The Tangled Garden Paul Duval,1978 J.E.H. MacDonald, Designer Robert Stacey,Hunter Bishop,1996-10-15 The design work of Group of Seven painter J E H MacDonald was not only central to his personal artistic development but inseparable from the graphic design industry in Toronto from the 1890s to the 1930s the golden age of book and magazine illustration This connection has been largely overshadowed by his painting Now this splendid book tracing MacDonald s involvement with fine printing book design and commercial art raises the profile of graphic design as a formative influence in Canadian visual culture The Tangled Garden James Edward Hervey MacDonald,Paul Duval,1978 The Tangled

Garden Richard Stursberg,2019-04-09 The emergence of Facebook Amazon Apple Netflix and Google the FAANGs has created an unprecedented challenge to Canada s news television and film businesses In this book Richard Stursberg offers a brief account often based on his insider s experience of how Canada s cultural industries were built And he explains that independent Canadian media and cultural industries are unlikely to survive due to the large share of ad dollars and audience attention captured by the big digital media companies Faced with similar challenges many governments around the world have responded by protecting and strengthening their national cultural life Canada stands out for its passivity Richard Stursberg identifies the path that would assure a strong continued news media and a reasonable share of audiences for Canadian creative work He warns that time for action is short and many more media outlets will soon disappear like the thirty six newspapers shut down by the Toronto Star Postmedia deal in 2017 Richard Stursberg s knowledge and experience across a wide range of cultural organizations in Canada make this an important and informative book on a topic of vital significance At the same time this is an engaging account for any reader who wants to continue to enjoy Canadian stories and hear Canadian voices in the media and on our screens A.Y. Jackson Wayne Larsen,2009-09-21 A founding member of the

Beyond Wilderness John O'Brian, Peter White, 2017-12-30 The great purpose of landscape art is to make us at home in our own country was the nationalist maxim motivating the Group of Seven s artistic project The empty landscape paintings of the Group played a significant role in the nationalization of nature in Canada particularly in the development of ideas about northernness wilderness and identity In Beyond Wilderness contributors pick up where the Group of Seven left off They demonstrate that since the 1960s a growing body of both art and critical writing has looked beyond wilderness to re imagine landscape in a world of vastly altered political technological and environmental circumstances By emphasizing social relationships changing identity politics and issues of colonial power and dispossession contemporary artists have produced landscape art that explores what was absent in the work of their predecessors Beyond Wilderness expands the public understanding of Canadian landscape representation tracing debates about the place of landscape in Canadian art and the national imagination through the twentieth century to the present Critical writings from both contemporary and historically significant curators historians feminists media theorists and cultural critics and exactly reproduced artworks by contemporary and historical artists are brought together in productive dialogue Beyond Wilderness explains why landscape art in Canada had to be reinvented and what forms the reinvention took Contributors include Benedict Anderson Cornell Grant Arnold Vancouver Art Gallery Rebecca Belmore Jody Berland York Eleanor Bond Concordia Jonathan Bordo Trent Douglas Cole Marlene Creates Marcia Crosby Malaspina Greg Curnoe Ann Davis Nickle Arts Museum Leslie Dawn Lethbridge Shawna Dempsey Christos Dikeakos Peter Doig Rosemary Donegan OCAD Stan Douglas Paterson Ewen Robert Fones Northrop Frye Robert Fulford General Idea Rodney Graham Reesa Greenberg Gu Xiong British Columbia Cole Harris British Columbia Richard William Hill Middlesex Robert Houle Andrew Hunter Waterloo Lynda Jessup Queen s Zacharias Kunuk Igloolik Isuma Productions Johanne Lamoureux Montr al Robert Linsley Waterloo Barry Lord Lord Cultural Resources Marshall McLuhan Mike MacDonald Liz Magor ECIAD Lorri Millan Gerta Moray Guelph Roald Nasgaard Florida State N E

