Teaching Advanced Composition Katherine H. Adams, John L. Adams, 1991 Resources in Education ,1998

Community Fieldwork in Teacher Education Heidi L Hallman, Melanie Burdick, 2015-04-10 In teacher education field work in community based spaces including foster homes and programs for homeless youth is frequently contrasted with traditional field experiences in classroom settings where beginning teachers are immediately introduced to teacher centered models of instruction This volume works against such a model presenting a counter narrative of new teachers understanding of the act of teaching By exploring their work with at risk youth in community based sites the authors uncover how non traditional spaces for teaching and learning have the potential to open new doors for reimagining the teaching act and teacher identity This volume examines how prospective teachers have used writing within unconventional spaces as catalysts for considering what it means to become a teacher as well as how the work of teaching can be conceptualized It unites the practical aspects of field work and with theoretical conceptions of teaching and envisions how the work and the definition of teaching can be broadened Academic Advancement in Composition Studies Richard C. Gebhardt, Barbara Genelle Smith

Gebhardt, 2023-04-28 This volume deals with a number of related issues that are becoming increasingly crucial for English studies during this time when most faculty in the field are assistant professors approaching tenure review or associate professors seeking promotion These critical issues focus on The diversity of research and scholarly publication in composition studies The fact that composition studies faculty are often evaluated by personnel committee members department chairs and deans unfamiliar with the nature and demands of the field The way that American higher education is rethinking scholarship and the role it plays in the work and evaluation of faculty members and The role composition studies faculty can play in this review of scholarship and professional advancement This book seeks to address the entire spectrum of composition studies expository and argumentative writing personal essay literary nonfiction technical and business writing historical rhetoric empirical research and more by understanding the nature of and evaluating the work of faculty members in this broad field Scholarship and advancement issues are discussed in a variety of situations including basic and regular first year composition classes at four year and two year institutions or writing centers advanced writing courses ESL and skills development programs and writing classes and programs for teachers administrators and researchers The chapters focus on a variety of subjects including the importance of mentoring and faculty development in all departments and institutions and how young scholar teachers and assistant professors can prepare for a successful personnel or tenure review
