Tampering With Asylum A Universal Humanitarian Problem:

Tampering with Asylum Frank Brennan, 2007 A topical and timely book that addresses the growing social and political issues of national borders Brennan offers comparisons to US and European experiences and a practical blueprint for countries wanting to humanely protect asylum seekers Asylum Seekers Linda Briskman, Alperhan Babacan, 2009-05-27

Contemporary Asylum Narratives A. Woolley, 2014-01-28 Contemporary Asylum Narratives marks a transition from traditional modes of diasporic belonging to the need for identifications that encompass the statelessness of refugees and asylum seekers This book explores representations of asylum seekers and refugees in twenty first century literature film and theatre The Securitization of Humanitarian Migration Scott D. Watson, 2009-06-02 As western liberal states progressively restrict access to refugees and asylum seekers this book explores how migration has been securitized using detailed case studies on policies in Canada and Australia Migration in China and Asia Jijiao Zhang, Howard Duncan, 2014-04-08 This book will enlarge our grasp of global migration phenomena offering insights into the fascinating at times startling realities of human migration in Asia The chapters presented in this volume offer variety in not only theme but in approach to migration in Southeast and East Asia Particularly welcome for a volume on migration studies a discipline that has long been dominated by economists sociologists and geographers are the chapters that approach the subject from an anthropological or ethnological perspective These chapters bring to our attention details of the lives of migrants and their communities that are often lost in studies of migration statistics the economic aspects of migration or aspects of urban geography with which we have become more familiar Some chapters are more theoretical in nature and herein lie some of the most important reasons for studying migration involving Asian countries migration studies have until relatively recently developed their theoretical insights on the basis of European migration to North America Asian migration offers new theoretical challenges to migration scholars its dynamism is such that predictions of what is to come are not for the risk averse The empirical studies here provide fascinating details of the strategies used by asylum seekers of marriage migration of the role of homeland languages in education of the workings of ethnic entrepreneurs of the media s role in sustaining Chinese communities and on the incentive structures that are helping to shape return flows to China For readers who are from Asian countries this book will illuminate the changes that are taking place in your region as a result of migration For readers from developed and other societies it will provide new insights into migration involving this understudied part of the world an area that supplies the lion s share of immigrants to developed economies and the area whose rapid economic development will soon make it their greatest competition for migrants especially the highly skilled USAK Yearbook of International Politics and Law , 2008 Bu kitap USAK n y l d a bir kez ngilizce olarak yay n l d o y l i inde USAK uzmanlar ve ara t rmac lar taraf ndan yaz lan en se kin makale ve yorumlar n yer ald yay n d r Alan nda uzman ki iler taraf ndan yaz lm makaleler aras ndan se ilen en se kinleri b ylelikle okuyucunun be enisine sunulmaktad r Australia in International

Politics Stewart Firth, 2020-07-28 The world changed for Australia after the terrorist attacks on the US on September 11 2001 and the Bali bombings of 2002 Security became the dominant theme of Australian foreign policy Australian military forces remained in Afghanistan years later opposing the terrorist threat of the Taliban while hundreds of Australian troops and police worked with public servants to build the state in Asia Pacific countries such as East Timor and Solomon Islands The world changed for Australia too when the global financial crisis of September 2008 threatened another Great Depression Meantime the international community made slow progress on measures to stem climate change potentially Australia's largest security threat In a newly revised and updated edition Australia in International Politics shows how the nation is responding to these challenges The book describes how Australian foreign policy has evolved since Federation and how it is made It examines Australia's part in the United Nations humanitarian intervention and peacekeeping It analyses defence policy and nuclear arms control It explains why Australia survived the global financial crisis and why the G20 has become the leading institution of global economic governance It charts the course of Australia's climate change diplomacy the growth of Australia's foreign aid human rights in foreign relations and the rise of China as a great power Written by one of Australia's most experienced teachers of international relations Australia in International Politics explains Australian foreign policy for readers new to the field one of the best books on Australian foreign policy that I have read in recent years Samuel M Makinda Australian Journal of Political Science

Critical Reflections on Migration, 'Race' and Multiculturalism Martina Boese, Vince Marotta, 2017-06-26 Migration and its associated social practices and consequences have been studied within a multitude of academic disciplines and in the context of policies at local national and regional level This edited collection provides an introduction and critical review of conceptual developments and policy contexts of migration scholarship within an Australian and global context through political economy analyses of migration and associated transformations sociological analyses of settling in processes multi disciplinary analyses of migrant work a historical review of scholarship on refugees a Southern theory approach to cultural diversity sociological reflections on post nationalism Cultural Studies analyses of public culture and second generation youth cultures interdisciplinary and Critical Race analyses of race and racism feminist intersectional analyses of migration belonging and representation the theorising of cosmopolitanism a transdisciplinary analysis of gender transnational families and care and a comparative transcontextual analysis of hybridity An essential contribution to the current mapping of migration studies with a focus on Australian scholarship in its international context this collection will be of interest to undergraduates and postgraduates interested in fields such as Sociology Cultural Studies Geography and Politics

