Darwin, Marx, Frazer and Freud as Imaginative Writers Stanley Edgar Hyman,1974 The Tangled Bank Stanley Edgar Hyman,1966 An Entangled Bank Joel Bartholemew Hagen,1992 This book was a revelation I was simply enthralled by Joel Hagen s brilliance in reviewing the emergence of the discipline of ecosystem ecology the study of biotic abiotic interaction and nutrient flows in ecological systems He does a magnificent job of introducing the personalities that midwived the new science He explains their intellectual struggles philosophical cross currents and different academic milieux He also expertly illuminates sociopolitical context Through his in depth research he is able to dispel some misconceptions and truism arriving at the heart of what made each scientist tick Even when exploring some of the arcane figures and dead end developments he is so compelling that they become integral to the story not sidetracks His breadth of knowledge his discerning inclusiveness his clarity of thought all make An Entangled Bank a stimulating read Very often in science courses we are presented only with the canonical state of the science having to swallow its agglomerated whole free of context Hagen reveals the wisdom of understanding intellectual foundations Through study of the origins and development of a science we may better grasp the received tenets of current scientific understanding As a young science ecosystem ecology has a historical context that is relatively accessible to us if less romantic than a tale of the origins of astronomy might be A peek into the labs and offices of botanists limnologists and biogeochemists might not seem like the acme of excitement Hagen inspires us with his insights He makes his subject meaningful to us Though it is not pleasure reading by any stretch its clear sighted intellectual vigor makes An Entangled Bank pure enjoyment The Mid-Victorian Generation K. Theodore Hoppen,2000-06-30 This the third volume to appear in the New Oxford History of England covers the period from the repeal of the Corn Laws to the dramatic failure of Gladstone s first Home Rule Bill In his magisterial study of the mid Victorian generation Theo Hoppen identifies three defining themes The first he calls established industrialism the growing acceptance that factory life and manufacturing had come to stay It was during these four decades that the balance of employment shifted irrevocably For the first time in history more people were employed in industry than worked on the land The second concerns the multiple national identities of the constituent parts of the United Kingdom Dr Hoppen s study of the histories of Ireland Scotland Wales and the Empire reveals the existence of a variety of particular and overlapping national traditions flourishing alongside the increasingly influential structure of the unitary state The third defining theme is that of interlocking spheres which the author uses to illuminate the formation of public culture in the period This he argues was generated not by a series of influences operating independently from each other but by a variety of intermeshed political economic scientific literary and artistic developments This original and authoritative book will define these pivotal forty years in British history for the next generation A Psychology of Difference Otto Rank,2020-07-21 A leading disciple and confidant of Freud Otto Rank revolutionized the

Primitive Passions Marianna Torgovnick, 1998-10 In this provocative and illuminating book Marianna Torgovnick explores the psychology of our profound attraction to cultures we call primitive Whether located in Africa the South Pacific or the American Southwest the primitive has become synonymous in the Western imagination with a range of emotions and experiences thought to be lost in modern life reverence for the land and for nature strong communal bonds sexual plentitude and perhaps most intriguing and ecstatic sense of connection to the universe and the life force Torgovnick investigates the numerous ways we have turned toward the primitive out of spiritual hunger for such deeply human experiences a hunger that could once be satisfied within the West's own mystical traditions but that often no longer can be Brilliantly encompassing religion art psychology literature and other aspects of our culture Primitive Passions offers new insight into our ideas of spirituality and gender and ultimately into the hidden but vital parts of ourselves Maelzel's Chess Player Robert Wilcocks, 1994 This is the first study of Freud's texts to incorporate the intellectual findings of Adolf Grünbaum the archival material published by Jeffrey Masson the recently published correspondence between Freud and Wilhelm Fliess and Lewin's profile of long term cocaine users Wilcocks challenges literary critics who have granted Freud's writings scientific status and claims that the works are no more than the rhetorical deceptions of a talented writer Through a careful examination of the Freud Fliess correspondence and of Freud's case histories and through a novel comparison of Freud's rhetorical devices with Poe's rhetoric of deception in the essay Maelzel's Chess Player Wilcocks reveals that Freud was a talented but disturbed master of deception including self deception Capitalism Hates You Joshua Gooch, 2025-03-11 What contemporary horror films teach us about the cruelties of capitalist society Capitalism Hates You uses the horror film genre as a tool to diagnose and expose the hostile conditions of life under capitalism Through incisive critical analyses of popular films such as Get Out Drag Me to Hell Hereditary The Babadook and many others Joshua Gooch draws connections between Marxist theory and contemporary narratives of psychological unease Gooch highlights the work of women trans and nonwhite filmmakers to show how the remarkable diversity of twenty first century horror cinema can provide an expansive catalog of capitalism's varying forms of oppression Studying films that interrogate such urgent topics as gentrification climate change and reproductive labor he demonstrates how contemporary horror films give affective shape to the negative undercurrents of our present socioeconomic system Capitalism Hates You argues that these films and their material conditions can deepen our understanding of essential concepts in contemporary Marxism from the theory of value and changing forms of commodification to the labor of social reproduction the abolition of the family and the necessity of ecosocialism Synthesizing various strands of Marxist thought Gooch sheds light on the growing field of socially conscious horror films examining how they pinpoint and exaggerate latent feelings of dread and discomfort to reflect the ills of society Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions Nature and the Victorian Imagination U. Modernism and the Critical Spirit Eugene Goodheart, 2018-04-17 Complaints about the decline of critical standards in literature and culture in general have been voiced for much of the twentieth century These have extended from F R Leavis's laments for a lost center of intelligence and urbane spirit to current opposition to the predominance of radical critical theory in contemporary literature departments Humanist criticism which has as its object the quality of life as well as works of art may well lack authority in the contemporary world Even amid the disruptions of the industrial revolution nineteenth century humanists such as Matthew Arnold John Ruskin and Thomas Carlyle could assume a positive order of value and shared habits of imaginative perception and understanding between writers and readers Eugene Goodheart argues that by contrast contemporary criticism is infused with the skepticism of modernist aesthetics It has willfully rejected the very idea of moral authority Goodheart starts from the premise that questions about the moral authority of literature and criticism often turn upon a prior question of what happens when the sacred disappears or is subjected to the profane He focuses on contending spiritual views in particular the dialectic between the Protestant inspired largely English humanist tradition of Carlyle Ruskin Arnold and D H Lawrence and the decay of Catholicism represented by James Joyce and T S Eliot Goodheart argues that literary modernism in distancing itself from natural and social vitality tends to render suspect all privileged positions It thereby undermines the critical act which assumes the priority of a particular set of values Goodheart makes his case by analyzing the work of a variety of novelists poets and critics nineteenth century and contemporary He blends literary theory and practical criticism
