can project outward into liminal spaces of the sky or the sea A very basic paradox of Christian mystical experience of abasement and magnification haunts Atencia's work She has made her own one of its fundamental tenets the purging of self the shedding of all trace of worldly attachment in order to make room for experience of a different reality the self's sense of nothingness in the face of beauty is a prized moment in and of itself it is sublime Atencia's definitive manner classically shaped verse in the tradition of the pure poetry of the Generation of 1927 which makes myth of a womanly self is amply explored in this first major English edition of her work to appear since 1987 Maria Victoria Atencia was born in Malaga Andalusia in 1931 and has lived there or in the country thereabouts all of her life Although trained originally as a pianist she chose a vocation for poetry instead publishing her first work in 1953 and continuing to publish to the present day In 2010 she was given the Federico Garcia Lorca prize for poetry in recognition of a lifetime of achievement Roberta Quance is Senior Lecturer in Spanish and Portuguese Studies at Queen's University Belfast She is author of books on mythology and modernity in modern literature and desire in the poetry of Lorca as well as articles on women writers and artists associated with the Generation of 1927 and translations of work by Carlos Piera
