A Comedy James Miller, 1735 Literature and the Taste of Knowledge Michael Wood, 2005-09-29 What does literature know Does it offer us knowledge of its own or does it only interrupt and question other forms of knowledge This 2005 book seeks to answer and to prolong these questions through the close examination of individual works and the exploration of a broad array of examples Chapters on Henry James Kafka and the form of the villanelle are interspersed with wider ranging inquiries into forms of irony indirection and the uses of fiction with examples ranging from Auden to Proust and Rilke and from Calvino to Jean Rhys and Yeats Literature is a form of pretence But every pretence could tilt us into the real and many of them do There is no safe place for the reader no literalist s haven where fact is always fact and no paradise of metaphor where our poems plays and novels have no truck at all with the harsh and shifting world The Politics of Taste Ana María Reyes, 2019-11-15 In The Politics of Taste Ana Mar a Reyes examines the works of Colombian artist Beatriz Gonz lez and Argentine born art critic Marta Traba who championed Gonz lez s art during Colombia s National Front coalition government 1958 74 During this critical period in Latin American art artistic practice art criticism and institutional objectives came into strenuous yet productive tension While Gonz lez s triumphant debut excited critics who wanted to cast Colombian art as modern sophisticated and universal her turn to urban lowbrow culture proved deeply unsettling Traba praised Gonz lez's cursi tacky recycling aesthetic as daringly subversive and her strategic localism as resistant to U S cultural imperialism Reyes reads Gonz lez s and Traba s complex visual and textual production and their intertwined careers against Cold War modernization programs that were deeply embedded in the elite s fear of the masses and designed to avert Cuban inspired revolution In so doing Reyes provides fresh insights into Colombia s social anxieties and frustrations while highlighting how interrogations of taste became vital expressions of the growing discontent with the Colombian state A Matter of Taste Stanley Lieberson, 2000-01-01 What accounts for our tastes Why and how do they change over time Stanley Lieberson analyzes children's first names to develop an original theory of fashion He disputes the commonly held notion that tastes in names and other fashions simply reflect societal shifts Preferences and Taste Helen M. Macbeth, 1997 An international team of contributors present cross disciplinary perspectives on food preferences and tastes showing the common themes of these fundamentals of human existence A comprehensive introduction outlines the themes and the links between them TASTE: Why You Like What You Like Arthur Asa Berger, 2023-03-07 Taste is an enigmatic topic We recognize that taste plays an important role in our life in that everything we buy and many things we do are governed by our sense of taste But what exactly is taste How do we get our sense of taste and how does it affect our everyday lives Does it evolve as we grow older or is it a constant in our lives Is it affected by all the influencers to whom we are exposed as we watch TikTok and commercials or do influencers merely spark some kind of inner sense of taste that was with us all the time Is our taste based on our social and economic status or something else What role do income and cost have in determining what we choose to buy What role do the qualities of what we buy and the choices we make shape our decisions Is taste based on logical thinking about things we wish to do or buy upon emotions we have generated by things like identification status or cultural imperatives Taste always involves some element of choice because if there is no choice taste is irrelevant or moot But what are the determinants when we compare things to buy or get or do when we have choices to make This book takes its point of departure from the work of the French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu whose book Distinction is considered a classic work of sociological analysis The topics dealt with are shown in the table of contents below The book is distinctive in that it offers discussions of four methodologies theories used in discussing taste semiotics psychoanalytic theory sociological theory and Marxist theory and then applies these theories in the second part of the book to a variety of topics involving taste such as yogurt dogs the singer Celine Dion ocean cruises brands smartphones men s facial hair and so on Readers of the book will learn four methodologies they can use in analyzing taste and see how these methodologies were applied A Man of Impeccable Taste R.
