Pant,2010-11-19 Marriage is not a moral sexual debauchment consented by the society instead it describes an ethical limit of morality in sexual relations beyond which the sexual relations are considered to be illicit or adultery Marriage is a great attempt to keep the society free from sexual debauchment by assigning one man for one lady and one lady for one man Marriage is not a compulsion instead it is a confession done with mutual consent to live a peaceful life devotedly with each other From the point of view of sexual relations marriage is a factor which distinguishes human from animals It is sacred tribute to ancestors It is an indication of family succession or genealogy Marriage is a ritual to provide social as well as legal acceptance to the child in the womb Marriage is an indication of the death of the parents in the form of coming generations as it assures the eternal truth that older one has to end to provide the life and opportunities to the incoming generations For men marriage is in fact performing the moral ritualistic and materialistic duties while for women this is mere the accomplishing of sanctifying rites and following the codes of conduct Marriage is not an agreement done on behalf of a legal contract instead it is a complete dedication free from compulsions Wherever forementioned feelings do not exist in the background of the objectives of marriage there marriage means mere accomplishment of sexual satisfaction and false ego and in this situation marriage is just like a contract which if done by a man with one lady or four ladies is mere sexual debauchment in the point of view of the morals and ethics Eunuch and Emperor in the Great Age of Qing Rule Norman A. Kutcher,2018-07-31 Eunuch and Emperor in the Great Age of Qing Rule offers a new interpretation of eunuchs and their connection to imperial rule in the first century and a half of the Qing dynasty 1644 1800 This period encompassed the reigns of three of China s most important emperors men who were deeply affected by the great eunuch corruption of the fallen Ming dynasty In this groundbreaking and deeply researched book the author explores how Qing emperors sought to prevent a return of the harmful excesses of eunuchs and how eunuchs flourished in the face of the restrictions imposed upon them We meet powerful eunuchs who faithfully served and in some cases ultimately betrayed their emperors We also meet ordinary eunuchs whose lives punctuated by dramas large and small provide a fascinating perspective on the Qing palace world Women and Men in Late Eighteenth-Century Egypt Afaf Lutfi al-Sayyid Marsot,2010-07-05 In the late eighteenth century decentralized and chaotic government in Egypt allowed women a freedom of action that has not been equaled until recent times Delving extensively into archival sources Afaf Marsot presents the first comprehensive picture of women s status and opportunities in this period Marsot makes important connections between forms of government economic possibilities and gender relations showing how political instability allowed women to acquire property independent of males as a hedge against political uncertainty She traces the linkages that women formed among themselves and with the ulama non Ottoman native elites who aided and supported them The book concludes with a comparison of women s status in the nineteenth century when the introduction of European institutions that did not recognize their legal existence marginalized women causing them to have to rely on men as major breadwinners These important findings about the relationship between forms of government and the status of women will be of interest to a wide audience The Bed Keeper Brian Anthony Bowen,2012-02-22 More than a Biblical case for gay marriage The Bed Keeper takes readers on a journey through space and time within the pages of Scripture and reveals ancient prophecies long forgotten by the Church both Catholic and Protestant which illustrates teachings pertaining to not only the world wide gay lesbian bisexual and transgender community but indeed the Return of Jesus Christ Himself Along the way we will discover that Jesus taught LGBT people are naturally born so from our mothers wombs that the Apostle Paul ordained single gender Holy Matrimony and that God demands we be affirmed in Churches all over the globe as equal partakers in the Kingdom of Heaven The Bed Keeper is a message of hope for the LGBT community complete with Scripture based prophetic instructions for the Church to at last become all adorned like a Bride for her Bridegroom Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith,2008 Griffiths narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community

Material Girls Kathleen Stock, 2021-05-06 A clear concise easy to read account of the issues between sex gender and feminism an important book Evening Standard A call for cool heads at a time of great heat and a vital reminder that revolutions don't always end well Sunday Times Material Girls is a timely and trenchant critique of the influential theory that we all have an inner feeling known as a gender identity and that this feeling is more socially significant than our biological sex Professor Kathleen Stock surveys the philosophical ideas that led to this point and closely interrogates each one from De Beauvoir's statement that One is not born but rather becomes a woman an assertion she contends has been misinterpreted and repurposed to Judith Butler's claim that language creates biological reality rather than describing it She looks at biological sex in a range of important contexts including women only spaces and resources healthcare epidemiology political organization and data collection Material Girls makes a clear humane and feminist case for our retaining the ability to discuss reality and concludes with a positive vision for the future in which trans rights activists and feminists can collaborate to achieve some of their political aims

