Tangata Whenua Atholl Anderson, Judith Binney, Aroha Harris, 2015-11-19 Tangata Whenua A History presents a rich narrative of the M ori past from ancient origins in South China to the twenty first century in a handy paperback format The authoritative text is drawn directly from the award winning Tangata Whenua An Illustrated History the full text of the big hardback is available in a reader friendly edition ideal for students and for bedtime reading and a perfect gift for those whose budgets do not stretch to the illustrated edition Maps and diagrams complement the text along with a full set of references and the important statistical appendix Tangata Whenua An Illustrated History was published to widespread acclaim in late 2014 This magnificent history has featured regularly in the award lists winner of the 2015 Royal Society Science Book Prize shortlisted for the international Ernest Scott Prize winner of the Te K roero o Mua History Award at the Ng Kupu ora Aotearoa M ori Book Awards and Gold in the Pride in Print Awards The importance of this history to New Zealand cannot be overstated M ori leaders emphatically endorsed the book as have reviewers and younger commentators They speak of the way Tangata Whenua draws together different strands of knowledge from historical research through archaeology and science to oral tradition They remark on the contribution this book makes to evolving knowledge describing it as a canvas to paint the future on And many comment on the contribution it makes to the growth of understanding between the people of this country

Tikanga Māori Sidney M. Mead, Hirini Moko Mead, 2003 Relationships between and among people need to be managed and guarded by some rules Professor Hirini Moko Mead s comprehensive survey of tikanga Maori Maori custom is the most substantial of its kind every published Ranging over topics from the everyday to the esoteric it provides a breadth of perspectives and authoritative commentary on the principles and practice of tikanga Maori past and present The Journal of the Polynesian Society Polynesian Society (N.Z.), 1925 Vols for 1892 1941 contain the transactions and proceedings of the society Mana Moana Robert Pouwhare, Carla Houkamau, 2025-01-01 From the arrival of Maori in Aotearoa to the present day kaimoana has always been integral to Maori identity a vital source of sustenance and mana for hapu and iwi shaping the Maori economy and culture Mana Moana chronicles Maori fisheries in Aotearoa linking ancient purakau of Polynesian navigators to contemporary issues of sustainability and economic development It introduces readers to pre colonial fishing methods inter tribal trade routes and accounts from early European explorers who marvelled at Maori fishing prowess and then moves on to detail the enduring struggle for Maori fishing rights the 1992 Treaty of Waitangi Fisheries Settlement and the creation of Aotearoa Fisheries Limited now Moana New Zealand Owned by fifty eight iwi shareholders Moana New Zealand is a unique business guided by te ao Maori values and committed to both commercial success and sustainability Weaving together history matauranga business and politics Mana Moana offers readers deep insight into Maori fisheries and the realisation of mana Maori within a large scale commercial enterprise Contested Holdings Felicity Bodenstein, Damiana Otoi, Eva-Maria Troelenberg, 2022-02-14 Going beyond strictly legal and property oriented aspects of the restitution debate restitution is considered as part of a larger set of processes of return that affect museums and collections as well as notions of heritage and object status Covering a range of case studies and a global geography the authors aim to historicize and bring depth to contemporary debates in relation to both the return of material culture and human remains Defined as contested holdings differing museum collections ranging from fine arts to physical anthropology provide connections between the treatment and conceptualization of collections that generally occupy separate realms in the museum world

The Shaping of History Judith Binney, 2021-05-07 The writing of history will only flourish if there is a vehicle for its publication such was Sir Keith Sinclair's vision when he founded The New Zealand Journal of History in 1967 Since then the journal has been the conduit for a flow of remarkable history writing The Shaping of History brings together a selection of essays from its first 30 years by some of the nation's best known historians including Judith Binney Tipene O Regan Claudia Orange Barbara Brookes Alan Ward Jock Phillips and Jamie Belich Their sharp analysis and great storytelling make the collection an essential resource for understanding how New Zealand history is shaped

The Dead and Their Possessions Cressida Fforde, Jane Hubert, Paul Turnbull, 2004 Repatriation of human remains has become a key international heritage concern This extensive collection of papers provides a survey of the current state of repatriation in terms of policy practice and theory

Memoirs of the Polynesian Society, 1915 The Discovery of Islands J. G. A. Pocock, 2005-08-30 The Discovery of Islands consists of a series of linked essays in British history written by one of the world's leading historians of political thought and published over the past three decades Its purpose is to present British history as that of several nations interacting with and sometimes seceding from an imperial state The commentary presents this history as that of an archipelago expanding across oceans to the Antipodes Both New Zealand history and the author's New Zealand heritage inform this vision presenting British history as oceanic and global complementing and occasionally criticising the presentation of that history as European Professor Pocock's interpretation of British history has been hugely influential in recent years making The Discovery of Islands a resource of immense value for historians of Britain and the world

What We Love: Reflections on Ministry, Leadership, and Mission Myk Habets, John Tucker, 2018-03-08 Leadership is a quality that often goes underappreciated or unrecognised in New Zealand church life But this is not how it should be Leadership is a godly and biblical quality and those with such gifts are to be celebrated and cherished This volume is a tribute to one such gifted leader Charles Hewlett eighth Principal of Carey Baptist College 2010-2017 Structured around the theme of What We Love a saying Charles would repeat often throughout his principalship faculty and students reflect on biblical theological and applied themes central to Christian thought and practice today More than an in-house tribute this volume will be of interest and use to pastors and practitioners looking for considered reflections on ministry leadership and mission today

