Teaching the Way Students Learn Jill E. Cole, 2012-01-31 How do students truly learn What is the best way to teach Where do you go for help Every day you face the challenge of engaging students in learning often to disappointing results This book provides a myriad of voices at your side supporting you with sound educational philosophy and practical ideas for teaching your students Teaching the Way Students Learn Practical Applications for Today's Classrooms helps you explore the social constructivist paradigm through instructional strategies and true life teaching memoirs Constructivism is more than an ism it explains how students learn and this book provides both philosophy and practicality to bring constructivist teaching to life in the classroom Teaching and learning using a social constructivist lens can transform the classroom helping you become change agents for your students and leaders for your schools Teaching In Lifelong Learning: A Guide To Theory And Practice Avis, James, Fisher, Roy, Thompson, Ron, 2014-09-01 This is a comprehensive book for trainee teachers and trainers in the lifelong learning sector Teaching Difficult Students Nicole M. Gnezda, 2004-12-08 Here is an easy to read and inspiring text that explores the nature of young people and the effects traditional discipline strategies have on them The author recommends humanistic approaches that promote personal growth in students rather than the common system of reward and punishment that aggravates underlying psychological issues and encourages resentment retaliation apathy and failure Includes an academic review of educational psychology theories step by step instructions on how to discipline students humanely and effectively expressive artwork that illustrates how the principles of psychology manifest in the lives of real students in real schools The ideas and stories emanate from the experiences of a K 12 teacher whose personal life has been profoundly intertwined with the teaching profession This book will be of interest to practicing and pre service teachers of all subject areas and grade levels ADULT EDUCATION & QUALITY OF LIFE DR. MEENU SHARMA, This book Adult Education and Quality of Life addresses the relevance of adult education in the context of quality of life. Quality of life is defined in the framework of three components: empowerment, sustainable livelihood, and life skill, which have not been studied explicitly. Consequently, the review in this book provides the foundation for the conceptualization of the theoretical framework and conceptual meaning of all three parameters. This book also provides theories and conceptual meaning of Adult Education and Quality of Life. As this book is extracted from the author's research work, therefore, later part of this book describes the research design, method of procedure of research tool construction, data collection, analysis, and interpretation. The methodology followed during the research study includes survey research of two selected areas, i.e. urban and rural areas of the Ajmer District in Rajasthan. The research study envisages the benefits drawn by individual learners and all members of the community in the selected areas. In addition to field surveys, policy documents of the National Literacy Mission reports of the Government were also studied to understand the provision of Adult Education in the State of Rajasthan. Policy implications and recommendations for future researches are also illustrated in this book. The result of this research study indicates that literacy is the first step for achieving anything in life. This research work has signified that Adult Education has improved the Quality of Life of Neo-literates, especially for women. It is instrumental in bringing changes in less tangible factors such as personal dignity, freedom, and the extent of participation in society, highlighted in this book.

International Encyclopedia of Adult Education L. English, 2016-04-30. The Encyclopedia of Adult Education is the first comprehensive reference work in this important and fast-growing field and is an invaluable resource for adult educators who research and teach in the fields of higher education, work in community-based settings, or practise in public or private organizations. Its 170 articles, written by an international team of contributors from over 17 countries, detail the research and practice of the field from its emergence as a separate discipline to the present day, covering key concepts, issues, and individuals and providing a cutting-edge summary of ongoing debates across a wide range of perspectives, from self-directed learning to human resource development. Entries are arranged A-Z and extensively cross-referenced with detailed bibliographies for each topic to facilitate further research.

Independent Living for Physically Disabled People Nancy M. Crewe, Irving Kenneth Zola, 2001. Independent Living for Physically Disabled People was the first book to provide a comprehensive picture of the philosophy and services of independent living in the United States. It provided a beacon usable by rehabilitation professionals and consumers who were striving to create a path to full community integration. In the years since its publication, the independent living movement has flourished; centers have been built and many consumers have assumed their right to make decisions regarding their own lives. Still, the foundation provided by the authors of this book continues to be useful and relevant in the new millennium. Authors including Gerben DeJong, Lex Frieden, Denise Tate, Frank Bowe, Raymond Lifchez, Irving Zola, and Susan Stoddard describe such topics as the independent living paradigm, legislation, and community organization, diverse program models, supportive environments, technology, key IL services, program evaluation, and prospects for the future.