Women in Purple Judith Herrin, 2021-09-14 In the eighth and ninth centuries three Byzantine empresses Irene Euphrosyne and Theodora changed history Their combined efforts restored the veneration of icons saving Byzantium from a purely symbolic and decorative art and ensuring its influence for centuries to come In this exhilarating and highly entertaining account one of the foremost historians of the medieval period tells the story of how these fascinating women exercised imperial sovereignty with consummate skill and sometimes ruthless tactics Though they gained access to the all pervasive authority of the Byzantine ruling dynasty through marriage all three continued to wear the imperial purple and wield tremendous power as widows From Constantinople their own Queen City the empresses undermined competitors and governed like men They conducted diplomacy across the known world negotiating with the likes of Charlemagne Roman popes and the great Arab caliph Harun al Rashid Vehemently rejecting the ban on holy images instituted by their male relatives Irene and Theodora used craft and power to reverse the official iconoclasm and restore icons to their place of adoration in the Eastern Church In so doing they profoundly altered the course of history The art and not only the art of Byzantium of Islam and of the West would have been very different without them As Judith Herrin traces the surviving evidence she evokes the complex and deeply religious world of Constantinople in the aftermath of Arab conquest She brings to life its monuments and palaces its court ceremonies and rituals the role of eunuchs the third sex bride shows and the influence of warring monks and patriarchs Based on new research and written for a general audience Women in Purple reshapes our understanding of an empire that lasted a thousand years and splashes fresh light on the relationship of women to power Journey to the End of Islam Michael Muhammad Knight,2009-12-10 In Journey to the End of Islam Michael Muhammad Knight whose work has led to him being hailed as both the Jack Kerouac and Hunter S Thompson of American Islam wanders through Muslim countries navigating between conflicting visions of his religion Visiting holy sites in Pakistan Syria Egypt and Ethiopia Knight engages both the puritanical Islam promoted by Saudi globalization and the heretical strands of popular folk Islam shrines magic music and drugs The conflict of global and local Islam speaks to Knight's own experience approaching the Islamic world as a uniquely American Muslim with his own sources the modern mythologies of the Nation of Islam and Five Percenters as well as the arguments of Progressive Muslim thinkers for feminism and reform Knight's travels conclude at Islam's spiritual center the holy city of Mecca where he performs the hajj required of every Muslim During the rites of pilgrimage he watches as all variations of Islam converge in one place under the supervision of Saudi Arabia's religious police What results is a struggle to separate the spiritual from the political Knight searching for a personal relationship to Islam in the context of how it's defined by the external world The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Sexuality in Byzantium Mati Meyer,Charis Messis,2024-05-23 This Handbook is the first to consider the interrelated subjects of gender and sexuality in the Eastern Roman Empire from an interdisciplinary perspective Drawing on both modern theories and Byzantine perceptions and considering multiple periods and religions Eastern Orthodox Islamic and Jewish it provides evidentiary textual and visual material support for an analysis of the two linked themes Broadly the essays demonstrate that gender and sexual constructs in Byzantium were porous As a result they expand our knowledge of not only how sex and gender were conceived and performed but also how ideas and practices shaped Byzantine life The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Sexuality in Byzantium will be an indispensable guide for students and scholars of late antique and Byzantine religion history culture and art who will find it a useful critical survey of current scholarship and one that shines new light in their areas of research The focus on issues of gender and sexuality may also be of interest to individuals concerned with Eastern Mediterranean culture as well as to the broader public Chapter 21 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Claudian's In Eutropium Jacqueline Long,2000-11-09 From A.D. 395 to 404 Claudian was the court poet of the Western Roman Empire ruled by Honorius In 399 the eunuch Eutropius the grand chamberlain and power behind the Eastern Roman throne of Honorius's brother Arcadius became consul The poem In Eutropium is Claudian's brilliantly nasty response In it he vilifies Eutropius and calls on Honorius's general Stilicho to redeem this disgrace to Roman honor In this literary and historical study Jacqueline Long argues that the poem was in both intent and effect political propaganda Claudian exploited traditional prejudices against eunuchs to make Eutropius appear ludicrously alien to the ideals of Roman greatness Long sets In Eutropium within the context of Greek and Roman political vituperation and satire from the classical to the late antique period In addition she demonstrates that the poem is an invaluable if biased source of historical information about Eutropius's career Her analysis draws on modern propaganda theory and on reader response theory thereby bringing a fresh perspective to the political implications of Claudian's work Originally published in 1996 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value
