Teaching And Assessing Skills In Accounting:

Teaching and Assessing Skills in Accounting Catherine Coucom, Kate Pretty, 2005 Teaching and Assessing Skills in Accounting is one of a series of titles in the Professional Development for Teachers series developed and published in association with University of Cambridge International Examinations CIE The book gives clear practical and up to date guidance on teaching and assessing skills in accounting at IGCSE and O Level It focuses on teaching and learning activities which are designed in terms of the skills needed to understand and apply concepts and to succeed in the examination The author also provides advice on effective classroom practice coursework setting and integrating different skill areas

Enhancing Teaching and Learning through Assessment Steve Frankland, 2007-10-16 Assessment is the daily life of a teacher designing plans setting questions giving feedback and grading are all activities that teachers undertake on a regular basis This book provides a practical guide on the effective use of assessment It includes the use of assessment tools and pedagogical design that help students deepen their learning Major issues on assessment and some excellent examples are presented as a useful resource to university teachers in enhancing teaching and students learning

South African Accounting Education Stocktake Jaco Fouchè, Nico van der Merwe, 2020-04-07 This book is intended to take stock of the current state of accounting education with a specific emphasis on the South African situation It provides a critical overview of the current published research and identified gaps Through this it aims to equip accounting academics with information and tools to motivate them to research the field of accounting education to improve teaching and learning It also aids in the identification of suitable research topics in this regard and highlights potential pitfalls in researching accounting education The book therefore focuses on accounting educators as specialists in their respective disciplines Different authors with a keen interest in a specific area relating to accounting education research wrote each chapter in this book It forms a planned collective work assembled by appropriately qualified and experienced scholars in the accounting education field which generates a new conceptual synthesis that advances scholarship of accounting education research since no such synthesis currently exists for accounting education research in South Africa

Communication in Accounting Education Richard M.S. Wilson, F. Elizabeth Gray, Lynn Hamilton, 2016-04-14 Accounting often described as the language of business requires a diverse set of written listening and oral communication skills if those who practise it are to be effective Given the pace of change relating to for example the evolution of international accounting standards and the demands for greater transparency accountants must be clear responsive and audience focussed communicators Employers of accountants consistently comment on the need for their new graduate recruits and trainees to have strong written oral and interpersonal communication skills In this light accounting educators face the challenge of designing and delivering programmes that reflect professional expectations on the part of employers and clients and educating students on how to make informed communication choices in order to achieve desired results and to build good working relationships The chapters in this book deal with such topics as accounting students perceptions of oral communication skills competence based writing skills and the development of listening skills This book was originally published as Accounting Education an international journal Advanced Technology in Teaching - Proceedings of the 2009 3rd International Conference on Teaching and Computational Science (WTCS 2009) Yanwen Wu,2012-02-01 The volume includes a set of selected papers extended and revised from the International Conference on Teaching and Computational Science WTCS 2009 held on December 19 20 2009 Shenzhen China WTCS 2009 best papers Volume 1 is to provide a forum for researchers educators engineers and government officials involved in the general areas of Intelligent Ubiquitous Computing and Education to disseminate their latest research results and exchange views on the future research directions of these fields 128 high quality papers are included in the volume Each paper has been peer reviewed by at least 2 program committee members and selected by the volume editor Prof Wu On behalf of the WTCS 2009 we would like to express our sincere appreciation to all of authors and referees for their efforts reviewing the papers Hoping you can find lots of profound research ideas and results on the related fields of Intelligent Ubiquitous Computing and Education Digital Teaching, Learning and Assessment Upasana Gitanjali Singh,Chenicheri Sid Nair,Susana Goncalves,2023-06-15 Digital Teaching Learning and Assessment The Way Forward is the result of the continuous discussion taking place in the teaching and learning space of what the future holds for academics and their stakeholders post pandemic students The editors of this book work in the teaching and learning domain and consider such discussion critical to ensure that students of the future are well serviced by all concerned The book brings such discussions to one platform where academics administrators and other stakeholders like researchers and regulatory bodies ponder ideas and practices and how the digital world will dominate and change the teaching learning space Provides the new post pandemic audience a futuristic look at the new digital world Covers how practitioners perceive this new era Enables administrators to have a glance at the possibilities of teaching and learning of the future Gives regulatory bodies a glimpse of the future as they try to find how QA would be for such teaching and learning that deviates significantly from didactic approaches Assessing Student Achievement in General Education Trudy W. Banta,2007-02-26 Standardized tests have been cyclically resurrected as assessment tools and repeatedly found wanting This new issue looks at the broad range of skills effective writing information literacy critical analytical thinking moral awareness general communication ability and more desired in college graduates and explores the difficulties in designing successful measures of general education learning outcomes that satisfy all stakeholders Click here to view all five installments of Trudy Banta s Assessment Update Collections Cases on Authentic Assessment in Higher Education Marron, Linda,2024-08-05 The rise of ChatGPT has stirred intense conversations in education raising concerns about the loss of traditional assessment methods The increasing emphasis on examination based evaluations has gained attention leading educators to wrestle with the possible standardization of academic assessments This one size fits all approach not only jeopardizes the authenticity of the learning experience but also neglects the diverse talents and strengths of students The pressing challenge is to align the changing technological environment with the need for assessment strategies that are both inclusive and effective Cases on Authentic Assessment in Higher Education is a publication that acknowledges the challenge posed by technological disruptions and actively seeks to provide a solution It stands as a resource for educators and administrators navigating the complexities of contemporary assessment By advocating for a shift towards authentic assessments the book not only addresses the concerns raised by ChatGPT but also provides a wealth of practical examples across diverse subject areas These examples serve as a guide for educators offering inspiration and adaptability to enhance their teaching methods and foster a more inclusive and engaging learning environment
