The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 The role of the writing program administrator is one of diverse activities and challenges and preparation for the position has traditionally come through performing the job itself As a result uninitiated WPAs often find themselves struggling to manage the various requirements and demands of the position and even experienced WPAs often encounter situations on which they need advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource has been developed to address the needs of all WPAs regardless of background or experience It provides practical applicable tools to effectively address the differing and sometimes competing roles in which WPAs find themselves Readers will find an invaluable collection of articles in this volume addressing fundamental practices and issues encountered by WPAs in their workplace settings and focusing on the hows and whys of writing program administration With formal preparation and training only now beginning to catch up to the very real needs of the WPA this volume offers guidance and support from authoritative and experienced sources educators who have established the definitions and standards of the position who have run into obstacles and surmounted them and who have not just survived but thrived in their roles as WPAs Editors Stuart C Brown and Theresa Enos contribute their own experience and bring together the voices of their colleagues to delineate the intellectual scope and practices of writing program administration as an emerging discipline Established and esteemed leaders in the field offer insights advice and plans of action for the myriad scenarios encountered in the position encouraging WPAs and helping them to realize that they often know more than they think they do This resource is required reading for the new WPA and an essential reference for all who serve in the WPA role As a guidebook for WPAs it is destined to become a fixture on the desk of every educator involved with or interested in administering writing programs writing centers and writing across the curriculum efforts Resources in Education ,2001-04

The Medical Library Association Guide to Data Management for Librarians Lisa Federer, 2016-09-15 Technological advances and the rise of collaborative interdisciplinary approaches have changed the practice of research The 21st century researcher not only faces the challenge of managing increasingly complex datasets but also new data sharing requirements from funders and journals Success in today's research enterprise requires an understanding of how to work effectively with data yet most researchers have never had any formal training in data management Libraries have begun developing services and programs to help researchers meet the demands of the data driven research enterprise giving librarians exciting new opportunities to use their expertise and skills The Medical Library Association Guide to Data Management for Librarians highlights the many ways that librarians are addressing researchers changing needs at a variety of institutions including academic hospital and government libraries Each chapter ends with pearls of wisdom a bulleted list of 5-10 takeaway messages from the chapter that will help readers quickly put the ideas from the chapter into practice From theoretical foundations to practical applications this book provides a background for librarians who are new to data management as well as new ideas and approaches for experienced data librarians

Inequalities, Youth, Democracy and the Pandemic Simone Maddanu, Emanuele Toscano, 2024-03-29 This book brings together studies from various locations to examine the growing social problems that have been brought to the fore by the COVID 19 outbreak Employing both qualitative theoretical and quantitative methods it presents the impact of the pandemic in different settings shedding light on political and cultural realities around the world With attention to inequalities rooted in race and ethnicity economic conditions gender disability and age it considers different forms of marginalization and examines the ongoing disjunctions that increasingly characterize contemporary democracies from a multilevel perspective The book addresses original analyses and approaches from a global perspective on the COVID 19 pandemic its governance and its effects in different geographies These analyses are organized around three main axes 1 how COVID 19 pandemic worsened social racial ethnic and economic inequalities including variables such as migration status gender and disability 2 how the pandemic impacted youth and how younger generations cope with public health alarms and containment measures 3 how the pandemic posed a challenge to democracy reshaped the political agenda and the debate in the public sphere Contributions from around the world show how local and national issues may overlap on a global scale laying the foundation for connected sociologies Based on qualitative as well as quantitative empirical analysis on various categories of individuals and groups this edited volume reflects on the sociological aspects of current planetary crises which will continue to be at the core of our societies A wide ranging international volume that focuses on both unexpected social changes and new forms of agency in response to a period of crisis Inequalities Youth Democracy and the Pandemic will appeal to scholars with interests in the sociology of health social problems and inequalities
