

How to Talk about a Poem

Learning how to talk about poetry and being able to interpret what poems mean is not the easiest thing in the world to do. When discussing a poem two areas must be considered: meaning and mechanics.

- Meaning
- Mechanics

First, consider the meaning of the poem.

1. Paraphrase all the portions of the poem.
2. Precis the poem - either line by line or stanza by stanza.
3. Is there symbolism used in the poem? (If there is symbolism, understanding it is the key to understanding the poem.)
4. Is the poem lyric or narrative?

To paraphrase the poem:

5. Look at the title. What significance does the title have in connection with the meaning of the poem?
6. Read the poem as a whole.
7. Read the poem stanza by stanza (if appropriate.)
8. Paraphrase the poem line by line.
9. Break the lines down word by word if necessary. Substitute familiar words with ones you use every day.

Helpful Hints!

10. Consider punctuation - a period signals the end of a thought, no matter where it is located in a line.
11. Rewrite sentences in the usual word order if the sentences are arranged in an unfamiliar word order.
