Stearns, Jan Lewis, 1998 Emotions lie at our very core as human beings How we process and grapple with our emotions how and what we emote and how we respond to the emotions of others constitute the essence of our social universe In a very real sense we exist only through the prism of our emotions And yet the profound effect of human emotion on history politics religion and culture remains underexamined While the influence of emotion in such realms as American foreign policy has been well documented other emotional aspects of American history have escaped notice What role for instance does emotion have in the practice of African American religion How do shame and self hatred influence American conceptions of identity How does our emotional life change as we age To what degree is American consumerism driven by basic human emotion With this landmark anthology historians Peter N Stearns and Jan Lewis provide a road map of the American emotional landscape From the emotional world of working class Massachusetts to the prayers of evangelical and pentecostal women and the gendered nature of black rage these essays provide a multicultural snapshot of the unique nature and evolution of American emotions Power and the Self Jeannette Marie Mageo, 2002-01-24 Power and the Self first published in 2002 deals with an important but neglected topic the ways in which power is experienced by individuals both as agents and as objects of the exercise of power Each contributor presents a series of case studies drawn from a variety of cultural contexts including the analysis of the appeal of Japanese superhero toys for American children the conditions that lead to dehumanising treatment of patients in an American nursing home the experiences of a Turkish immigrant woman in the Netherlands a contribution relating theories about the capacity to commit genocidal violence to everyday forms of violence and other cases from New Guinea and Samoa The introduction provides a readable historical review and synthesis of the theoretical ideas that provide the context for the work presented in the book Writing in the Disciplines Christine Hardy, Lisa Clughen, 2012-05-18 This book develops academic writing in higher education Viewing writing as a complex sociocultural act it analyses key issues in writing environments and their impact on student writing Drawing on research practice and the existing body of knowledge it also offers practical writing activities that can be used with students in the disciplines The Navigation of Feeling William M.
