the authors and editors of this collection demonstrate successful models of collaboration between schools and institutions so others can emulate and promote this type of collaboration      Heterogeneous Learning Environment and Language in L2 Ramanjaney K. Upadhyay, 2020-05-27 This book explores heterogeneity in the Indian academic setting Presenting a study on the performance of Bachelor of Engineering students from various parts of the country it analyzes the subjects language skills on the basis of selected sociolinguistic variables and examines the possible role impact of using multiple languages in the communicative setting described In turn the book investigates the differences between the way language is viewed in the Orient and in the Western world and how despite their differences these views lead to similar language teaching methods in both worlds It also highlights the limitations of current theories and frameworks in terms of accommodating modern methods of assessing language skills Addressing socio pragmatic issues in terms of English proficiency and language assessment it is the first book to offer such a focused and detailed discussion of these varied but related issues making it a valuable resource for all scholars and researchers working in the areas of socio pragmatics language assessment and intercultural communication
