The Way Things Aren't: Deconstructing 'Reality' to Facilitate Communication John Backman, Malgorzata Wojczik, 2019-05-15 In a world of continual conflict rethinking the way we communicate with other cultures religions or nations is of paramount importance Standing in the way is the unconscious assumption that our own views reflect the way things are an assumption both inefficient and harmful The Way Things Aren't Deconstructing Reality to Facilitate Communication explores communication as a meeting point between different perceptions of reality presenting how our assumptions and convictions hinder effective communication with those who are different from us Featuring case examples from Somalia Romania and other regions the chapters describe how authorities and the media often create reality to relegate some people cultures languages or religions to the wrong side of the tracks Featuring scholars and practitioners from many disciplines this discussion challenges readers with the idea that in order to remain open for new perspectives we must be aware that things are not always the way things are Necroclimatism in a Spectral World (Dis)order? Artwell Nhemachena, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2019-06-25 Highlighting the problematiqués of working with a narrow version of greenhouse effects or global warming this book posits the theory of necroclimatism that encompasses broader versions of greenhouse effects and global warming Conceiving cultures societies moral sensibilities epistemologies politics economies legal systems and religions of the formerly colonised peoples as greenhoused and entrapped in the heat of global apartheid and neo colonialism the book refuses to be confined to the pufferies of physical conceptualisations of greenhousing and global warming Underlining the supposed disposability and dispensability of colonised peoples the notion of necroclimatism explicates ways in which some people suffer various forms of death which have increasingly become a feature of global apartheid and neo colonialism that are cast in spectral sacrificial logics Deemed to constitute disposable bodies disposable cultures disposable politics disposable societies disposable epistemologies disposable religions disposable laws and disposable economies the sacrificed are in the age of climate catastrophism once again reminded that they have duties to die to become extinct in order to save the global spaceship that is sinking due to climate change and global warming This book therefore argues that in a sacrificial world dis order binaries between humans and animals good and evil moral and immoral the dead and the living necessarily vanish in the nefarious logic of what marks the era of climate catastrophism and the attendant necroclimatism The book further argues that a sacrificial world dis order is necessarily a posthumanist and postanthropocentric world dis order which should be never granted space in African worlds and even beyond The book thus raises fundamental questions for African anticipatory regimes and for this reason it is handy for scholars in political science sociology social anthropology development studies environmental studies agricultural studies legal studies food science geography religious studies and decolonial fields of studies
