The image shows the front cover of the textbook 'Merrill Algebra 1: Applications and Connections'. The cover features a large, detailed photograph of a nautilus shell, which is cut open to reveal its internal structure of curved, overlapping chambers. The shell is positioned diagonally across the lower half of the cover. The background of the cover is a gradient of colors: a dark blue at the top, transitioning to a lighter blue, and then to a dark brown at the bottom. The title 'Merrill Algebra 1' is printed in a large, white, serif font, with 'Merrill' in a smaller font above 'Algebra 1'. Below the title, the subtitle 'Applications and Connections' is written in a smaller, white, italicized serif font. On the left side of the cover, there are several small, white, rectangular objects that look like pieces of paper or cards, some of which are slightly overlapping each other.
