Tall Was The Lonely Man:

Tall Was the Lonely Man James Finis Holmes, Sr.,2005-10-01 Westward the Tide (Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures) Louis L'Amour,2022-10-25 Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures is a project created to release some of the author's more unconventional manuscripts from the family archives. Matt Bardoul was a good man to have as a friend and a bad one to make trouble with. He was also a single-minded drifter until he met his match in an outspoken beauty named Jacqueline Coyle. She was headed into the Bighorn Mountains with her father and an expedition in search of gold. After Matt signs on to join them, he discovers that there is a group of outlaws in the party: gunfighters and thieves that Matt wouldn't trust for a minute. At first it's unclear what they are planning, but before long Matt realizes that he's the only man standing between innocent people and a brutal conspiracy of greed, lust, and cold-blooded murder. In Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures Volumes 1 and 2, Beau L'Amour takes the reader on a guided tour through many of the finished and unfinished short stories, novels, and treatments that his father was never able to publish during his lifetime. L'Amour's never-before-seen first novel No Traveller Returns faithfully completed for this program is a voyage into danger and violence on the high seas. Additionally, many beloved classics are being rereleased with an exclusive Lost Treasures postscript featuring previously unpublished material, including outlines, plot notes, and alternate drafts. These postscripts tell the story behind the stories that millions of readers have come to know and cherish.

Lonigan Louis L'Amour,2005-01-25 In this exciting collection of short stories, Louis L'Amour, the legendary voice of the American West, celebrates the unique breed of men who worked the great cattle ranches. Men like Dan Regan, who refused to surrender when trouble came; Con Fargo, who would fight for what was his despite the odds; Rowdy Horn, a small-time rancher with big-time dreams; Tandy Thayer, too loyal to forget a friend; Bill Carey, who might have fallen low but not low enough to let the likes of Tabat Ryerson ride off with a woman like Jane Conway; and in the classic title story, Danny Lonigan, a hard rider who faced a group of rustlers without fear or mercy.

From the Listening Hills Louis L'Amour,2004-04-27 Classic tales that capture the heroic and indomitable spirit of our great land. The twelve stories in this collection run the spectrum of human emotions as they transport us from the fading majesty of the Old West to a small town football field to the lonely canyons of one man's mind. These classic tales of adventure, mystery, mysticism, and suspense epitomize the uniquely American yearning for connection and roots, justice and love, as only L'Amour can. Here is a diverse group of heroes and traitors, outlaws and lawmen, the innocent, the guilty, and those who operate in the shadowy territory outside the reach of justice. The wastelands of Death Valley form the backdrop for the tale of a desperate man who leads his pursuers into a desert trap where heat and thirst are his only weapons. A rodeo rider framed for a crime he didn't commit takes a wild ride on a legendary bronco that may help him catch the real killers. An American pilot flies Russian and British agents into the labyrinthine forests of Asiatic Russia only to discover that one of them is a traitor. A hit man discovers the fatal limits of friendship, and a quest for revenge becomes a frantic race to find a cache of gold hidden in the drifting sands of the Southwest And in a powerful and moving parable an Indian boy must lead his family across a drought ravaged land with nothing to guide him but his faith The gripping title story counts down the final hours of a wounded man struggling to fend off his enemies and certain death Before time runs out he must finish the most important task of his life a letter to his unborn son that will vindicate the family name Filled with a special brand of passion and drama From the Listening Hills is an exemplary collection that showcases the enduring talents of one of America s most beloved authors Shalako/Catlow
