Tapestry Of Christian Theology:

Heavenly Participation Hans Boersma, 2011-02-01 Surveying the barriers that contemporary thinking has erected between the natural and the supernatural between earth and heaven Hans Boersma issues a wake up call for Western Christianity Both Catholics and evangelicals he says have moved too far away from a sacramental mindset focusing more on the here and now than on the then and there Yet as Boersma points out the teaching of Jesus Paul and St Augustine indeed of most of Scripture and the church fathers is profoundly otherworldly much more concerned with heavenly participation than with earthly enjoyment In Heavenly Participation Boersma draws on the wisdom of great Christian minds ancient and modern Irenaeus Gregory of Nyssa C S Lewis Henri de Lubac John Milbank and many others He urges Catholics and evangelicals alike to retrieve a sacramental worldview to cultivate a greater awareness of eternal mysteries to partake eagerly of the divine life that transcends and transforms all earthly realities

Weaving the American Catholic Tapestry Derek C. Hatch, Timothy R. Gabrielli, 2017-03-28 Concerned that American Catholic theology has struggled to find its own voice for much of its history William Portier has spent virtually his entire scholarly career recovering a usable past for Catholics on the U S landscape This work of ressourcement has stood at the intersection of several disciplines and has unlocked the beauty of American Catholic life and thought These essays which are offered in honor of Portier's life and work emerge from his vision for American Catholicism where Scripture tradition reason and experience are distinct but interwoven and inextricably linked with one another As this volume details such a path is not merely about scholarly endeavors but involves the pursuit of holiness in the real world

The Tapestry of Christian Theology Gregory C. Higgins, 2003 This unique and supremely readable textbook recounts the thought of nine influential twentieth century theologians in the light of biblical narrative to better understand the Christian life By drawing upon the achievement of major thinkers Rosemary Ruether Gustavo Gutierrez Reinhold Niebuhr Dietrich Bonhoeffer Karl Rahner Jurgen Moltmann Hans Kung Yves Congar and Wolfhart Pannenberg and rooting it within the rich fabric of its biblical context Creation Exodus Conquest Exile the Incarnation the Crucifixion the Resurrection Pentecost and the End of Time The Tapestry of Christian Theology traverses a landscape both historical and spiritual one that traces and encourages a new understanding of both perspectives and illumines a greater insight into our own lives Here is a rigorous and wide ranging textbook for college theology courses also suitable for the general reader

CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY The Christian's Ultimate Guide to Learning from the Bible is a masterful blend of academic rigor and accessible writing making it a must have for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Christian theology and its profound implications on personal faith and practice

A Tapestry of Global Christology Isuwa Y. Atsen, 2022-12-16 Who is Jesus Christ in a context of violence and bloodshed such as that experienced by Christians in Northern Nigeria This is the question at the heart of Dr Isuwa Atsen's study of global Christology His aim however is not to develop a Christology that is unique to Northern Nigeria but a Christology that is contextually and conceptually relevant to the real concerns of Nigerian Christians while maintaining a catholic and scriptural understanding of the person of Jesus Christ In order to do so he weaves together three diverse christological approaches examining the intersection of contextual theology analytic theology and the theological interpretation of Scripture The approach thereby presents some helpful insights for theological methodology in general This is an excellent resource for theologians students and all those involved in the task of global Christology Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green, David I. Starling, 2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July 2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist's words In your light we see light Ps 36 9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth African Christian Theology, Volume 1, Number 2, September 2024 Joshua Robert Barron, 2024-12-20 African Christian Theology is the academic journal of the Association for Christian Theological Education in Africa ACTEA The mission of ACTEA is to strengthen theological education through accreditation scholarship and support services to serve the church and transform society The journal is one way in which ACTEA engages theological educators and church leaders in addressing relevant issues facing the church and society in Africa African Christian Theology serves the whole of Africa and provides a venue for conversations between different regions of Africa as well as an organ through which African voices can address World Christianity at large Following in the footsteps of Kwame Bediako Byang Kato K Mana Lamin Sanneh Andrew F Walls and Isaac Zokou the journal promotes World Christianity perspectives through deep engagement with African contextual realities Articles are published in English French and Portuguese each article has a trilingual abstract in those languages ACTEA was founded in 1976 by the Theological and Christian Education Commission of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa AEA Under its continued sponsorship ACTEA operates with internal autonomy in the accreditation of programmes of theological education throughout Africa in order to stimulate the improvement and standardization of such programmes and in order to secure academic recognition for such programmes wherever possible especially among the constituencies of these institutions in Africa and among similar institutions and their constituencies overseas A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease

A Tapestry of Faiths Winfried Corduan,2002 Christians find themselves in an increasingly diverse world The new place of worship in our neighborhood might just as likely be a Hindu temple or a Muslim mosque as a church or a synagogue

An Introduction to Christian Theology Anthony Towey,2013-08-29 An introductory single authored textbook in theology introducing the reader to biblical doctrinal and historical dimensions of Christianity

