China on the Sea Zheng

Yangwen,2011-10-14 Generations of Chinese scholars have made China synonymous with the Great Wall and presented its civilization as fundamentally land bound This volume challenges this perspective demonstrating that China was not a Walled Kingdom certainly not since the Yongjia Disturbance in 311 China reached out to the maritime world far more actively than historians have acknowledged while the seas and what came from the seas from Islam fragrances and Jesuits to maize opium and clocks significantly changed the course of history and have been of inestimable importance to China since the Ming This book integrates the maritime history of China especially the Qing period a subject which has hitherto languished on the periphery of scholarly analysis into the mainstream of current historical narrative It was the seas that made Tang China a Cosmopolitan Empire Mark Lewis the Song dynasty China s Greatest Age John Fairbank China at 1600 the largest and most sophisticated of all unified realms on earth Jonathan Spence and the reign of the three Qing emperors Kangxi Yongzheng and Qianlong China s last golden age Charles Hucker China and the Silk Roads (ca. 100 BCE to 1800 CE) Angela Schottenhammer,2023-09-14 The book investigates China s relations to the outside world between ca 100 BCE and 1800 CE In contrast to most histories of the Silk Roads the focus of this book clearly lies on the maritime Silk Road and on the period between Tang and high Qing selecting aspects that have so far been neglected in research on the history of China s relations with the outside world The author examines for example issue of imperialism in imperial China the specific role of fanbing frontier tribal troops during Song times the interrelationship between maritime commerce military expansion and environmental factors during the Yuan the question of whether or not early Ming China can be considered a proto colonialist country the role force and violence played during the Zheng He expeditions and the significance the Asia Pacific world possessed for late Ming and early Qing rulers Pottery Sunhwa Rha,2006 Pottery has the longest and strongest tradition in Korean ceramics continuing from prehistoric times to the present But it has not been given the attention it deserves because the history of Korean ceramics is focused on porcelain This book takes a close look at pottery the most commonly used type of vessel in the everyday life of Koreans dividing it into two major categories unglazed pottery from comb patterned earthenware to modern day pureok and glazed pottery from the wares of Gurim ri kiln to onggi It shows that Korean pottery vessels though rather overlooked in history have a simple beauty that makes them valuable works of art
