The African Novel In English:

The African Novel in English M. Keith Booker, 1998 In this volume Keith Booker provides an introduction to eight African novels written in English The Rise of the African Novel Mukoma Wa Ngugi, 2018-03-27 Engaging questions of language identity and reception to restore South African and diaspora writing to the African literary tradition The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 An overview of the key novels and novelists of the continent covering multiple cultures and languages The South African Novel in English Since 1950 G. E. Gorman, 1978

Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongp Beti's Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe's Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance An Introduction to the African Prose Narrative Lokangaka Losambe, 2004 This collection of essays introduces students of African literature to the heritage of the African prose narrative starting from its oral base and covering its linguistic and cultural diversity The book brings together essays on both the classics and the relatively new works in all subgenres of the African prose narrative including the traditional epic the novel the short story and the autobiography The chapters are arranged according to the respective thematic paradigms under which the discussed works fall The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book's core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today     The African Palimpsest Chantal J. Zabus, 2007 Uniting a sense of the political dimensions of language appropriation with a serious yet accessible linguistic terminology The African Palimpsest examines the strategies of indigenization whereby West African writers have made their literary English or French distinctively African Through the apt metaphor of the palimpsest a surface that has been written on written over partially erased and written over again the book examines such well known West African writers as Achebe Armah Ekwensi Kourouma Okara Saro Wiwa Soyinka and Tutuola as well as lesser known writers from francophone and anglophone Africa Providing a great variety of case studies in Nigerian Pidgin Akan Igbo Maninka Yoruba Wolof and other African languages the book also clarifies the vital interface between Europhone African writing and the new outlets for African artistic expression in auto translation broadcast television radio and film Hailed as a classic in the 1990s The African Palimpsest is here reprinted in a completely revised edition with a new Introduction updated data and bibliography and with due consideration of more recent theoretical approaches A very valuable book a detailed exploration in its concern with language change as demonstrated in post colonial African literatures Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Apart from its great documentary value The African Palimpsest provides many theoretical concepts that will be useful to scholars of African literatures linguists in general as well as comparatists who want to gain fresh insights into the processes by which Vulgar Latin once gave birth to the Romance languages Ahmed Sheikh Bangura University of California Santa Barbara As Zabus book suggests it is the area where the various languages of a community meet and cross over that is likely to provide the most productive site for the generation of a new literature that is true to the real linguistic situation that pertains in so much of contemporary urban Africa Stewart Brown University of Birmingham     Routledge Handbook of African Media and Communication Studies Winston Mano, viola c. milton, 2021-02-12 This handbook comprises fresh and incisive research focusing on African media culture and communication The chapters from a cross section of scholars dissect the forces shaping the field within a changing African context It adds critical corpora of African scholarship and theory that places the everyday worlds needs and uses of Africans first The book goes beyond critiques of the marginality of African approaches in media and communication studies to offer scholars the theoretical and empirical toolkit needed to start building critical corpora of African scholarship and theory that places the everyday worlds needs and uses of Africans first Decoloniality demands new epistemological interventions in African media culture and communication and this book is an important interlocutor in this space In a globally interconnected world changing patterns of authority and power pose new challenges to the ways in which media institutions are constituted and managed as well as how communication and media policy is negotiated and the manner in which citizens engage with increasing media opportunities The handbook focuses on the interrelationships of the local and the global and the concomitant consequences for media practice education and citizen engagement in today s Africa Altogether the book foregrounds convivial epistemologies relevant for locating African media and communication in the pluriverse This handbook is an essential read
