The Adventures Of Fathead Smallhead And Squarehead:

The Adventures of Fathead, Smallhead, and Squarehead Sonia Sanchez, 1973-01-01 The adventures of three friends prove that slow is not always dumb and fast is not always smart Heroism in the New Black Poetry D.H. Melhem, 2021-12-14

D H Melhem's clear introductions and frank interviews provide insight into the contemporary social and political consciousness of six acclaimed poets Amiri Baraka Gwendolyn Brooks Jayne Cortez Haki R Madhubuti Dudley Randall and Sonia Sanchez Since the 1960s the poet hero has characterized a significant segment of Black American poetry The six poets interviewed here have participated in and shaped the vanguard of this movement Their poetry reflects the critical alternatives of African American life separatism and integration feminism and sexual identity religion and spirituality humanism and Marxism nationalism and internationalism They unite in their commitment to Black solidarity and advancement In Search of Our Warrior Mothers La Donna Forsgren, 2018-04-15 The Black Arts Movement 1965-76

consisted of artists across the United States deeply concerned with the relationship between politics and the black aesthetic In Search of Our Warrior Mothers examines the ways in which black women playwrights in the movement advanced feminist and womanist perspectives from within black nationalist discourses La Donna L Forsgren recuperates the careers artistic theories and dramatic contributions of four leading playwrights Martie Evans Charles J e Franklin Sonia Sanchez and Barbara Ann Teer Using original interviews production recordings playbills and unpublished manuscripts she investigates how these women despite operating within a context that equated the collective well being of black people with black male agency created works that validated black women's aspirations for autonomy and explored women's roles in the struggle for black liberation In Search of Our Warrior Mothers demonstrates the powerful contributions of women to the creation interpretation and dissemination of black aesthetic theory thus opening an interdisciplinary conversation at the intersections of theater performance feminist and African American studies and identifying and critiquing the gaps and silences within these fields Teaching Black Ana-Maurine Lara, drea brown, 2021-12-14 Teaching Black The Craft of Teaching on Black

Life and Literature presents the experiences and voices of Black creative writers who are also teachers The authors in this collection engage poetry fiction experimental literature playwriting and literary criticism They provide historical and theoretical interventions and practical advice for teachers and students of literature and craft Contributors work in high schools colleges and community settings and draw from these rich contexts in their essays This book is an invaluable tool for teachers practitioners change agents and presses Teaching Black is for any and all who are interested in incorporating Black literature and conversations on Black literary craft into their own work Black Macho and the Myth of the

Superwoman Michele Wallace, 2015-06-09 A classic and controversial critique of sexism in the black nationalist movement this landmark black feminist text is essential reading for those engaged in discussions about feminism and race politics Ms Originally published in 1978 Black Macho and the Myth of the Superwoman caused a storm of controversy Michele Wallace blasted the masculine biases of the black politics that emerged from the sixties She described how women remained marginalized by the patriarchal culture of Black Power demonstrating the ways in which a genuine female subjectivity was blocked by the traditional myths of black womanhood With a foreword that examines the debate the book has sparked between intellectuals and political leaders as well as what has and crucially has not changed over the last four decades Black Macho and the Myth of the Superwoman continues to be deeply relevant to current feminist debates and black theory today

Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood Heather Snell, Lorna Hutchison, 2013-11-07 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped contested forgotten recovered and re circulated sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film poetry literature and architecture from Canada the United States Japan Germany Britain India and Spain These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation identity and perception childhood is invisible and tangible exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children's literature and culture readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies

Speaking of the short story Farhat Iftikharuddin, 1997 Here twenty one interviews eighteen with contemporary writers and three with scholars of the short story reveal the demanding and exhilarating requirements the short story imposes upon its practitioners Although amateurs delight in writing stories form proves to demand a master touch like that of the interviewees

African-American Writers Philip Bader, 2014-05-14 African American authors have consistently explored the political dimensions of literature and its ability to affect social change African American literature has also provided an essential framework for shaping cultural identity and solidarity From the early slave narratives to the folklore and dialect verse of the Harlem Renaissance to the modern novels of today

Black Women Writers at Work Claudia Tate, 2023-01-10 Black women writers and critics are acting on the old adage that one must speak for oneself if one wishes to be heard Claudia Tate from the introduction Long out of print Black Women Writers At Work is a vital contribution to Black literature in the 20th century Through candid interviews with Maya Angelou Toni Cade Bambara Gwendolyn Brooks Alexis Deveaux Nikki Giovanni Kristin Hunter Gayl Jones Audre Lorde Toni Morrison Tillie Olson Sonia Sanchez Ntozake Shange Alice Walker Margret Walker and Shirley Anne Williams the book highlights the practices and critical linkages between the work and lived experiences of Black women