Let Me Be a Refugee Rebecca Hamlin, 2014-08-19 International law provides states with a common definition of a refugee as well as guidelines outlining how asylum claims should be decided Yet even across nations with many commonalities the processes of determining refugee status look strikingly different This book compares the refugee status determination RSD regimes of three popular asylum seeker destinations the United States Canada and

Australia Though they exhibit similarly high levels of political resistance to accepting asylum seekers refugees access three very different systems none of which are totally restrictive or expansive once across their borders These differences are significant both in terms of asylum seekers experience of the process and in terms of their likelihood of being designated as refugees Based on a multi method analysis of all three countries including a year of fieldwork with in depth interviews of policy makers and asylum seeker advocates observations of refugee status determination hearings and a large scale case analysis Rebecca Hamlin finds that cross national differences have less to do with political debates over admission and border control policy than with how insulated administrative decision making is from either political interference or judicial review Administrative justice is conceptualized and organized differently in every state and so states vary in how they draw the line between refugee and non refugee

The Citizen in the 21st Century James Arvanitakis, Ingrid Mattherws, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 In the nineteen essays of this collection the 21st century citizen is introduced deconstructed probed and admired among the messy realities of the contemporary world As an inter disciplinary project the collection draws on expertise from across Europe North America and Australasia to offer new insights into such diverse existences as the environmental citizen the young citizen the multiple citizen the non citizen and the global citizen It unflinchingly spotlights the failures of our contemporary societies to resolve the endless universal problems of conflict poverty and oppression It also opens windows of hope onto a range of new understandings and innovative approaches to the challenges we face from the mass movements of refugees to the digitalisation of social contact This material can be read as a whole as a conceptual collection or it can be dipped in to and out of between work and leisure Whether it is read as research or pastime this volume will challenge and confront comfort and renew the many ways of thinking about citizenship in the 21st century

The Politics of Human Rights in Australia Louise Chappell, Professor and Australian Research Council Future Fellow School of Social Sciences and International Studies Louise Chappell, John Chesterman, Lisa Hill, 2009-09-04 This book addresses the key debates surrounding human rights in Australia Should Australia adopt a bill of rights in an age of terror How well protected are workers rights The Politics of Human Rights in Australia shows that Australians enjoy only a loose and incomplete safety net of rights protection

Spooked Daniel Baldino, 2013-11-01 Terrorist acts most notably 9 11 and the Bali bombings transformed our attitudes to the secretive world of intelligence surveillance and security In this book a prominent group of writers including Michael Mori Ben Saul Anne Aly and Peter Leahy lay bare the facts about spying and security in post 9 11 Australia Their compelling book cuts through panic and fear mongering to ask hard questions Is ASIO unaccountable Is the money we spend on security worth it Is cyber terrorism an urgent threat Are our spies up to the job and how do we know anyway as we only hear about their failures Is WikiLeaks good for human rights Are we trading our privacy for a false sense of security Spooked untangles the half truths conspiracy theories and controversies about the war on terror and is a welcome antidote to misinformation and alarm Quarterly Essay 13 Sending Them Home Robert Manne, David Corlett, 2003-12-01 In the first Quarterly Essay of 2004 Robert Manne tells the stories of individual asylum seekers and finds in their experience the seeds of a devastating critique Balancing sorrow and pity with a controlled anger Manne develops a sustained argument about what could and should be done for the nine thousand refugees who remain in limbo on temporary protection visas Sending Them Home also contains a groundbreaking account of conditions in the offshore processing camps on Nauru whose operations have until now been shrouded in secrecy and a damning forensic investigation of the recent efforts to return frequently against their will many of those who sought our protection and whose countries remain in turmoil Combining ethical reflection and acute political analysis this essay initiates a new phase in the refugee debate No one ought to pretend that the unanticipated arrival of the Iraqis Afghans and Iranians did not pose real problems for Australia However these problems arose not because these people were not genuine refugees They arose rather precisely because the overwhelming majority of them were Robert Manne Sending Them Home

The Politics of Citizenship in Immigrant Democracies Geoffrey Brahm Levey, Ayelet Shachar, 2017-10-02 This book brings together scholars from various disciplines to explore current issues and trends in the rethinking of migration and citizenship from the perspective of three major immigrant democracies Australia Canada and the United States These countries share a history of pronounced immigration and emigration extensive experience with diasporic and mobile communities and with integrating culturally diverse populations They also share an approach to automatic citizenship based on the principle of jus soli as opposed to the traditionally common jus sanguinis of continental Europe and a comparatively open attitude towards naturalization Some of these characteristics are now under pressure due to the restrictive turn in citizenship and migration worldwide This volume explores the significance of political structures political agents and political culture in shaping processes of inclusion and exclusion in these diverse societies This book was originally published as a special issue of Citizenship Studies