A Tapestry of Global Christology Isuwa Yohanna Atsen,2019 This dissertation pursues the interaction of the theological interpretation of Scripture analytic theology and contextual theology grounded in the principles of canonicity catholicity contextuality and conceptuality It brings all these approaches to bear on the practice of global Christologizing Using weaving as a metaphor for doing theology the study seeks to orient Christology in a global analytic theological theology key It argues that global theology needs to proceed from the canonical text and the Christian tradition while being attentive to contextual realities and concepts with analytic rigor The study shows that analytic theology holds promise for doing global theology but more so if it interfaces with the theological interpretation of Scripture in a way that all three disciplines or approaches are strengthened A contextual theology that is inclined to both theological interpretation and analytic theology will help these practices avoid mere discussions of scriptural and logical theological ideas that may have no bearing to real issues faced by the local church On the other hand contextual theology would also benefit by being safe guarded from a theology whereby context alone determines truth claims and overrides any other concerns While the focus on using contextual realities and cultural resources is not only desirable but also inevitable many of the Christologies that emerge from this approach often exclude and or limit some of the principles stated above In the absence of these principles Scripture is merely read with cultural lenses and in some instances the local concepts employed in Christologizing fail to sustain the same judgments found in both biblical texts and early ecclesial tradition Finally the study puts to work the judgments that ensued from the interaction described above by reflecting on the person and work of Christ from the experience of Christians and churches in northern Nigeria using Matthew 14 22 33 and Philippians 2 5 11 What is demonstrated at the end is not necessarily a new Christology that is unique to this context but a Christology that seeks above all to be canonical and catholic while being contextually and conceptually relevant to the real problems faced by Christians in the region What emerges then is illustrative of an approach to global Christologizing that seeks to be truly global

An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J. Plantinga,Thomas R. Thompson,Matthew D. Lundberg,2022-11-03 A journey in Christian theology through biblical historical and thematic perspectives with special attention to the context of today's world      Irrevocable R. Kendall Soulen, 2022-10-04 The Tetragrammaton the traditionally unspoken proper name of God is the most holy of all God's names in the Bible Despite its sacredness Christian theology has often neglected the significance of this divine name an omission that has fostered Christianity's supersessionist stance toward the Jewish people and created other problems for Christian theology as well In Irrevocable author R Kendall Soulen puts the Tetragrammaton back at the center of Christian theology to demonstrate the difference that God's proper name makes for Christian faith from the doctrine of the Trinity to the unity of the Christian Bible and Christianity's relationship to Judaism and Islam In the end Soulen reveals how something so holy and so unique can also be so important for all      Christian Theology in a Pluralistic Context Steven L. Wiebe, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph      Transforming Christian Theology Philip Clayton, 2009-11-02 This compact volume offers a way for Christians to reflect deeply on how best to conceive Christian identity commitment and discipleship in today's challenged globalized pluralistic scene This volume seeks to capture and articulate the ferment in grassroots North American Christianity today and to relate it directly to the recent strong resurgence of progressive thought and politics It argues strongly for a mediating role specifically for Christian theology conceived first as a life practice of Christian discipleship

Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity, Judaism, and Atheism Ana Siljak, 2024-11-15 Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism is a multifaceted account of the engagement between religion and the secular in Russia's Christian Jewish and atheist traditions Ana Siljak brings together an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars to present unique perspectives on the secularization dynamic in Russia and the Soviet Union telling stories about theologians sects churches poets and artists From the Jewish Christian priest Alexander Men to the cross dressing poet Zinaida Gippius to the Soviet promoter of Yiddish theater Solomon Mikhoels Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism gives a voice to a variety of actors who have grappled with the possibilities of faith and unbelief in an industrialized modern and seemingly secular world Now more than ever as one narrative of Russia's religious history dominates official Russian accounts alternative perspectives of the relationship between Russian religion and secularism should be highlighted and emphasized      A New Handbook of Christian Theologians Donald W. Musser, 1996-09-01 In recent years the flow of Christian theology has been channeled in diverse streams represented by such trends and movements as black theology liberation theology feminist theology and womanist theology To survey this abundance and diversity of current Christian theology this book examines the theologies of representative theologians Particularly to help students navigate the sea of information the editors have identified various routes for reading and have traced several threads or issues common to many of the essays thus demarcating such recurrent concerns as the ways in which the theologians consider the sources and goals for theology their variant assumptions and conclusions about the nature of God their divergent approaches to understanding the person and purpose of the Christ and their distinct expectations for the destiny of history and faith      A Theology of Flourishing Schutz, Paul, 2025-06-25      A People's Guide to An Interfaith Christian Theology in a Time of Transformation Harvey H. Honig, 2022-05-17 Harvey H Honig began his life's work as a Lutheran minister but soon recognized his need for a more spacious and inclusive approach through which to heal and understand his inner self This led him to spend many years exploring and experiencing other paths of religion and spirituality In recent years though he found that the message mission and being of Jesus still played a powerful and transformative role in his life Since common understandings of the life of Jesus are embedded within a biblical and historical framework Honig wanted to explore the meaning of Christianity within the framework of our current world An Interfaith Christian Theology is for fellow seekers who are drawn to the being and message of Jesus but can no longer relate to the dissonance between reality and belief that so many churches require Honig's approach differs from traditional Christian theology in two ways first it does not stem from the framework of a specific denomination and second it presents itself as a way of thinking about Christianity rather than the only way After several years as a minister Honig began Jungian analytic training and earned a PhD in psychology at Loyola University Chicago Jung gave Honig the tools he needed to continue his personal search for a life affirming view of Christianity and to assist others in their search for inner truth and healing
