Monica: A Novel (Complete) Evelyn Everett-Green, 2020-09-28 Good bye Monica I will look in again to morrow but I assure you there is no cause for anxiety He is not worse than usual and will be better soon The doctor was buttoning up his heavy driving coat as he spoke and at the conclusion of the sentence he opened the heavy oak door letting in a blast of cold air and a sheet of fine penetrating rain Oh Raymond what weather I ought not to have sent for you Nonsense You know I am weather proof Old Jack will find his way home if I cannot Good bye again The door closed upon the stalwart figure and Lady Monica Trevlyn was left standing alone upon the wide staircase amid the gathering shadows of the great hall Castle Trevlyn was in truth a sufficiently grim and desolate place both within and without Tangled park dense pine woods and a rocky iron bound coast surrounded it cutting it off at it were from communication with the outside world Within its walls lay a succession of vast stately chambers few of them now inhabited regions where carved black oak faded tapestry rusty armour and antique relics of bygone days seemed to reign in a sort of mournful grandeur telling their own tale of past magnificence and of present poverty and decay Yes the Trevlyns were a fallen race for the past three generations the reigning earl had been poor and the present Lord Trevlyn had failed to do anything towards restoring the decaying fortunes of his house He too was very poor hence the air of neglect that reigned around and within the castle Monica however his only child was far too well used to the gloom and grimness of the old castle to be in the least oppressed by it She loved her lonely desolate home with a curious passionate intensity and could not picture anything more perfect than the utter silence and isolation that hemmed in her life The idea of desiring a change had never so much as occurred to her Monica was very beautiful with a beauty of a rare kind that haunted the memory of those who saw her as a strain of music sometimes haunts the ear Her face was always pale and grave and at first sight cold even to hardness yet endowed with an underlying depth and sweetness that often eluded observation though it never failed to make itself felt It was a lovely face like that of a pictured saint for purity of outline of a Greek statue for perfection of feature almost as calm and colourless as marble itself Yet behind the statuesque severity lay that strange sad wistful sweetness which could not quite be hidden away and gave to the beholder the idea that some great trouble had overshadowed the girl's life Let us go with her and see what that trouble was Glad Tidings Debbie Macomber,2009-03-01 This is a time for families for togetherness for memories On Christmas Eve Maryanne and Nolan Adams tell their kids the story they most want to hear how Mom and Dad met and fell in love It all started when they were reporters on rival Seattle papers and next thing you know Here Comes Trouble Christmas is also a time for fruitcake Rookie reporter Emma Collins hates fruitcake for that matter she hates Christmas too When three Washington State women are finalists in a national fruitcake contest the story is assigned to her That's bad enough It gets worse when she has to fly in a small plane scary with a smart aleck pilot named Oliver Hamilton sexy and his scruffy dog cute In the end she meets three wise women falls in love and learns There's Something About Christmas A Stocking Full of Christmas Love Jeanne Lawrence,2003-08 Take a trip down memory lane and find the pleasures of Christmases past Envelop yourself in the joys of family love the happiness hopes and dreams come true Remember the days when a week to go to Christmas seemed an eternity and sleep refused to come on December 24th because your tummy was all knotted inside If all these things make you stop and wonder Whatever happened to Christmas then these sixteen delightfully readable short stories are for you Or maybe to stuff in the stocking of someone you love Monica, Volume 2 (of 3) Evelyn Everett-Green,2021-03-16
