Gregg Toland Philip Cowan, 2022-10-03 In this three part book length study of the work of Gregg Toland Philip Cowan explores approaches to co authorship in collaborative filmmaking to propose new ways of identifying attributing and evaluating the creative work of cinematographers In the first part of the study Cowan challenges the dominant director centered auteur approach to film studies critiquing the historical development of authorship theory and providing a contemporary analysis of the cinematographer s authorial role in creating images that communicate meaning through content and construction By synthesizing and updating the work of previous film theorists to define the complexities of composition movement and lighting in the second part of the study Cowan develops a new comprehensive taxonomy of functional and aesthetic elements of the moving image Finally by using the co author approach and the analytical tools developed in part two of the book Cowan provides an in depth re examination of Toland s work highlighting the historical neglect of the cinematographer s artistic contribution to filmmaking and developing a fresh approach to the analysis of contemporary cinematography in film The Aesthetics of Digital Montage Marc Furstenau, 2025-10-01 Tracing the recent changes to the technology of film editing this book offers an account of the aesthetics of digital montage It is commonly argued that the changes to the technical apparatus of editing the emergence of new systems for digital editing have altered the basic identity or ontology of the cinema as an art Such claims it is argued in this book are based on a misunderstanding of the relation between technology and technique and more generally between the technical and the aesthetic Applying recent theories of art and employing specific concepts from philosophical aesthetics an account of cinematic art is offered that can better accommodate the kinds of technical changes that have occurred in recent decades with the advent of computer technology in the cinema An aesthetics of digital montage is presented as part of a more general proposal for a theory of technical change in the cinema Semiotics and the Analysis of Film Jean Mitry, 2000 This study analyses the value of semiotics in film analysis It poses the question that if cinema is a language can it be understood through the techniques of linguistic analysis The study includes signs montage codes images and narrative

Enacting the Worlds of Cinema Steffen Hven,2022 Enacting the Worlds of Cinema offers a substantial reconfiguration of the textual roots of modern film narratology By giving sustained attention to cinema s material affective modes of communicating its stories and embedding its audience in atmospheric kinetic and multisensorial worlds this book maintains that film narratives are less representations than they are enactments brought forth through the interactions of the felt body and the film material The book defends this enactive and media anthropological thesis by reworking a series of established film narratological key concepts including the diegesis mood atmosphere and the distinction between diegetic and non diegetic sound In the process this book draws on a wide range of contemporary theoretical resources such as affective neuroscience media philosophy philosophy of mind atmosphere research multisensory perception theory as well as a broad selection of films including Berlin Symphony of a Great City Ruttmann 1927 The Cranes are Flying Kalatozov 1957 and Happy as Lazzaro Rohrwacher 2018

Classical Hollywood Cinema, Sexuality, and the Politics of the Face Paul Morrison, 2020-11-30 Classical Hollywood Cinema Sexuality and the Politics of the Face examines the representation of iconic female faces in the golden age of Hollywood Greta Garbo Gloria Swanson Elizabeth Taylor and the gay male fetishization of those faces Classical Hollywood cinema is given to an aesthetic and ideological struggle between rival scopic economies an erotics of to be looked at ness is countered by a hermeneutics of to be seen through ness The latter emerges triumphant but the legendary female faces of Hollywood resist in their different ways a coercive and normalizing knowledge which is the source of the gay male investment in them A disciplinary society privileges a hermeneutics of gaze the iconomic female faces of classical Hollywood cinema demand an erotics Classical Hollywood Cinema Sexuality and the Politics of the Face explores the tension between the two through detailed readings of Ninotchka Sunset Boulevard and Suddenly Last Summer in the context of early and mid century cinema and culture It includes for instance an analysis of D W Griffith and blackface the Stonewall riots and the coming into voice of the modern gay subject several major films by Hitchcock Citizen Kane and the emergence of rival standards of beauty both female and male in figures such as Katharine Hepburn Ingrid Bergman Humphrey Bogart Rock Hudson and James Dean This is an important study for students of queer theory film theory and history and gender and sexuality studies

Animating Film Theory Karen Redrobe, 2014-03-21 Animating Film Theory provides an enriched understanding of the relationship between two of the most unwieldy and unstable organizing concepts in cinema and media studies animation and film theory For the most part animation has been excluded from the purview of film theory The contributors to this collection consider the reasons for this marginalization while also bringing attention to key historical contributions across a wide range of animation practices geographic and linguistic terrains and historical periods They delve deep into questions of how animation might best be understood as well as how it relates to concepts such as the still the moving image the frame animism and utopia The contributors take on the kinds of theoretical questions that have remained underexplored because as Karen Beckman argues scholars of cinema and media studies have allowed themselves to be constrained by too narrow a sense of what cinema is This collection reanimates and expands film studies by taking the concept of animation seriously Contributors Karen Beckman Suzanne Buchan Scott Bukatman Alan Cholodenko Yuriko Furuhashi Alexander R Galloway
