Teaching And Religious Imagination

Jeff Astley, Leslie J. Francis

Teaching And Religious Imagination:

Teaching and religious imagination : an essay in the theology of teaching Maria Harris, 1991 Teaching and Christian Imagination David I. Smith, Susan M. Felch, 2016-01-15 This book offers an energizing Christian vision for the art of teaching. The authors, experienced teachers themselves, encourage teacher readers to reanimate their work by imagining it differently. David Smith and Susan Felch, along with Barbara Carvill, Kurt Schaefer, Timothy Steele, and John Witvliet, creatively use three metaphors: journeys and pilgrimages, gardens and wilderness, buildings and walls, to illuminate a fresh vision of teaching and learning. Stretching beyond familiar clichés, they infuse these metaphors with rich biblical echoes and theological resonances that will inform and inspire Christian teachers everywhere. Teaching and Religious Imagination Maria Harris, 1987 Explores the art of teaching as an activity of religious imagination in which the incarnation of subject matter leads to the revelation of knowledge. Reshaping Religious Education Maria Harris, Gabriel Moran, 1998-01-01 Well-known religious educators Maria Harris and Gabriel Moran challenge the religious education community to risk change. Focusing on themes of foundations, development, spirituality, and a wider world, Harris and Moran discuss issues such as gender, death, and dying, and both interreligious and international dialogue. Converting the Imagination Patrick R. Manning, 2020-05-15 For two thousand years, countless people around the world viewed reality through a Christian lens that endowed their lives with meaning, purpose, and coherence. Today, in an era of unprecedented secularization, many have ceased to find meaning, not only in Christianity but in life in general. In Converting the Imagination, Patrick Manning offers a probing analysis of this crisis of meaning, marshalling historical and psychological research to shed light on the connections among the disintegration of the Christian worldview, religious disaffiliation, and a growing mental health epidemic. As a response, Manning presents an approach to religious education that is at once traditionally grounded in the model of Jesus' own teaching and augmented by modern educational research and cognitive science. Converting the Imagination is an invitation to transform the way we teach about faith and make sense of the world; an invitation that echoes Jesus' invitation to a fuller, more meaningful life. It is sure to captivate scholars and practitioners of religious education, ministers seeking to reengage people who have drifted away from the faith, or to support young people suffering from existential anxiety, and anyone in search of deeper meaning in their religious traditions or in their own lives. Converting the Imagination was a finalist for the 2021 Lilly Fellows Program Book Award. <https://www.lillyfellows.org/grants-and-prizes/book-award> Critical Perspectives on Christian Education Jeff Astley, Leslie J. Francis, 1994 Christian Education Curriculum for the Digital Generation Jong Soo Park, 2015-02-16 This book is about exploring and presenting a model of digital-based curriculum for Christian education suitable for the digital ways of learning, communicating, and thinking. Park discusses the limitations of analog-based curricula, most of current curricula, and necessities for digital-oriented ones. Then he provides a new model of curriculum: curriculum as software. Curriculum as software is a curricular framework for embracing digital culture like open, flat, network, service-centered.

Embodied Hope Veronice Miles,2021-12-29 Embodied Hope explores implications of an embodied theology of hope for preachers ability to nurture imaginative abundance and purposeful hope filled action in the most chaotic of times Embodied hope is grounded in a theological anthropology that foregrounds humanity s inherent identity as imago Dei and capacity to live as a nondistorting nondestructive reflection of God s presence in the earth The conceptual metaphor embodied Hope represents that which creates within each of us yearning for wholeness and well being the always speaking voice of God s Spirit assuring us of God s power faithfulness and redemptive presence and calling us toward loving just and restorative action in our world today Humans possess the capacity to imagine and live toward a qualitatively better state of existence for all creation but overwhelmed by the despairing realities of life we often feel despondent and drained of imaginative potential Preaching amplifies the voice of Hope bearing witness and inviting us to imagine the possibility and efficacy of a new reality grounded in Jesus s gospel proclamation Embodied Hope invites us to stand at the intersection of Hope and despair as we explore the contours and possibilities of living with Hope in times such as the present And We Shall Learn through the Dance Kathleen S. Turner,2021-07-28 Liturgical dance is a way to present reflect instruct learn study and share religious beliefs with one s self within one s worship community and with one s God Such a belief is confirmed and witnessed within a variety of religious settings throughout the world from the beginning of time to this present age However there is a vacuum of resources that connect liturgical dance within the Christian context as a tool for religious learning within the field of religious education With the continual rise of liturgical dance as an artistic form of expression this book proposes that liturgical dance offers unique attributes conducive to the teaching and learning of faith and to faith formation Kathleen S Turner shows how liturgical dance is religious education in two very important ways first by addressing the power and potential liturgical dance has in nourishing the faith life of Christian congregants through means that are both educative and reflective and second by giving examples of how liturgical dance can be implemented as a religious education tool within the teaching life of the church Preaching and Teaching with Imagination Warren W. Wiersbe,1997-02-01 No more dreary three point sermon outlines Wiersbe coaches preachers to creatively proclaim the living Word so hearers experience God s truth changing their lives
