Pragmatic Spirituality Gayraud S. Wilmore, 2004-07-01 Gayraud S Wilmore an internationally renowned scholar of the history of the African American church is one of the founders of black theology and author of Black Religion and Black Radicalism Pragmatic Spirituality brings together some of his most compelling writings to speak to continuing issues in African American Christianity and black theology The volume makes available for the first time several of Wilmore s previously unpublished essays including a new chapter on womanist theology written for this book Each chapter has been thoroughly reviewed and where appropriate reworked for this volume in order to create a coherent work which reveals a consistent pragmatic spirituality in African and African American religious practice This book presents a view of the Christian faith and life at variance with the quest for personal sanctity by emphasizing communal empowerment for humanization and justice Pragmatic Spirituality incorporates some of the most engaging of Wilmore's voluminous writings to reinstate a persistent theme that black or Africentric faith transposes itself from basically numinous and ecstatic elements in African and African diasporic religions to the immediate and practical work of healing and empowering the poor and marginalized This book transcends a narrow Africentrism to call for a broad acquaintance with a historic motif in black faith that has to do with compassion justice equality and the liberation of all people This illuminating volume displays Wilmore's influence on the development of black theology for over fifty years and introduces his work to a new generation of scholars Monarchies 1000-2000 W. M. Spellman, 2004-04-01 Monarchies 1000 2000 surveys a form of government whose legitimacy rests not on voluntary consensus but on age old custom heredity and or religious sanction Global in scope and comparative in approach W M Spellman's survey establishes connections between monarchy as idea and practice in a variety of historical and cultural contexts across a millennium when the system was without serious rival Spellman examines the intellectual assumptions behind different models of monarchy tracing the ways in which each of these assumptions shifted in response to historical factors While no human institution has retreated as rapidly in the modern period monarchy's remarkable longevity invites us to weigh the significance of hierarchy subordination and dependence as constants of the human experience Islamic and Caste Knowledge Practices among Haalpulaaren in Senegal Roy Dilley, 2019-07-29 No detailed description available for Islamic and Caste Knowledge Practices among Haalpulaaren in Senegal The Frightened Land Jennifer Beningfield, 2006-11-07 An investigation into the spatial politics of separation and division in South Africa principally during the apartheid years and the effects of these physical and conceptual barriers on the land In contrast to the weight of literature focusing on post apartheid South Africa the focus of this book includes the spatial political and cultural landscape practices of the apartheid government and also refers to contemporary work done in Australia England and the US It probes the uncertainty and ambiguity of identities and cultures in post apartheid society in order to gain a deep understanding of the history that individuals and society now confront Drawing on a wealth of research materials including literature maps newspapers monuments architectural drawings government legislation tourist brochures political writing and oral histories this book is well illustrated throughout and is a unique commentary on the spatial politics of a time of enormous change Mapping Leisure Ishwar Modi, Teus J. Kamphorst, 2018-02-06 This volume addresses the rich and varied thoughts concepts approaches and leisure practices in sixteen countries of three continents Australia Asia and Africa The chapters showcase the diversity in the forms and ways in which the idea and practice of leisure have developed across space and time However the common thread through the chapters is that concepts and practices of leisure are found all over the world from pre historic settlements to the present day consumer societies Seemingly being at leisure is a capacity of the human species present at birth and which develops in a variety of individual and societal contexts Even in situations where leisure gets little official recognition as being an aspect of life such as under colonial rule or in extremely work centric societies it needs to be contextually understood This is a welcome addition to the literature on leisure studies from a global and comparative perspective
