Larcombe, 1973 The Advancement of Local Government in New South Wales, 1906 to the Present Frederick A. Larcombe, 1978 Australia's Metropolitan Imperative Richard Tomlinson, Marcus Spiller, 2018-07 Since the early 1990s there has been a global trend towards governmental devolution However in Australia alongside deregulation public private partnerships and privatisation there has been increasing centralisation rather than decentralisation of urban governance Australian state governments are responsible for the planning management and much of the funding of the cities but the Commonwealth government has on occasion asserted much the same role Disjointed policy and funding priorities between levels of government have compromised metropolitan economies fairness and the environment Australia's Metropolitan Imperative An Agenda for Governance Reform makes the case that metropolitan governments would promote the economic competitiveness of Australia's cities and enable more effective and democratic planning and management The contributors explore the global metropolitan renaissance document the history of metropolitan debate in Australia and demonstrate metropolitan governance failures They then discuss the merits of establishing metropolitan governments including economic fiscal transport land use housing and environmental benefits The

Cities, Citizens and Environmental Reform Robert Freestone, 2022-08-10 Cities Citizens and Environmental Reform tells a story of community involvement in the development of Australian town planning from the early 20th century from the first wave of enthusiasm for modern town planning ideals before the Great War onto the more challenging social and political environment for the original town planning associations in the post Second World War era Meticulously researched and peppered with archival illustrations the book reveals common threads and local differences in community planning movements across the nation and contributes to our understanding of modern urban planning in Australia New Regionalism in Australia Mardelene Grobbelaar, 2018-01-18 New Regionalism promoted as a new paradigm of development by the OECD suggests that globalization is bringing together new technologies management employees and communities to form new patterns of local governance However despite the growing influence of New Regionalism in regional development policy in the West and increasingly in Australia there has been little debate about the relevance and application of these ideas in Australia Bringing together contributions from academics practitioners and policy makers this book redresses this imbalance by examining the theoretical and empirical foundations of this powerful and growing school of thought locating the debate firmly in the Australian context With an opening chapter by Kevin Morgan Cardiff University who has been at the heart of the New Regionalism debate the book provides important insights into the theory and practice of New Regionalism in this vibrant region Social Process and the City Peter Williams, 2019-03-08 Contemporary urban studies engages a wide range of approaches in the analysis of the processes at work in urban areas These approaches derive from anthropology economics geography history politics and sociology as well as from the professional experience of town planning and architecture Social process and the city reflects this growing cross disciplinary engagement This shows the important problematic role which cities in particular and urban change in general have played in the growth of Australia The overriding concern of each essay in this collection is to develop an understanding of the ways urban areas function and an awareness of how differing interpretations of urban phenomena might be applied This attention to the nature of the forces at work and the processes these forces manifest themselves in is extended both empirically and conceptually This book was first published in 1983 Wealth and Progress of New South Wales ,1917 Humble and Obedient Servants Peter J. Tyler,2006 New South Wales government administration increased four fold during the first six decades of the twentieth century with population growth and greater community expectations Employment of staff for this burgeoning administrative corps and teaching service became the responsibility of the Public Service Board The Board exerted rigid centralised control over every aspect of administration The result was a moderately efficient loyal and conformist bureaucracy structured around fixed routines where innovation was not encouraged Frontiers of Labor Greg Patmore,Shelton Stromquist,2018-03-21 Alike in many aspects of their histories Australia and the United States diverge in striking ways when it comes to their working classes labor relations and politics Greg Patmore and Shelton Stromquist curate innovative essays that use transnational and comparative analysis to explore the two nations differences The contributors examine five major areas World War I s impact on labor and socialist movements the history of coerced labor patterns of ethnic and class identification forms of working class collective action and the struggles related to trade union democracy and independent working class politics Throughout many essays highlight how hard won transnational ties allowed Australians and Americans to influence each other s trade union and political cultures Contributors Robin Archer Nikola Balnave James R Barrett Bradley Bowden Verity Burgmann Robert Cherny Peter Clayworth Tom Goyens Dianne Hall Benjamin Huf Jennie Jeppesen Marjorie A Jerrard Jeffrey A Johnson Diane Kirkby Elizabeth Malcolm Patrick O Leary Greg Patmore Scott Stephenson Peta Stevenson Clarke Shelton Stromquist and Nathan Wise Decision and Deliberation David Clune,Gareth Griffith,2006 This book is an authoritative history of the NSW Parliament from its establishment in 1856 to 2003 It gives comprehensive accounts of both the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council including analyses of their performance based on contrasting liberal and executive models of Parliament The history of the Parliament is contextualised by the changing political background in which it operated over 150 years It is enlivened by portraits of colourful Members such as WP Paddy Crick drunken brawler and master of Parliamentary procedure and accounts of incidents such as George Fuller s seven hour Government and the siege by trade unionists in 2003 On a broader level the book is a dissertation on the nature of State politics and Parliaments and on the theoretical study of parliamentary institutions A NSW Sesquicentenary of Responsible Government publication Steel Town Eklund, Erik,2013-05-24 The sun moves across the narrow coastal plain that borders the range to the north It shows once separate places now merged into one suburban entity a ribbon of residential commercial and industrial development There is a commercial centre whose tall metallic and glass structures reflect the light and celebrate an industrial heritage And to the south an area where a mass of industrial buildings converge around a large harbour This area stands as a telling symbol of the region s golden industrial age To most Australians Port Kembla is a grimy polluted industrial wasteland located down the coast from Sydney Such images were formed over fifty years ago when industrial development in the town was at its height and when the expanse of breathtaking coast had been colonised by the stacks and furnaces of heavy industry Yet the vision of stacks and pollution from furnaces was never the whole story there was always more to Port Kembla Although these ideas persist even today they obscure the real experiences of the people of the port Steel Town illuminates our understanding of the processes of industrial and social change Port Kembla was unique in Australian terms an urban environment where industrial society shaped local life and politics like nowhere else This book explores the advent and implications of industrial society and the impact of economic decline and deindustrialisation In his comprehensive and persuasive account of local life Erik Eklund draws together themes of migration gender class and identity Using archival records oral history interviews and company documents Steel Town charts the relationship between economic change and the human experience of that change The story of Port Kembla is the story of the big issues of Australian history writ small on the lives of three generations of local people The legacy of industrial society is a mixed one its experiences and consequences are full of contradictions And that of course is the beauty of history Urban Nation Robert Freestone,2010 Provides the first national account of the historical impact of urban planning and design on the Australian landscape It defines and documents hundreds of places parks public spaces redeveloped precincts neighbourhoods suburbs up to whole towns that contribute to the character of urban and suburban Australia Australian Academic and Research Libraries ,1979
