Teaching For Commitment Liberal Education Indoctrination And Christian Nurture:

Teaching for Commitment Elmer John Thiessen, 1993 Elmer Thiessen provides a comprehensive critical survey of the debate concerning indoctrination especially in the context of confessional religious education His central aim is to establish that indoctrination as a result of religious instruction is neither inevitable nor as probable as is often assumed by advocates of liberal education Thiessen recognizes that indoctrination can occur in Christian homes and schools He believes however that before the charge of indoctrination can be correctly evaluated we need to develop a more coherent concept of the term He provides a critical examination of the four criteria traditionally associated with indoctrination content method intention and consequences and of the institutional context of indoctrination

The ^AOutrageous Idea of Christian Teaching Perry Glanzer, Nathan Alleman, 2019-07-29 Thousands of professors claim Christian as their primary identity and teaching as their primary vocational responsibility But how does being a Christian change one's teaching Indeed should it The Outrageous Idea of the Christian Teacher explores the responses of more than 2 300 Christian professors from 48 different institutions across North America to find out
