The Additional Insured:

The Handbook on Additional Insureds Michael Menapace, 2012 At its most fundamental nature the purpose of additional insured coverage is to protect the additional insured from claims of vicarious liability that is liability based entirely on the relationship between two insureds as opposed to any active negligence on the part of the additional insured The Handbook on Additional Insureds serves as that resource by addressing all aspects practitioners are faced with when dealing with this complex coverage

The Additional Insured Endorsement James A. Johnson, 2011 Additional Insured Endorsements differ from each other and reflect a great discrepancy in the breadth of coverage provided to additional insureds A typical construction contract almost always contains a clause providing for the indemnification of the general contractor by the subcontractor for all claims damages or losses arising out of the performance of the subcontractor's operations This article explains who is actually covered in a dispute It is the actual wording or lack of wording in a construction contract that requires the subcontractor to list another organization entity or general contractor together with the language in the additional insured endorsement that is the first step in determining who is actually covered in a dispute
