Joshua Traditions and the Argument of Hebrews 3 and 4 Bryan J. Whitfield, 2013-06-26 This monograph examines the place of chapters 3 and 4 in the larger argument of Hebrews particularly the relationship of the people of God in Heb 3 7 4 13 to the surrounding discussion of the high priest The connection between the great high priest and the people of God proved a central question for twentieth century scholars including Ernst K semann The first chapter of this work examines previous attempts to explain the flow of the argument and revisits the proposal of J Rendel Harris who thought attention to the two Joshuas of the Hebrew Bible was the key to connecting Heb 3 7 4 13 to its frame The second chapter examines reading practices within Second Temple Judaism that shaped those of the author of Hebrews Two subsequent chapters explore the history of Second Temple interpretation of the texts central to Harris s proposal Numbers 13 14 and Zechariah 3 The Levi priestly tradition receives particular attention The following chapter provides a careful study of the early chapters of Hebrews that explores allusions and echoes to Numbers and to Zechariah The monograph concludes with a positive assessment of much of Harris s proposal

David in the Fourth Gospel Margaret Daly-Denton, 2018-12-10 This volume deals with the reception of the psalms in the New Testament taking as an example the Fourth Gospel a work profoundly shaped by early Christian liturgy It explores the contemporary Jewish attribution of the Psalms to David an idealized figure envisaged as Temple founder and man of prayer It then shows how this image of David has affected the way the Fourth Evangelist draws on the psalms through quotation allusion and echo It frequently demonstrates that the Fourth Gospel attests to Jewish psalm interpretations found in rabbinic sources Challenging the prevailing view that the Fourth Evangelist intentionally dissociates Jesus from David this book argues that David as psalmist plays a highly significant role in the Johannine portrayal of Jesus
