Finley, Joanie Connors, Barbara Wien, 2015-03-01 Authored by scholars from a variety of disciplines including English Theology Philosophy Communications Sociology Humanities and Peace Studies this edited volume provides detailed descriptions of the many ways popular culture can be used to teach peace Chapters discuss documentary and feature film music television literature and more providing both educators and the general public with a timely and useful tool From popular dystopian novels like The Hunger Games to feature films like The Matrix to modern rap and hip hop music contributors not only provide critical analysis of the violence in popular culture but also an assessment of how the same or alternate forms can be used by peace educators Additionally each chapter project synopses and teaching ideas as well as recommended resources

PEACE EDUCATION Dr. Bimal Charan Swain & Dr. Rajalakshmi Das, 2020-07-01 The growing literature on Peace Education reflects a dynamic field Since the early decades of the 20th century Peace Education programmes around the world have represented a number of focal themes including anti nuclearism environmental responsibility international understanding communication skills non violence human right awareness democracy conflict resolution techniques tolerance of diversity co existence and gender equality among others Peace Education includes cultivation of peacebuilding skills e g dialogue mediation artistic endeavors Peace educators then teach the value of respect understanding and nonviolence present skills for analyzing international conflict educate for alternative security systems and use a pedagogy that is democratic and particular Thus peace education as a practice and philosophy refers to matching complementary element between education and society where the social purpose i e why teach educative process are conducive to fostering peace Accordingly peace education is dialogical experience conducted through participatory learning where learners communally and co operatively grapple with contemporary issues i e talking points related to local and global contexts Akaamaa 2013

Peace Education in a Postmodern World Ian M. Harris,2013-12-16 This special issue of the Peabody Journal of Education provides a comprehensive overview of the latest developments in peace education reform School reforms based upon principles of peace education have in common a belief in the power of peace to create a positive learning climate in schools and to address the problems of violence in the broader culture A peace education strategy for improving school productivity rests upon three main assumptions 1 Violence contributes to the poor performance of many students 2 Adults in school settings need to address problems created by violence in order for schools to improve 3 Anxieties that make it hard for students to master traditional subject matter can best be addressed by a comprehensive peace education strategy that makes school a safe place to learn and provides students with knowledge about alternative nonviolent ways to resolve conflicts Peace building reforms go beyond responding to immediate forms of violence that may be overwhelming students and teachers to promoting positive images of peace through the study of nonviolence Written by established experts in the field of peace education from six different countries this collection of articles not only represents a wide variety of peace education practices from different corners of the globe but it also represents varying academic perspectives Educators can play a key role in helping human societies progress toward more sustainable ways of living by implementing peacemaking peacekeeping and peace building strategies in school programs Peace education reforms point to a new way of thinking about schools as vehicles for promoting a peace culture through insights offered by nonviolent theory

Exploring Betty A. Reardon's Perspective on Peace Education Dale T. Snauwaert,2019-05-15 This book presents commentaries by a leading international group of peace education scholars and practitioners concerning Reardon's peace education theory and intellectual legacy The guiding question throughout the book is How can her foundational work be used to advance the theory and practice of peace education In an attempt to find answers the contributing authors explore three general areas of inquiry 1 Theoretical Foundations of Peace and Human Rights Education 2 Feminism and the Gender Perspective as Pathways of Transformation Toward Peace and Justice and 3 Peace Education Pedagogy and Practices A contemplative commentary by Reardon herself rounds out the coverage

EDUCATION FOR WORLD PEACE Issues, Challenges and New Directions Dr. Santosh Kumar Behera,Lamina Kamiludeen Omotoyosi, Positive Peace in Schools Hilary Cremin,Terence Bevington,2017-04-07 Positive Peace in Schools offers a fresh and challenging perspective on the question of conflict violence and peace in schools Drawing on the most up to date theory and research from the field of peace and conflict studies this book provides readers with a strong understanding of the concept of positive peace and how the dimensions of peace keeping peace making and peace building can be robustly applied in schools This accessible book challenges educators everywhere to reconsider the nature of direct and indirect violence in schools and the structural and cultural factors that sustain it It engages with global traditions of harmony and balance that are often neglected in Western notions of liberal securitised peace in order to suggest a model for schools that integrates inner and outer peace The book also includes practical sections that outline restorative approaches to discipline peer mediation circle learning and classroom activities to promote mindfulness inclusion and wellbeing Taken together these provide a philosophy and a highly effective framework for building conflict literacy and a culture of peace in schools

Building Cultures of Peace Randall Amster, Elavie Ndura-Ouédraogo, 2020-07-13 From violence and abuse within family units to communities and regions torn apart by inter group conflict and wars among nations the human condition is rife with turmoil The consequences of this seemingly perpetual strife weigh heavily on humanity often creating feelings of powerlessness and hopelessness that only serve to breed more conflict and violence In the face of these monumental challenges initiatives for peace struggle to take root Seeking effective ways to encourage these efforts the United Nations adopted three declarations on the eve of the 21st century including the Declaration on a Culture of Peace that broadly defines what the vision looks like and the actions necessary to build cultures of peace Taking up this central challenge of our time this volume of collected essays presents multiple perspectives on the critical issues of peace and conflict resolution that pervade the globe addressing the UN's charge to develop values attitudes modes of behavior and ways of life conducive to the promotion of peace among individuals groups and nations Bringing together scholars and practitioners from fields including education sociology criminology political science and peace studies this work constructively engages the task of creating peace and fostering hope in a conflict ridden world

Peace Education from the Grassroots Ian Harris, 2013-09-01 Historians often ignore the day to day struggles of ordinary people to improve their lives They tend to focus on the accomplishments of illustrious leaders Peace Education from the Grassroots tells the stories of concerned citizens teachers and grassroots peace activists who have struggled to counteract high levels of violence by teaching about the sources for violence and strategies for peace The stories told here come from the grass roots meaning the educators are close to the forms of violence they are addressing This collection of essays tells how citizens at the grassroots level developed peace education initiatives in thirteen different nations Belgium Canada El Salvador Germany India Jamaica Japan Mexico the Philippines South Korea Spain Uganda and the United States A fourteenth article describes the efforts of the International Red Cross to implement a human rights curriculum to teachers on the ground in the Balkans Iran Senegal and the United States These chapters describe a variety of schools colleges peace movement organizations community based organizations and international nongovernmental organizations engaged in peace education