Shaped by the West Wind Claire Elizabeth Campbell, 2005 Claire Campbell draws from recent work in cultural history landscape studies in geography and art history and environmental history to explore what happens when external agendas confront local realities a story central to the Canadian experience Explorers fishers artists and park planners all were forced to respond to the unique contours of this inland sea their encounters defined a regional identity even as they constructed a popular image for the Bay in the national imagination Jacket

Community Development on the North Atlantic Margin John Hutson, Reginald Byron, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Isolated communities dependent upon fishing farming and forestry which are scattered around the North Atlantic coast have shared a disastrous decline during the last decade These communities are in the peripheries of advanced industrial nation states such as Canada and supra national alliances such as the European Community yet despite this there are no easy solutions to the development of these regions This volume argues that the productive assets of these regions and how they can be used to sustain household incomes need to be better understood The assets need to be converted into products and services and they need to be marketed profitably The diminishing flow of young people who leave these areas to obtain higher education and who do not return must be turned around and efforts must be concentrated on the creation or strengthening of economic conditions which satisfy the younger generation's employment aspirations consumer requirements and social needs

National Dreams Daniel Francis, 1997 Incisive and widely acclaimed study of the most persistent icons and stories in Canadian history and how they inform Canadians' sense of national identity. This is a fascinating document that allows readers to see the past in a shocking new light.

A Grand Eye for Glory Roger Burford Mason, 1998-09 In this first biography of Franz Johnston, the author describes the life, work, and times of this unjustly neglected but influential figure in Canadian art and culture.

Both Hands Sandra Campbell, 2013-05-01 Editor and publisher, workaholic and romantic idealist and pioneer Lorne Pierce once described his editorial desk as an altar at which he served the entire cultural life of Canada. Pierce laboured at his altar between 1920 and 1960 as the driving force behind Ryerson Press, the leading publisher of Canadian works during the mid-twentieth century. In Both Hands, Sandra Campbell captures the inimitable cultural role of a remarkable man whose work paved the way for the creation of a national identity. Both Hands delves into the encounters, trials, and triumphs that inspired Pierce's vision of cultural nationalism, from his rural upbringing in eastern Ontario to the philosophical ideals he acquired at Queen's University, to his service as a teacher, a Methodist preacher, and a military man during the First World War. All these experiences coalesced in his work at Ryerson Press, then Canada's largest publishing house, even as he battled lupus and deafness to make his mark on the country's literary scene. Campbell situates this unflinching look into Pierce's personal and public life within the context of Canadian society, detailing his relationships with major figures such as the Group of Seven, Harold Innis, Donald Creighton, E.J. Pratt, the modernist Montreal poets Northrop Frye, and many others. Set against the rich backdrop of Canada's early literary and artistic heritage, Both Hands vividly presents the life and work of an impresario of literary, historical, and art publishing of indisputable influence throughout the country's cultural milieu.

Tom Thomson David Silcox, Harold Town, 2017-10-17 A stunning new edition of the Canadian classic with never before seen paintings. First published in 1977 to commemorate the centenary of the birth of a Canadian painter whose brief, brilliant life and untimely death in a mysterious canoe accident gained him mythic status in his homeland, Tom Thomson: The Silence and the Storm quickly attained legendary status in its own right. This newly designed and expanded edition revives a classic and adds more than 25 never before seen paintings and a new introduction. Co-authors Harold Town, a founder of the Painters Eleven, and an icon of Canadian art himself, and art historian David P. Silcox, former head of Sotheby's Canadian division, celebrate this early associate of the Group of Seven as a key creative figure without falling into the trap of cultural jingoism.

Thomson the authors maintain was an inspired regional painter in the best sense of that term who stumbled upon the bold Expressionist palette pioneered by Matisse and his contemporaries despite working from a provincial backwater Thomson's finest works are reproduced here in painstakingly colour matched plates including more than 80 of Thomson's famous oil sketches in exactly their original size
