Branding the Nation, the Place, the Product Ulrich Ermann, Klaus-Jürgen Hermanik, 2017-11-22 Branding is a profoundly geographical type of commodification process Many things become commodities that are compared and valued on markets around the globe Places such as cities or regions countries and nations attempt to acquire visibility through branding Geographical imaginations are evoked to brand goods and places as commodities in order to show or create connections and add value Yet not all that is branded was originally intended and created for markets This volume aims to broaden current understanding of branding through a series of contributions from geography history political studies cultural and media studies offering insight into how ordinary places objects and practices become commodities through branding In so doing the contributions also show how nation place and product as targets of branding can be seen as intertwined To discuss these forms of branding book chapters refer to states cities holiday destinations food malls movies dances post stamps and other items that serve as brands and or are branded The book will be of interest to students and scholars in geography sociology history cultural studies and business studies who would like to gain an understanding of the intricate and surprising ways in which things places and cultural practices become brands

Mistress of the Bones T.J. MacGregor, 2016-05-09 The murder of Quin and Mike's old friend Lou Hernando takes them to the mysterious island of Tango Key The primary suspect is Hernando's 17 year old sidekick Ross Blade a refuge from a troubled family who found as real home with Lou in the cliffside house a repository of secrets from a time when pirates roamed the island Every major event in the old house is accompanied by unexpected rustlings and the faint scent of jasmine Quin and Mike discover that Lou left behind a trail of heartbroken women But the object of his erotic obsessions was a woman whose image adorns the main room of the house Luz the mistress of the bones a former slave who had been brought to Tango Key from Cuba Only by digging into this woman's history can the identity of Lou's killer be found

The secret of her name José Ignacio García, 2014-09-25 An almost 20 year literary career more than three hundred stories written and published on several anthologies compilations and specialised magazines five published books and many awards among them the Miguel Delibes Narrative Award 2009 as well as the almost unanimous opinion of critics and readers back Jos Ignacio Garc a as one of the best Spanish short story writers of the 21st century A writer who bases his success on his immaculate language sometimes exuberant others concise on the human feelings full of realism that his plots depict on the vertiginous narrative pace of his stories and on endings which are generally sudden and surprising He is more enthusiastic about stoves and good stews than about social networks so Garc a hadn't shown too inclined to leave the warm paper scent and its touch until now to give in to the temptation of Online editions However he is convinced that one has to be revitalised so as to keep on living and prevent the progress train from running over him and he accepted the proposal by E2E4 Media of launching a new literary ship this time along the Internet seas choosing for this journey s crew thirteen of the most representative stories of the different stages of his career from The visions of To a which let him burst strongly in the Castilian narrative scene almost two decades ago through the curious adaptation of Christmas to the modern times depicted in The miracle of the wise ox to The secret of her name which gives the title to this compilation and to Wine Room which are the two best stories that have come out of his pen according to many experts opinion Among the diverse structures of these stories which are not superstitious at all the reader will be able to find oxen disguised as the Three Wise Men love reunions taking place after fifty years of uncertain yearnings prostitutes who face life as they can couples who are born grow up and die at the same time trashy wine tasters who replace real experts football trainers who present the strategies of oblivion on the pitches of failure every Sunday boyfriends who get amazed before certain family pictures almost perfect murders and Viking princesses gifted of an exuberant beauty which in the end like almost every story of this type could not be what they seem to be Or they could Although it is the reader who will have to decide on that
