

New Directions for Evaluation

Chris L. S. Coryn

The Spring 2005 issue of New Directions for Evaluation, Teaching Evaluation Using the Case Method, edited by Michael Q. Patton and Patricia Patrizi is intended to advance the practice of evaluation teaching using the case method by “providing specially developed cases for teaching and teaching guidelines and discussion points to use in conjunction with the cases” (p. 3). In this issue, chapters 2-4 conclude with “Teaching Guidelines and Questions,” which are intended to provide general case teaching guidance by providing case teaching questions and evaluation points to elicit through questioning.

Chapter 1, Case Teaching and Evaluation, by Michael Q. Patton and Patricia Patrizi, outlines the logic and likely benefits of using and applying cases as a teaching method for students of evaluation. The authors argue that case teaching and training, like the longstanding traditions of using cases for teaching law and medicine, will prepare future evaluators for the practical problems that arise in real-world evaluations (e.g., “professional practice does not lend itself to rules and formulas” and “decisions are rarely routine”, p. 5). The strategies for case teaching strategies presented by the authors in this chapter include (1) facilitating case discussion to provide experiences in evaluative thinking, situational analysis, and practical problem solving for real-world evaluation, (2) set and model norms of civil interaction, (3) emphasizing advanced preparation, (3) setting expectations

Designing and Implementing Effective Evaluations Kenneth

J. Linfield, Steven Kniffley, 2022-12-06 Designing and Implementing Effective Evaluations provides extensive real life examples of program evaluations that illustrate the various elements and steps in conducting a successful evaluation. The detailed and diverse range of case studies show the common elements, methods, approaches and processes of program evaluations while also demonstrating the way that good evaluators adapt and tailor those methods to the specific characteristics and needs of a given program. The chapters explore the process of problem solving while navigating multiple stakeholders, competing agendas and varying environments. The book introduces conversations concerning how to adapt evaluation processes and concepts with culturally different individuals and communities. It discusses the role of culture in navigating a meaningful evaluation process when significant cultural differences exist between the evaluator and individuals that make up the organization. The text is a vital resource for postgraduate students in program evaluation courses in Psychology, Education, Public Health, Social Work and related fields.

The Future of Evaluation in Society Stewart I. Donaldson, 2013-09-01 The impetus for this volume lives in a rich and vibrant past. It is organized to honor one of the founders and most prolific contributors to the profession and transdiscipline of evaluation, Professor Michael Scriven, and to illuminate the future of evaluation in society. Professor Scriven often shares stories of his meetings with Albert Einstein and the frame breaking evaluation revolution he has led against the value free doctrine of the social sciences. Both his wide eyed graduate students and the more grizzled evaluation veterans in his professional development workshops quickly learn that Scriven is well traveled and has exchanged some of the boldest ideas and visions with the most brilliant thinkers of his time. Scriven insisted that the 2011 Stauffer Symposium and this volume be organized in that genre. He urged us to invite the most thoughtful and influential evaluation theorists and practitioners we could find to join him in a conversation about the future of evaluation in society. Scriven challenges us to examine the five great paradigm shifts that have revolutionized the foundations of evaluation and that he believes will form the basis for a much brighter future for evaluation in society Scriven's revolutionary ideas are followed and challenged by a group of thought leaders in evaluation who do not necessarily share his views on evaluation but who have earned his deepest respect and whose evaluation work he admires including Michael Quinn Patton Ernest House Daniel Stufflebeam Robert Stake Jennifer Greene Karen Kirkhart Melvin Mark Rodney Hopson and Christina Christie However despite his insistence that his colleagues stay focused on the future of evaluation you will find that many have recounted their adventures exchanges and debates with him over the years as well as pointed out the many contributions that he has made to the development of evaluation and to the improvement of society through his amazing portfolio of evaluation contributions

The Future of Evaluation in Society A Tribute to Michael Scriven will be of great interest to evaluation scholars practitioners and students of evaluation It will be appropriate for use in a wide range of evaluation courses including Introduction to Evaluation Evaluation Theory and Evaluation Practice courses Home-visiting Strategies Terry Eisenberg Carrilio, 2007 A step by step handbook for in home case management from a veteran caregiver Evaluation Handbook, The SAGE Handbook of Evaluation Ian Shaw, Jennifer C Greene, Melvin M Mark, 2006-07-27 The Handbook succeeds in capturing and presenting evaluation's extensive knowledge base within a global context In so doing it provides a useful coherent and definitive benchmark on the field's diverse and dynamic purposes practices theories approaches issues and challenges for the 21st century The Handbook is an essential reference and map for any serious evaluation practitioner scholar and student anywhere in the world Michael Quinn Patton author of Utilization Focused Evaluation In this comprehensive handbook an examination of the complexities of contemporary evaluation contributes to the ongoing dialogue that arises in professional efforts to evaluate people related programs policies and practices The SAGE Handbook of Evaluation is a unique and authoritative resource consisting of 25 chapters covering a range of evaluation theories and techniques in a single accessible volume With contributions from world leading figures in their fields overseen by an eminent international editorial board this handbook is an extensive and user friendly resource organized in four coherent sections Role and Purpose of Evaluation in Society Evaluation as a Social Practice The Practice of Evaluation Domains of Evaluation Practice The SAGE Handbook of Evaluation is written for practicing evaluators academics advanced postgraduate students and evaluation clients and offers a definitive benchmark statement on evaluation theory and practice for the first decade of the 21st century Promoting the Use of Government Evaluations in Policymaking Rakesh Mohan, Kathleen Sullivan, 2007-03-05 Public policymaking is a high stakes business that affects millions of citizens and budgets ranging in the billions of tax dollars in even the smallest of states Policymakers need timely evaluative information reported in understandable language by unbiased sources It is this need that evaluators at all levels of government as well as those in many nonprofit organizations seek to meet as they conduct evaluations analyze policy options and recommend action on the part of policymakers The authors contributing to this volume examine theoretical and practical approaches to designing evaluation projects in ways that promote the use of evaluation results in high stakes settings The volume explores management of the politics of evaluation which can be accomplished by considering the context in which an evaluation occurs and examining strategies for maximizing both evaluators independence from and their responsiveness to key stakeholders Unconventional approaches such as prospective evaluation and development of analytical tools for use by agency personnel are examined as is promotion of evaluation use through a symbiotic relationship with performance measurement The chapter authors discuss utilization strategies as applied to evaluations of public health education and corrections programs The final chapter provides sage advice to evaluators on how to impact policy development