Citizenship, Migrant Activism and the Politics of Movement Peter Nyers, Kim Rygiel, 2012-02-13 Migration is an inescapable issue in the public debates and political agendas of Western countries with refugees and migrants increasingly viewed through the lens of security This book analyses recent shifts in governing global mobility from the perspective of the politics of citizenship utilising an interdisciplinary approach that employs politics sociology anthropology and history Featuring an international group of leading and emerging researchers working on the intersection of migrant politics and citizenship studies this book investigates how restrictions on mobility are not only generating new forms of inequality and social exclusion but also new forms of political activism and citizenship identities The chapters present and discuss the perspectives experiences knowledge and voices of migrants and migrant rights activists in order to better understand the specific strategies tactics and knowledge that politicized non citizen migrant groups produce in their encounters with border controls and security technologies The book focuses the debate of migration security and mobility rights onto grassroots politics and social movements making an important intervention into the fields of migration studies and critical citizenship studies Citizenship Migrant Activism and the Politics of Movement will be of interest to students and scholars of migration and security politics globalisation and citizenship studies Generosity and Refugees: The Kosovars in Exile Robert Carr,2018-05-23 Generosity and Refugees The Kosovars in Exile is a work of history studying the social and political context encountered by Kosovar refugees fleeing their homeland to Australia at the height of the NATO led war against Serbian forces in 1999 The flight of the Kosovar refugees changed Australia s asylum seeker policy forever and a new test for international humanitarianism had begun Today refugee crises globally beg the international community to embrace a generosity of spirit A question this book asks is whether there are limits to generosity inhibited by nationally contextual and historical perspectives Generosity and Refugees examines the role of the media in framing public understandings of refugees with intriguing parallels for understanding the contemporary political climate internationally

Social Representations and Identity G. Moloney,I. Walker,2007-10-29 Drawing on the non individualistic perspective of social representations theory this book presents an alternative view of social identity by articulating the inseparable dynamic relationships that exist between content process and power relations when social identity is embedded in social knowledge The Palgrave International Handbook of Education for Citizenship and Social Justice Andrew Peterson,Robert Hattam,Michalinos Zembylas,James Arthur,2016-10-20 This state of the art comprehensive Handbook is the first of its kind to fully explore the interconnections between social justice and education for citizenship on an international scale Various educational policies and practices are predicated on notions of social justice yet each of these are explicitly or implicitly shaped by and in turn themselves shape particular notions of citizenship education for citizenship Showcasing current research and theories from a diverse range of perspectives and including chapters from internationally renowned scholars this Handbook seeks to examine the philosophical psychological social political and cultural backgrounds factors and contexts that are constitutive of contemporary research on education for citizenship and social justice and aims to analyse the transformative role of education regarding social justice issues Split into two sections the first contains chapters that explore central issues relating to social justice and their interconnections to education for citizenship whilst the second contains chapters that explore issues of education for citizenship and social justice within the contexts of particular nations from around the world Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of Education Sociology Social Policy Citizenship Studies and Political Science Race and State Karen Fricker,Ronit Lentin,2009-01-14 Speaking about racism in the western political climate of the first decade of the twenty first century is more difficult than ever before There is a feeling in post colonial and post immigration societies that the blatant overt racism of the past is no longer as pressing Admitting racism elicits discomfort because common wisdom tells us that racism opposes everything that we believe in as citizens of democratic civilised modern states Yet state racism appears to be here to stay and in many ways is more acceptable than ever before Immigration detention centres the deportation of failed asylum seekers and illegal immigrants racial profiling and the rolling back of liberties won by the civil rights movement are all examples of how state racism impacts on our daily lives Race and State contributes to breaking the taboo of discussing the links between race and state The papers collected in this book highlight the interconnections between race and state from historical theoretical or contemporary sociological perspectives Part I of the book looks at theoretical issues in conceptualising the race state relationship Part II examines racism in its most pernicious contemporary manifestation the racialisation of terror Part III on the racial state s of Ireland is an important addition to the debate examining Ireland as a test case for demonstrating and interpreting the relationship between race and state

Australian Offshore Laws M. W. D. White, 2009 Australian Offshore Laws brings together in one place a reference to all laws that apply to offshore Australian waters for the benefit of legal practitioners regulators academics and students It demonstrates the unnecessary complexity of the Australian offshore legal regime and proposes as a first step towards reform a review of the Offshore Constitutional Settlement of 1979 OCS 1979 It discusses the manner of present drafting of such laws as many Commonwealth State and Territory laws apply offshore but few are drafted in a manner which identifies their limits or recognises their interaction with other offshore laws of with the OCS 1979
