Social Relations And The Life Course:

Social Networks and the Life Course Duane F. Alwin, Diane H. Felmlee, Derek A. Kreager, 2018-03-06 This volume engages the interface between the development of human lives and social relational networks It focuses on the integration of two subfields of sociology social science the life course and social networks Research practitioners studying social networks typically focus on social structure or social organization ignoring the complex lives of the people in those networks At the same time life course researchers tend to focus on individual lives without necessarily studying the contexts of social relationships in which lives are embedded and linked to one another through social networks These patterns are changing and this book creates an audience of researchers who will better integrate the two subfields It covers the role of social networks across the life span from childhood and adolescence to midlife through old age Interpersonal Relations

Across the Life Course Timothy J Owens, J. Jill Suitor, 2007-09-05 This volume number 12 is subtitled Interpersonal Relations across the Life Course It is inspired by the increased awareness in recent years of the way in which structural and psychosocial dimensions of the life course shape interpersonal relations Interest in this issue has included both the maintenance of long term relationships that may span many phases of the life course and the development of relationships that are specific to particular phases The volume is a combination of invited and author initiated papers all anonymously peer reviewed that seeks to present a cohesive source of information on the multiform nature and influences of interpersonal relations from a variety of perspectives theoretical frames and substantive areas Contributions reflect Macro micro linkages and interpersonal relations i e age structures social institutions and race ethnicity Parenting across the life course Parent adult child relations and transitions Transitions in non kin relationships Social relationships and well being Handbook on

Demographic Change and the Lifecourse Jane Falkingham, Maria Evandrou, Athina Vlachantoni, 2020-06-26 This innovative Handbook offers a deeper understanding of the causes and consequences of demographic change across the lifecourse Chapters highlight major theoretical and methodological advances and present research that sheds light on family dynamics health and mobility over the lifecourse illustrating the implications of lifecourse research for policy and reform The Craft of Life Course Research Glen H. Elder, Janet Z. Giele, 2009-08-03 This book brings together prominent investigators to provide a comprehensive guide to doing life course research including an inside view of how they designed and carried out influential longitudinal studies Using vivid examples the contributors trace the connections between early and later experience and reveal how researchers and graduate students can discover these links in their own research Well organized chapters describe the best and newest ways to Use surveys life records ethnography and data archives to collect different types of data over years or even decades Apply innovative statistical methods to measure dynamic processes that result in improvement decline or reversibility in economic fortune stress health and criminality Explore the micro and macro level explanatory factors that shape individual trajectories including genetic and environmental interactions personal life history interpersonal ties and sociocultural institutions      Social Relations and the Life Course G. Allan, G. Jones, 2016-01-28 This collection of essays represents some of the most important recent research into changing patterns of family household and community life It brings together some of the leading sociologists in the field to explore how these informal social relationships change over time and the life course It will be essential reading on courses concerned with the family and youth sociology

Older Widows and the Life Course Pat Chambers, 2018-01-18 Later life widowhood is the expectation of most older wives since statistically women live longer than men and tend to marry men older than themselves Despite this there has been little coverage of the complexities of later life widowhood In this book Pat Chambers redresses this balance combining an analysis of the literature that does exist with qualitative research amongst older widows The research reveals a multi faceted experience of later life widowhood Older widows life stories challenge the dominant public narrative of misery and decline pointing instead to a complexity of experience which is rooted in personal biography and the female life course rather than in later life widowhood itself Chambers develops the concept of multiple narratives as a way of uncovering the complex but often hidden lives of older widows Without such an understanding she argues it is all too easy to subscribe to the powerfully dominant public narrative and thus to misinterpret older widows current needs and aspirations This is an engaging and original study of a key topic for gerontological research and will be of great interest to sociologists and social policy scholars who study ageing and the life course

Disability and the Life Course Mark Priestley, 2001-07-05 Disability and the Life Course first published in 2001 explores the global experience of disability using a novel life course approach The book explores how disabling societies impact on disabled people s life experiences and highlights the ways in which disabled people have acted to take more control over their own lives It provides a unique combination of analysis policy issues and autobiography offering the reader a rare opportunity to make links between the theoretical the political and the personal in a single volume The material is set in a truly international context with contributions from thirteen different countries bringing together established and emerging writers both disabled and non disabled The book bridges some important gaps in the existing disability literature by including issues relevant to disabled people of all ages and with different kinds of impairments and also by offering a unique analysis of the relationship between disability and generation in a changing world

The Handbook of Life-Span Development, Volume 2, 2010-08-09 In the past fifty years scholars of human development have been moving from studying change in humans within sharply defined periods to seeing many more of these phenomenon as more profitably studied over time and in relation to other processes The Handbook of Life Span Development Volume 2 Social and Emotional Development presents the study of human development conducted by the best scholars in the 21st century Social workers counselors and public health workers will receive coverage of the social and emotional aspects of human change across the lifespan

Handbook of Feminist Family Studies Sally A. Lloyd, April L. Few, Katherine R. Allen, 2009-04-14 The Handbook of Feminist Family Studies presents the important theories methodologies and practices in feminist family studies The editors showcase feminist family scholarship providing both a retrospective and a prospective overview of the field and creating a scholarly forum for interpretation and dissemination of feminist work     Mental Health Promotion and Protection Naseem Akhtar Qureshi, Samrat Singh Bhandari, Giorgio Di Lorenzo, Harshavardhan Sampath, 2023-09-13 The WHO constitution states Health is a state of complete physical mental and social well being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity There are multiple factors that contribute towards good mental health including civil liberties politics economics social rights and cultural diversity and quality of life of the individual and the society as a whole The promotion of mental health spans many disciplines in order to cover all these factors such as education work justice housing and welfare Therefore it is important to collaborate to create an environment that promotes and supports mental health to improve psychological well being and allow individuals to realize their own abilities work productively and contribute to society and live fulfilling lives There is no health without mental health that is vital to individuals families communities and societies across the world and so the goal of this Research Topic is to collate ideas and research of strategies for the promotion of mental health across all disciplines in order to raise awareness of mental health promotion and protection to ensure its incorporation in national mental health policies going forwards This is of particular relevance given the mental health crisis being experienced across the world right now
