Social Stratification And Mobility In Central Veracruz:

Social Stratification and Mobility in Central Veracruz Hugo G. Nutini, 2009-10-16 Since the Revolution of 1910 Mexican society has undergone a profound transformation characterized by the disempowerment of the landed aristocracy and the rise of a new ruling class of plutocrats and politicians the development of a middle class of white collar professionals and the upward mobility of formerly disenfranchised Indians who have become urban working class Mestizos Indeed Mexico's class system today increasingly resembles that of Western industrialized nations proving that while further democratic reforms are needed the Revolution initiated an ongoing process of change that has created a more egalitarian society in Mexico with greater opportunities for social advancement This authoritative ethnography examines the transformation of social classes in the Cordoba Orizaba region during the latter half of the twentieth century to create a model of provincial social stratification in Mexico Hugo Nutini focuses on the increased social mobility that has affected all classes of society especially the rural Indians who have taken advantage of education job opportunities and contact with the wider world to achieve Mestizo status He also traces the transfer of power that followed the demise of the hacienda system as well as the growing importance of the middle class This description and analysis of the provincial social stratification system complements the work Nutini has done on the national class system centered in Mexico City to offer a comprehensive picture of social stratification and mobility in Mexico today

Social Stratification in Central Mexico, 1500-2000 Hugo G. Nutini, Barry L. Isaac, 2010-01-01 In Aztec and colonial Central Mexico every individual was destined for lifelong placement in a legally defined social stratum or estate Social mobility became possible after independence from Spain in 1821 and increased after the 1910-1920 Revolution By 2000 the landed aristocracy that was for long Mexico's ruling class had been replaced by a plutocracy whose wealth derives from manufacturing commerce and finance but rapid growth of the urban lower classes reveals the failure of the Mexican Revolution and subsequent agrarian reform to produce a middle class majority These evolutionary changes in Mexico's class system form the subject of Social Stratification in Central Mexico 1500-2000 the first long term comprehensive overview of social stratification from the eve of the Spanish Conquest to the end of the twentieth century The book is divided into two parts Part One concerns the period from the Spanish Conquest of 1521 to the Revolution of 1910 The authors depict the main features of the estate system that existed both before and after the Spanish Conquest the nature of stratification on the haciendas that dominated the countryside for roughly four centuries and the importance of race and ethnicity in both the estate system and the class structures that accompanied and followed it Part Two portrays the class structure of the post revolutionary period 1920 onward emphasizing the demise of the landed aristocracy the formation of new upper and middle classes the explosive growth of the urban lower classes and the final phase of the Indian mestizo transition in the countryside

Native Evangelism in Central Mexico Hugo G.

Nutini, Jean F. Nutini, 2014-08-15 Evangelical Christianity is Mexico s fastest growing religious movement with about ten million adherents today Most belong to Protestant denominations introduced from the United States e g Jehovah s Witnesses Seventh day Adventists but perhaps as many as 800 000 are members of homegrown native evangelical sects These native Mexican sects share much with the American denominations of which they are spinoffs For instance they are Trinitarian Anabaptist and Millenarian they emphasize a personal relationship with God totally rejecting intermediation by saints and they insist that they are the only true Christians Beyond that each native sect has its distinctive characteristics This book focuses on two sharply contrastive native evangelical sects in Central Mexico Amistad y Vida Friendship and Life and La Luz del Mundo The Light of the World The former founded in 1982 now has perhaps 120 000 adherents nationwide It is nonhierarchical extremely egalitarian and has no dogmatic directives It is a cheerful religion that emphasizes charity community service and personal kindness as the path to salvation It attracts new members mainly from the urban middle class through personal example rather than proselytizing La Luz del Mundo founded in 1926 now has about 350 000 members in Mexico and perhaps one million in the hemisphere It is hierarchically organized and demands total devotion to the sect s founder and his son who are seen as direct links to Jesus on Earth It is a proselytizing sect that recruits mainly among the urban poor by providing economic benefits within the congregations but does no community service as such Based on ten years of fieldwork 1996 2006 and contextualized by nearly fifty years of anthropological study in the region Native Evangelism in Central Mexico presents the first ethnography of Mexico s native evangelical congregations

Beyond Germs Catherine M. Cameron, Paul Kelton, Alan C. Swedlund, 2015-10-22 Beyond Germs Native Depopulation in North America challenges the hypothesis that the massive depopulation of the New World was primarily caused by diseases brought by Europeans which scholars used for decades to explain the decimation of the indigenous peoples of North America Contributors expertly argue that blaming germs downplays the active role of Europeans in inciting wars destroying livelihoods and erasing identities
