practices have been a pan Tibetan concern for a very long time but have hardly been studied by anthropologists This book presents ethnographic accounts and textual material demonstrating how Tibetans in the Darjeeling Hills India view the life span and map out certain life forces in various areas of knowledge These life forces follow daily monthly and annual cycles Divinations and astrological calculations are widely but varyingly used by Tibetans to assess the strength of life forces and forecast difficult periods in their lives Loss exhaustion or periodic weaknesses of life forces are treated medically or through Tibetan Buddhist practices and rituals In all these events temporality and agency are deeply interlinked in the ways in which Tibetans enhance their vitality prolong their life spans and avoid untimely deaths The World and Ourselves Venerable

Adrian Feldmann, 2016-02-19 After seven years experience as a doctor working in hospitals in Australia New Guinea and England I had become convinced that human suffering and happiness are largely rooted in our behaviour in particular the attitudes behind our behaviour Over two and a half thousand years Buddhist psychology has been adopted into many different cultures from the Middle East to the Far East and from Indonesia in the south to Siberia in the north because it unerringly explains what the human mind is how it functions and its underlying role in causing both happiness and suffering

These Buddhist teachings may have challenged my scientific world view to the core but after eighteen months of thorough investigation I accepted them to be valid In 1975 I became a monk in the Tibetan Buddhist tradition to learn more and to incorporate this knowledge into my life as best I could I saw this big step to be an opportunity to further my medical training through application of the proverb Physician heal thyself Although I still have a long way to go on my own path many have requested me to share with them what I have learned since then hence this book Venerable Thubten Gyatso The Lama Yeshe Wisdom Archive offers this digital edition of The World and Ourselves Buddhist Psychology All our titles are made possible by kind supporters of the Archive who like you appreciate how we make these teachings freely available in so many ways including in our website for instant reading listening or downloading and as printed and electronic books Our website offers immediate access to thousands of pages of teachings and hundreds of audio recordings by some of the greatest lamas of our time Our photo gallery and our ever popular books are also freely accessible there Please help us increase our efforts to spread the Dharma for the happiness and benefit of all beings You can find out more about becoming a supporter of the Archive and see all we have to offer by visiting LamaYeshe.com Thank you so much