A New Maori Migration Joan Metge, 2021-03-24 Until 1939 the Maori people remained an almost wholly rural community but during and after the second world war increasing numbers of them migrated in search of work to the cities and urban groups of Maori were established This development has significantly affected relationships both between Maori and Europeans and within the Maori people as a whole The importance of Dr Metge s book lies in its presentation of a carefully documented comparative study of two Maori communities one in a traditional rural area and the other in Auckland New Zealand s largest industrial centre Housing and domestic organization marriage patterns kinship structure voluntary associations and leadership in both types of community are discussed The author s survey and conclusions make a valuable practical contribution to Maori social studies and also have a bearing on the world wide problem of the urbanisation of cultural minorities

Rethinking settler colonialism Annie Coombes,2017-03-01 Rethinking settler colonialism focuses on the long history of contact between indigenous peoples and the white colonial communities who settled in Australia Aotearoa New Zealand Canada and South Africa It interrogates how histories of colonial settlement have been mythologised narrated and embodied in public culture in the twentieth century through monuments exhibitions and images and charts some of the vociferous challenges to such histories that have emerged over recent years Despite a shared familiarity with cultural and political institutions practices and policies amongst the white settler communities the distinctiveness which marked these constituencies as variously Australian South African Canadian or New Zealander was fundamentally contingent upon their relationship to and with the various indigenous communities they encountered In each of these countries these communities were displaced marginalised and sometimes subjected to attempted genocide through the colonial process Recently these groups have renewed their claims for greater political representation and autonomy The essays and artwork in this book insist that an understanding of the political and cultural institutions and practices which shaped settler colonial societies in the past can provide important insights into how this legacy of unequal rights can be contested in the present It will be of interest to those studying the effects of colonial powers on indigenous populations and the legacies of imperial rule in postcolonial societies

Transgressing Race Jione Havea,Y. T. Vinayaraj,2023-08-22 Transgressing is an appropriate response to race as a crime against humanity No one chooses their race at birth yet many suffer because of their race And while many people choose to change citizenship their accents and faces can give them away as outsiders Racism thrives on the categorization of people according to their race Like the Black and White dichotomy other racial and ethnic discriminations such as casteism antisemitism Zionism xenophobia and Islamophobia undergird and promote segregation all around the world Dismantling racism requires challenging racialized oppressions and segregations in sacred texts and contexts in beloved traditions and hallowed theologies This book offers such biblical and theological discourses in order to transgress the discriminative segregations of racism in connection with other forms of exploitative systems or shitstems The book engages with racialized biblical texts and religious theologies with acts of racial discrimination in connection with slavery and colonialism with agonies of people in diaspora struggles of postcolonial minoritized people courage of indigenous people to subvert and with the race insensitive practices of theological and religious education The contributors are located

The Growing Gap between Power and Education Georgina Marjorie Stewart,2010-01-01 This work uses narrative research including accounts of personal experiences to explore the margins of science and ethics Boundaries between science and other cultural and disciplinary forms of knowledge are illuminated through studying the inter relationships between identity knowledge and power using narratives both in and as a form of philosophical reflection on educational practice The story centres on a contemporary real world context of minority language science education showing how this fits into longstanding trans disciplinary intercultural debates about the nature of science and of knowledge in general The narrative form is used to bridge and interweave the multiple discourses influencing both the real world context and the approach to its investigation This analysis clarifies the linkages between paradigms of critical postcolonial research and post positivist epistemology and illustrates how social science including educational research may use science and technology to assist rather than delimit our understanding of complex human phenomena such as education culture language and science      The Ancient History of the Maori: Horo-uta or Taki tumu migration John White,1887 An official collection of M ori historical traditions BIM      Horo-uta or Taki-tumu migration John White,1887 An official collection of M ori historical traditions BIM      Indigenous Notions of Ownership and Libraries, Archives and Museums Camille Callison,Loriene Roy,Gretchen Alice LeCheminant,2016-07-11 Tangible and intangible forms of indigenous knowledges and cultural expressions are often found in libraries archives or museums Often the legal copyright is not held by the indigenous people s group from which the knowledge or cultural expression originates Indigenous peoples regard unauthorized use of their cultural expressions as theft and believe that the true expression of that knowledge can only be sustained transformed and remain dynamic in its proper cultural context Readers will begin to understand how to respect and preserve these ways of knowing while appreciating the cultural memory institutions attempts to transfer the knowledges to the next generation      He Pukapuka Tataku i Nga Mahi a Te Rauparaha Nui / A Record of the Life of the Great Te Rauparaha Tamihana Te Rauparaha,2020-11-12 Te Rauparaha is most well known today as the composer of the haka Ka mate made famous the world over by the All Blacks A major figure in nineteenth century history Te Rauparaha was responsible for rearranging the tribal landscape of a large part of the country after leading his tribe Ngati Toa to migrate to Kapiti Island He is venerated by his own descendants but reviled with equal passion by the descendants of those tribes who were on the receiving end of his military campaigns in the musket war era He Pukapuka Tatau i nga Mahi a Te Rauparaha Nui is a 50 000 word account in te reo Maori of Te Rauparaha s life written by his son Tamihana Te Rauparaha between 1866 and 1869 A pioneering work of Maori and indeed indigenous biography Tamihana s narrative weaves together the oral accounts of his father and other kaumatua to produce an extraordinary record of Te Rauparaha and his rapidly changing world Edited and translated by Ross Calman a descendant of Te Rauparaha He Pukapuka Tatau i nga Mahi a Te Rauparaha Nui makes available for the first time this major work of Maori literature in a parallel Maori English edition Midwifery Preparation for Practice Sally Pairman, Sally K.
