, but many other interpretations have been suggested. Beginning from the use of this language in Judaism and early Christianity, James B. Prothro investigates biblical legal conflicts and the terminology of justification in Paul's letters to determine what it means for Paul to say that God as judge is the justifier of those who trust in Christ.

Interpreting 4 Ezra and 2 Baruch Gabriele Boccaccini, Jason M. Zurawski, 2014-04-24 In this volume, Gabriele Boccaccini and Jason M. Zurawski collect together essays from leading international scholars on the books of 4 Ezra and 2 Baruch. The literature of the Second Temple Period has become increasingly studied in recent years as scholars have begun to recognize the importance of these texts for a developed understanding of Rabbinic and Christian origins. Through close readings of the texts themselves, examining the books in comparison with other Jewish apocalyptic literature and early Christian materials, and reading the texts in light of their social and historical settings, the fifteen papers collected herein significantly advance the current scholarly conversation on these defining Jewish apocalypses written at the end of the first century CE, and they shed light on the everlasting legacy of apocalyptic ideas in both Christianity and Judaism.

Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 1998 The Jewish Law Annual Bernard S. Jackson, 2023-08-28 Volume 15 of The Jewish Law Annual adds to the growing list of articles on Jewish law that have been published in volumes 1-14 of this series, providing English-speaking readers with scholarly material meeting the highest academic standards. The volume contains six articles, diverse in their scope and focus, encompassing legal, historical, textual, comparative, and conceptual analysis, as well as a survey of recent literature and a chronicle of cases of interest. Among the topics covered are lying in rabbinical court proceedings, unjust enrichment, can a witness serve as judge in the same case? Caro's Shulham Arukh, volume Maimonides, Mishne Torah in the Yemenite community, the New Jersey eruv wards.

Sex and Religion in the Bible Calum Carmichael, 2010-03-30 If we look to the Bible for historical accounts of ancient life, we make a profound error. So contends Calum Carmichael in this original and incisive reading of some of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament's most famous narratives. Sifting through the imaginative layers of these texts with an uncanny sensitivity and a panoptic critical eye, he unearths patterns connecting disparate passages, providing fascinating insights into how ideas were expressed, received, and transformed in the ancient Near East. Ranging from Jacob's encounter with Leah to the marriage at Cana to Jesus' encounter with the woman at the well, these readings demonstrate the remarkable subtlety and sophistication of the biblical views on marriage sexuality fertility impurity creation and love The Journal of Jewish Studies ,1995 Matthew Craig A. Evans,2012-02-06 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to the New Testament Gospel of Matthew and its historical social and religious contexts Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1999-04 Religion, Law and Tradition Andrew Huxley,2012-10-12 This book brings together two scholarly traditions experts in Roman Jewish and Islamic law an area where scholars tend to be familiar with work in each area and experts in the legal traditions of South and East Asia which have tended to be less interdisciplinary The resulting mix produces new ways of looking at comparative law and legal history from a global perspective and these essays contribute both to our understanding of comparative religion as well as comparative law The Birth of a Legal Institution Peter C. Hennigan,2004 This work presents an analysis of the earliest legal treatises on the Islamic trust or waqf the Ah kam al Waaf of Hilal al Ray and the Ah kam al Awqaf of al Khassaf This work undertakes a textual analysis of the treatises
